Explorer Will Appear in Roseburg

CAPT. SALISBURY

Capt. Edward A. Salisbury, renowned explorer, is to appear in person at the Liberty Friday and Saturday of this week when his two famous exploration pictures are to be shown. "The Lost Empire," a 100 per cent talking picture, bringing the language and songs of the natives of the South Seas, to the screen, will be shown Friday. "Gow," the story of a ferocious head-hunter, a picture that has never been presented in cities smaller than Portland previous to its showing here, will be shown Saturday.

Captain Salisbury, who made the pictures and whose adventures have created world wide fame for him, will lecture upon the adventures connected with each picture.

He also appears in both the films. His writings have appeared for several years in some of the leading travel and adventure magazines of this country. He has lectured in every important city in the United States and during the last few years has proved one of the outstanding radio talkers of the country. Last winter he was heard over Portland stations and in California.

There's no stopping the irrepressible "Red Head"! Here she is, with the new Bow line, the new coiffure, the new boy friend, and a million dollars worth of pep, personality and "the old zingo!" Singing four great Bow-de-oh-Bow songs and lovin' like Bow only can!

LIBERTY

Attractions AT THE MOVIES

LIBERTY—Today and Tuesday, Clara Bow in "Love Among the Millionaires"; Wednesday and Thursday, "The Furies," with H. B. Warner and Lois Wilson; Friday and Saturday, Captain E. A. Salisbury, noted explorer, presents "The Lost Empire" and "Gow." Capt. Salisbury appears in person, matinee and evening.

CLARA BOW'S first musical romance, with lots of music and lots of romance, "Love Among the Millionaires," opened at the Liberty last night to run three days. This is the first time the "It" girl has done any singing and dancing on the screen and she made more fans for herself by her new effort. Mabel Green, the juvenile who will be remembered from "Paramount on Parade," certainly puts over some real laughs in this new picture. Stuart Erwin, dumb Axel of "Sweetie" and several other hits and Skeets Gallagher contriana. He has been in Java, Sumatra, Bali, Borneo and other of the Dutch East Indies. He has dreamed in the quiet atmosphere of the lazy South Sea islands and staked his life on his wits among the cannibals and head-hunters of the islands of the Western Pacific, a part of the world where it is no joking matter for a white man to go at all.

A Quality you would insist upon if you knew all of the Facts

FACT 36

Schilling is not content merely with the essence of peppermint and rose in these two delightful extracts. In addition to this, fragrant rose petals and aromatic peppermint leaves are actually steeped for weeks in the extract, before it is bottled and sent to you. That is why they are both so unusually fragrant in your cooking.

FACT 32

Shake a little Schilling Allspice on a piece of paper side by side with any other. Schilling's is dark in color, clearly rich with the flavor oil. The others are lighter in color and look dry by comparison. And what a difference in the flavor!

There are 39 other facts just as interesting about Schilling—Vanilla—Pepper—Nutmeg—Orange—Almond—Mustard—Ginger—and a dozen others.

FACT 31

Mix 1 part of Schilling Cinnamon to 10 parts of hot water. Do likewise with any other cinnamon. Dip a cube of sugar in each of these solutions, and place on the tongue. Then YOU decide which has the finer flavor! The comparison is unmistakable, because Schilling's is made from the finest Saigon cinnamon bark—unadulterated with cheaper grades.

FACT 33

Schilling Lemon Extract contains 3 times the amount of lemon oil required by the United States Government Pure Food Department—3 times as much—and more than most any other you can buy. That is why it goes further—why it imparts a richer lemon flavor.
