POLLY AND HER PALS — Women Are Undependable Creatures

TODAY'S MARKETS

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.—Top grade eggs were unusually firm in price today. Supplies of these were apparently below the demand. Complaint has been made that some eggs are showing effects of warm weather.

Trading in butter was quiet with supplies plentiful. No change in price was announced.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the U. S. department of agriculture says:

Trading was fairly good on the wholesale fruit and vegetable market Monday morning, with very few over-supplies, and prices generally steady or slightly stronger.

Track-holdings of cantaloupes were all cleaned up Saturday, and trading was brisk, at unchanged prices on today's arrivals. Potatoes advanced 20-25c per cwt. on all grades and varieties. Good green corn met with excellent demand at slightly higher prices. Corn of only ordinary quality showed no advance, however.

Although there is a liberal supply of peaches enroute from California, Portland's team-track supplies are light, today, and prices for Hales and Elbertas are steady to firm.

The outside celery market is very dull, and Oregon shippers are distributing their loadings over a very wide area, in preventing further declines. Destinations range from Montana to Texas and Georgia.

Peas were around 5c and beans mostly 4c.

Other prices included:

Carrots, new, 20c dozen bunches.

Beets, new, 20@25c dozen bunches.

Cabbage, flat type, $1.00@1.25 crate.

Initial Dillard, Oregon, cantaloupe movement has been postponed again, to about August 22.

Several carloads of Labish onions have been dug, and are now drying preparatory for shipment in another week or so.

ANTLERS TO CLOSE TO EXPEDITE WORK

The Antlers theatre will be closed for a period of ten days or two weeks after the Sunday program to permit unhindered work while the building is being remodeled, Manager Gross announced today. During the preliminary remodelling work, the matinee and evening shows have been given as usual, but it will be necessary, after Sunday, to close the theatre in order that the balcony changes can b emade and to permit rewiring.

Arrangements have been made to hold matinee and evening shows at the Liberty theatre while the Antlers is closed.

A double shift will be put at work on the remodelling job, so that no more delay than necessary will be incurred.

POEM FOR THE DAY

By LOUIS ALBERT BANKS

"BOYS UNLIMITED"

"This is a greatly original scheme to form a company of British citizens to develop a great national treasure," said Jeffrey Farnol, English writer, introducing an appeal for £50,000 for the National Association of Boys' Clubs.

"The assets of this company are 'Boys' and its name 'Boys Unlimited'," he continued, adding: "We can all buy shares in this company whose raw material is neglected boys and whose finished product is character sterling. Subscribers to this issue are entitled to participate in the rich dividends of happiness which the boys' clubs are earning and to share with them the honor of helping a good sort of boy to become a good sort of man."

This title stirs my heart down deep
Where I my richest treasures keep.
There is no limit to a boy
Who all his forces will employ.
If this in England they could say.
How much more true 'mong us today!
We've just had Coolidge for our head;
Through humble paths his boyhood led.

And now Herb Hoover's at the wheel,
Is holding steady, even keel—
The greatest ruler in the world.
Beneath the grandest flag unfurled;
Although he was an orphan lad
Who worked for everything he had,
He's made a great successful climb
To place on earth that's most sublime.

This is the golden age for youth.
When mind is open to the truth
There is no limit to his sky
Who keeps his soul's ideal high.
Let Lindbergh's bright and happy fate
Reveal how wide the open gate;
It does not need strong pull or name
To climb these days to heights of fame.

It is the plain old-fashioned truth
That still will crown ambitious youth.
The strictly honest faithful work
That dares its dream and does not shirk
Will never lose its magic power
No matter how the new may tower.
For these are at the base of life;
With noblest triumphs they are rife.

GIANTS SUPPLANT ROBINS AS THREAT TO CHICAGO CUBS

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

A few days ago the Brooklyn Robins were fighting to keep a foot hold on first place in the National league pennant race. They failed in a crucial series at Chicago and now they are battling to stave off the mad rush of the Giants.

The Robins dropped a game further out of first place and a half game nearer the idle Giants in third position yesterday when they lost 4 to 3 to the Pittsburgh Pirates. Going into the last half of the ninth, Uncle Robbie's boys held a one-run lead by reason of Glenn Wright's homer. Dick Bartell advanced to the plate with the bases loaded and rapped a sizzling double down the third base line—a blow that scored two runs and gave the Pirates the game.

The Cubs pounced upon two Phillies' pitchers for 17 hits to win 17 to 3 and increased their lead over the Robins three and one-half games. It was the champions' eleventh victory in the last 13 starts, with one tie. Big Pat Malone held the Phillies to eight hits and accounted for his fifteenth game of the season while Hack Wilson connected with his forty-second homer, one short of the league record set last season by Chuck Klein, who saw the ball sail into the bleachers from his position in the Phillies' outfield.

The three leaders in the American league won, Philadelphia downing St. Louis 6 to 4, Washington turning back Detroit 5 to 4 and the Yankees beating the Chicago White Sox 11 to 4.

Cleveland and Boston were rained out. Only two games were scheduled in the National circuit.
