LIBERTY—Today and Saturday, "Temple Tower" with Kenneth McKenna.

TODAY brings to patrons of the Antlers theatre an unusual Radio Pictures' treat.

Bebe Daniels and Ben Lyon Hollywood's ideal sweethearts, "team" together in the all-talking crook-romance, "Alias French Gertie."

This is their first appearance together, and Miss Daniels' first straight dramatic role since the advent of the talkies.

Adapted from "The Chatterbox," a successful play by Bayard Veiller, the role imposes a test of Miss Daniels' dialogue abilities. One third of the star's lines are delivered in French, the other in the argot of the underworld. It goes without saying that Bebe adds new laurels to her talkie fame.

Ben Lyon, as the smooth, handsome, light-fingered Jimmy Hartigan, is well cast, and is especially convincing in the romantic scenes opposite his fiancée.

George Archibald directed. Others in the cast are Robert Emmett O'Connor, Betty Pierce, John Ince, Daisy Belmore, Nella Walker, Arthur Housman and Charles Giblin.
