DRYS PLAN FIGHT FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION IN 1932

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

LITTLE POINT SABLE, Mich., Aug. 7.—Executives of the Anti-Saloon League of America, gathered here in conference, already are preparing for another wet and dry fight in the 1932 presidential election.

The democratic party, they concede, will then be stronger than it was in 1928 and in the words of Dr. F. Scott McBride, national superintendent of the league, chances of having a democratic nominee friendly to prohibition "are not very hopeful."

Gathered yesterday for the opening session of their conference in a little church almost hidden by sand dunes, on the eastern shore of Lake Michigan, the league executives from all over the U. S. heard reports predicting few reversals for the cause of prohibition in the fall elections.

Although those elections are the immediate concern of the league, principal alarm was expressed over the activities within democratic ranks thus far in advance of the next presidential election.

To counteract those activities, Dr. McBride urged accumulation of a bigger war chest, strengthening of state organizations and planning a definite offensive against the wets.

"I am of the opinion," Dr. McBride said, "that the time is overripe to go to the public with a challenging call and a program. A more adequate fund for a more adequate program is demanded if we are to meet the needs of the day."

Dr. McBride sounded a cheerful note in his report of the political situation to date.

"So far," he said, "twenty primary elections have been held. In most districts and in most states the primary is the real election. We have not forgotten, however, in caring for the primaries, the non-partisan methods of the league. Particularly in those districts where the vote is likely to be close in the election, we have made it a point to win drys in both major parties.

"These 20 primaries have embraced most of the doubtful districts. They have proved to be a cross section of the country, extending from Oregon to Maine and embracing the very critical states of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Illinois. It is within those states that the wets have had their chance to win.

"While the wets put on a big campaign and spent more money and effort than ever before they have not made any worthwhile inroads on the prohibition majority in congress. There has been no loss of drys in either house. They were badly routed and disappointed in Pennsylvania. They have, however, become greatly encouraged over the nomination of Dwight W. Morrow in New Jersey."

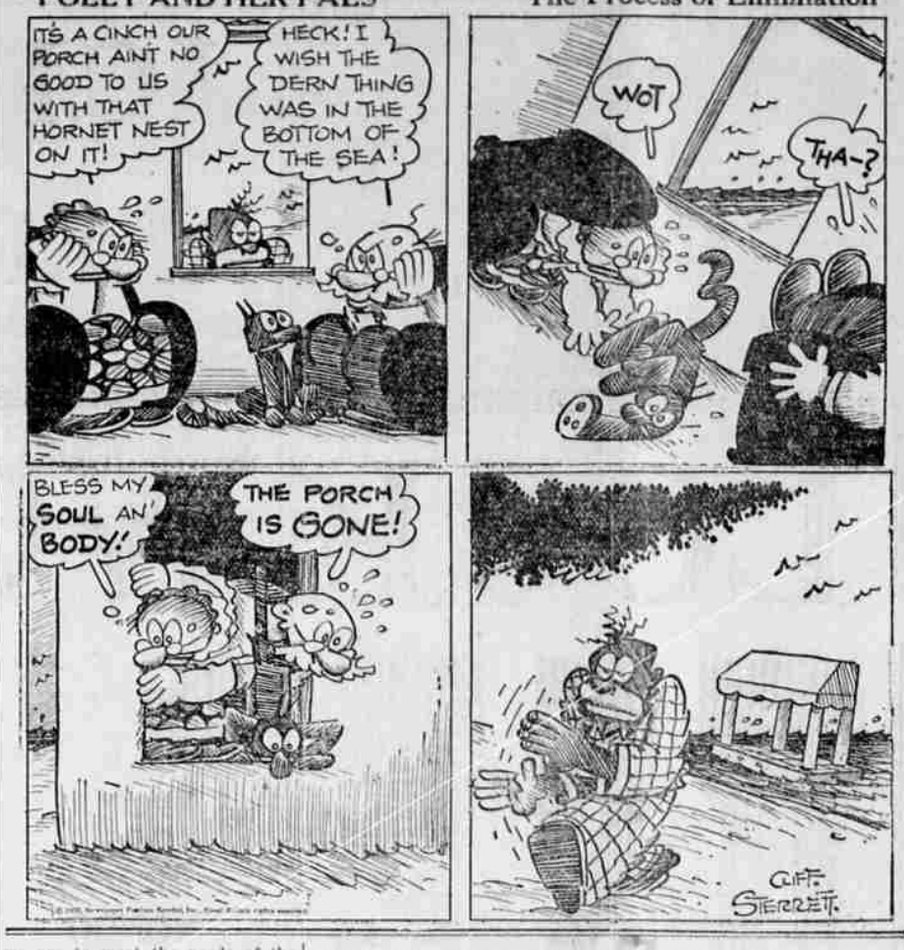
POLLY AND HER PALS



The Process of Elimination

POEM FOR THE DAY

By LOUIS ALBERT BANKS

THE PLACE WHERE EDISON WAS FIRED

Port Huron, Michigan, sends out this piece of news: "To perpetuate one of the most dramatic incidents in the career of Thomas A. Edison, his friend, Henry Ford, has purchased and will move to his Dearborn museum the Grand Trunk railway 'deepo' at Smith's Creek, near here.

"It was when the train slowed down for Smith's Creek that an irate trainman bundled the youthful inventor out of the baggage coach, pitching after him his printing press and chemical laboratory, following a fire in the coach ignited by spilled chemicals.

"This event occurred during the Civil war, when Edison was working as a train newsboy on the run from Detroit to Port Huron, where he lived with his parents. Edison was printing the only newspaper published on a moving train, writing the news, setting the type and running off the sheets on his own hand press."

'Tis good to do so much worth while
That at your failures men will smile,
That e'en the "deepo" where you're fired
Will seem to be a thing desired,
To make your name so deeply loved
Men long to see where you were "shoved".
So men will love this old "deepo"
And laugh how Tom has licked the foe.

When Tom was thrown right off the train
I'm sure it must have given pain.
Because he did not lose his grit,
But kept alive his curious wit,
He gave mankind a wondrous lift,
Became high heaven's gracious gift;
He twined such glory round his name
That e'en his failures now have fame.

I think our Henry Ford is right
To trace these steps of upward flight.
Tom Edison has flown so high
His name is written on the sky.
We like to see him in the dumps
And know that even he had bumps;
That from that blue, discouraged time
He had the grit and grace to climb.

Ah, yes, I like the old "deepo"
That shows where Tom once stubbed his toe.
It shows that we are all the same,
We must buck up to play the game,
Must never faint for one throw down—
Get up and grin, but never frown
Because for once we get "the sack";
Go straight ahead right up the track.

PORTLAND GOLFER WINS FIRST ROUND

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 7.—Larry O'Palka, Detroit, provided the first upset of the match play in the annual national public links golf tournament today by eliminating Al Quigley, Chicago, the medalist, 4 and 3, in the first round.

O'Palka's steadiness on the greens was the major factor in the victory, Quigley three-putting several and being generally off on his putting.

James Bushong, Portland, Oregon, was the first Pacific coast victor in the initial round. He eliminated Gordon Denney, Louisville, 2 and 1.

Dr. W. A. Norby, another Portlander, defeated M. W. Galido, Pittsburgh, 4 and 2.
