Attractions AT THE MOVIES

ANTLERS—Today and Saturday, Ramon Novarro in "In Gay Madrid."

LIBERTY—Today and Saturday, "Runaway Bride" with Lloyd Hughes, Mary Astor.

SIX new song hits of unusual appeal and charm are to be heard in Ramon Novarro's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring talking picture, "In Gay Madrid," which will open today at the Antlers theatre.

Five world-famous concert and popular composers combined in creating these striking musical numbers especially for Novarro's splendid singing voice. They are used in conveying a tenuous interpretation of the plot of the Spanish romantic classic from which the picture was screened under Robert Z. Leonard's direction.

Noted Composer Engaged
Three of these songs were written by Xavier Cugat, noted Spanish musician and orchestra leader, in collaboration with Herbert Stohart and Clifford Grey, one of America's foremost operetta composition teams. These songs are "Dark Night," "Let Me Give You Love" and "Santiago."

The other songs, in lighter vein but retaining all the romantic charm of the old world atmosphere in which they are placed, were written by Roy Turk and Fred E. Ahlert, who crashed into the talking picture field with their "Marianna" numbers. These songs are "Into My Heart," "Wine, Woman and Song" and "Smile Comrades!"

From Kelly's Corner—N. J. Fisher of Kelly's Corner was in this city today looking after business affairs.
