ALTHOUGH there have been but few large and outstanding affairs in the social realm recently, the last week has seen quite a number of the small informal gatherings which are so popular during the warmer months. The coming weeks promise increased activity locally, as the local teachers are returning from their summer schools and college girls' thoughts are once again turning toward school. Already Miss Margaret Ham has returned to the University of California in Berkeley for her junior year's work.

September promises to rival June this year in Roseburg as the month of brides. Several interesting weddings are dated for early autumn, and among the younger circles showers for brides-elect are coming to the fore. Miss Shirley Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight, whose marriage to Roy Houser of Albany is an event of the near future, has been the center of several delightful affairs among the members of the younger set. Miss Pauline Bubar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bubar, whose marriage to Donald C. McKillop is also dated for early autumn, is also a popular bride-elect.

Miss Florence Wharton, teacher in the Hawaiian Islands, who is spending the summer at her home in Roseburg, is an interesting and much feted visitor in the city.

Miss Frances Butner Entertains Wednesday Honoring Brides-Elect

One of the week's most delightful affairs among the members of the younger set was given on Wednesday evening, when Miss Frances Butner entertained with a lawn party at her home in West Roseburg. The affair was in honor of Miss Pauline Bubar, whose marriage to Donald C. McKillop of Long Beach has been recently announced, and Miss Shirley Knight, whose marriage to Roy Houser of Albany is a coming event.

The dinner was served on the lawn among the beautiful flowers about the home. Mrs. Foster Butner presiding, with Mrs. J. D. Osborne and Mrs. J. D. McKillop assisting.

Following dinner the evening was spent in sewing and enjoying a musical program.

Each of the honor guests was presented a gift of madras linen. Besides Miss Knight and Miss Bubar the guest list included Miss Elizabeth Renner, Miss Margaret Hewitt, Miss Mary Virginia Strawn, Miss Maxine Moore, Miss Vera McClintock, Miss Dorothy Geddes, Miss Norma Winston, Miss Hazel Strickland and Miss Margaret Baum.

Ladies' Day at Country Club Enjoyed by Many

Seventeen ladies assembled on the golf links Thursday morning for their weekly round of golf. The players included Mrs. J. M. Richard, Mrs. Harry Stearns, Miss Jessie Judd, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. M. C. Gordon, Miss Helen Cauer, Mrs. Edward Kohlhausen, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Mrs. T. G. Watson and Miss Vera Stephens.

Winners of the low scores were Mrs. Judd in the first flight, Mrs. Stearns in the second, and Mrs. Richard in the third flight.

A delicious luncheon was served in the club house at noon, and in the afternoon a group of ladies remained for bridge. Three tables were in play, prize winners being Mrs. S. L. Kilder, first; and Mrs. A. A. Wilder, second.

Other players at the bridge tables were Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mrs. W. N. Briggs, Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Mrs. Leon McClintock, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Mrs. Edward Kohlhausen, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. Woodley Stephens, Miss Vera Stephens and Miss Vera Carothers.

Portland Visitor Honored With Luncheon at M. F. Rice Home

For the pleasure of Mrs. Arthur Knauss of Portland, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heinline, Mrs. M. F. Rice and Miss Eva Rice entertained on Tuesday afternoon of this week with a bridge luncheon at their home on South Jackson street.

Charming appointments characterized the luncheon which was served at one o'clock in rooms colorful with the prevailing flowers of the summer season.

Following luncheon several ladies of the city were in play. High honors at cards went to Mrs. Archie Taylor, and Mrs. Knauss was the recipient of the guest prize.

Miss Shirley Knight Complimented Monday With Bridge Party

Miss Shirley Knight, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight of this city, whose marriage to Roy Houser of Albany is an event of early autumn, was complimented on Monday evening of this week with a lovely affair at the home of Mrs. Ivan Houser at Winston with Mrs. Broun and her sister, Miss Margaret Hewitt, presiding as joint hostesses.

Gladolias, zinnias and nasturtiums, artistically arranged with greenery, brightened the rooms where several tables were arranged for bridge. Miss Daphne Hughes received high honors at cards.

At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Fred Porter.

A large assortment of beautiful gifts was received by Miss Knight.
