Rose P. T. A. Has Fine Attendance for First Meeting of Season

The Rose school parent-teacher association held its first meeting of the fall season on Monday night in the school house. A large attendance of parents and teachers was present. E. S. Hall, principal of the school, was in charge of the meeting. The program was presented by the pupils of Miss Stewart and Miss Strader's classes. Miss Kershaw, music instructor, gave two piano numbers, and H. A. Canaday and son, Hilary, gave a piano and cornet number. Carlisle and Wilder also played two piano selections. Songs were arranged by Mrs. Guy Cordon and Mrs. Fred Hamilton.

A general get-together meeting and social time followed, after which light refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

The P. T. A. members are making plans to beautify the school grounds during the coming year.

Business Girls of Presbyterian Church to Form New Society

A group of the business girls of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Miss Margaret and Miss May Baldwin on Monday evening of this week, at which time plans were laid for the forming of a society for the working girls of the church, who could not belong to the Ladies' Aid or the Missionary Society. Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Mulder were in charge of the meeting. Plans were discussed for a social gathering of this group at least once a month, and further details of the society will be discussed at the next meeting.

The Baldwin home was lovely with bouquets and baskets of fall flowers and autumn leaves. Following the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed by Mrs. J. E. Sawyer, Miss Gertrude Pinkerton, Miss Ruth Sweney, Miss Louise Robinson, Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Mulder and Miss Margaret and Miss May Baldwin.

Informal Dinner and Evening Enjoyed at Herbert Beyers Home

Leah McGaughey Becomes Bride of Clarence Rand on Saturday Evening

Miss Leah McGaughey became the bride of Clarence Rand at a pretty home wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McGaughey, at eight o'clock, Saturday evening, October 4, when Rev. H. Neodham, of Corvallis, performed the ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bride was lovely in a model of pastel georgette, made with long skirt, cape back and sleeveless. Miss Maude McGaughey, her sister and bridesmaid, wore orchid georgette made along similar lines. Harold Rand, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McGaughey, of Roseburg, and was graduated from the local high school, later going to Willamette university in Salem. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Rand, of Roseburg, and after being graduated from the Roseburg high school in the class of 1925, worked as bookkeeper in the Douglas National Bank. He later was graduated from Bohne Walker Business college in Portland and is now working for the Archie McGowan garage in Burns, Oregon.

Following the wedding ceremony the young couple left for their home in Burns.

Those attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McGaughey, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Harvey and children, Duane, Miss Margaret and Edwin, Mr. and Mrs. Edith and Miss Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Evan W. M. E. Church Members Compliment Rev. and Mrs. Edwards Wednesday

The Methodist Episcopal church members entertained with a social and pot-luck dinner on Wednesday evening honoring Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Edwards, who will be with the church another year. The tables were beautiful with huge bouquets of yellow marigolds and greenery. Covers were placed for one hundred and fifty people.

Following the dinner a most enjoyable program was given. The program represented a "Seth Parker radio performance." E. M. Squier acted as Seth Parker and had his dog, Peter, on the stage with him. Mrs. Charles Heinlin was "Ma" Parker. Mrs. J. A. J. Goddes, acting as "Lizette," recited the book of the Bible in four acts. Foster Butner, as Cefus, delighted the audience with a recitation of "Casey at the Bat." H. A. Canaday, as the Captain, sang, "Anchored," and was cheered heartily. Leroy Hatt, as Jeremiah, sang a song, the words being especially written for Rev. Edwards, and sang to the tune of "The Rosary." Mrs. Canaday, as "Suzanna," and president of the Ladies Aid, caused many a laugh with her ideas on every subject.

The audience greatly enjoyed hearing "Maggie Smith" (Mrs. Harrie Booth) sing "Jesus Wants Me for a Sunbeam." In true Seth Parker style, Mrs. Hugh Whipple, as "Katie," and Mrs. Myrtle Williams, as "Morandy," sang "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning," and Morandy and Jeremiah sang "In the Garden." The male chorus sang an especially arranged song about Dr. Edwards' happy smile and set to the tune of "When You Have Gone I'll Not Forget You." Other characters included Mrs. J. E. McClintock, Mrs. George Quinn, Mrs. Foster Butner, Mr. and Mrs. Hester and R. L. Whipple, who sat on the platform and said what they pleased and interrupted the services at various times.

The collection was taken and an argument arose among the Seth Parker performers, as to what to do with the money. Suzanna wanted to use it for the Ladies Aid and Morandy wanted it to go to the Foreign Missions. It was finally decided by Cefus to buy flowers for Mrs. Edwards. He immediately disappeared and upon returning presented a large basket of beautiful flowers to Mrs. Edwards.

Engagement Announced of Melrose Girl to Evangelist at Interesting Affair Friday

An interesting affair of the season in the Melrose vicinity occurred on last Friday evening, October 3, when Miss Edna Bailey was hostess at a seven-thirty o'clock farewell dinner in honor of Evangelist Elmer Smetstad, who is leaving in the near future for California.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with blue and gold streamers and bouquets of flowers. A small basket of flowers formed a centerpiece for the table. The hand-painted place cards were attached to a gold streamer which came from the handle of the basket to each cover.

Following the dinner, the guests drew numbers. The one holding the lucky number was to search the bouquet in the center of the table and tell the other guests what had been found. Mrs. C. A. Johnson, of Melrose, held the lucky number and after searching the bouquet found a small white box. Upon opening it, she found a double heart-shaped card, on which was written the announcement of the engagement of Miss Myra Bailey to Mr. Smetstad.

Mr. Smetstad is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Smetstad, of Stoughton, Wisconsin, and Miss Myra Bailey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bailey, of Melrose. The wedding date has not been set.

Those enjoying the affair included, Evangelist Smetstad, Miss Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bailey, Rev. H. W. Murphy, pastor of the Upper Room Pentecostal Mission in Roseburg, and Mrs. Murphy and two daughters, Miss Mildred and Miss Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, of Roseburg, Mrs. C. L. Cederstrom, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson and daughter, Miss Clara, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Adridge and daughter, Mrs. Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bursik, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Nelson and daughter, Miss Florence, Evangelist Bernice Ferguson and husband, R. McCulloch, Miss Alice Lander and the hostess, Miss Edna Bailey, sister of the bride-elect.

Miss Helen Casey Complimented With Dinner on Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lockwood complimented Miss Helen Casey with a lovely seven o'clock dinner at their home on Sunday evening of this week. A centerpiece of fall flowers in shades of pink, arranged with greenery, and tall pink candles, made an attractive table. Covers were placed for Miss Helen Casey, honor guest, Miss Naomi Scott, Miss O. May Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lockwood, and Mrs. A. Thorne, Frank Clemens and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lockwood.

Bridge was played during the evening with Miss Naomi Scott winning first prize for the ladies and Fred Lockwood winning first prize for the men.

Roseburg Woman's Club Has Fine Meeting on Tuesday Afternoon

The Roseburg Woman's club held its first fall meeting on Tuesday afternoon in the Woman's club rooms, at which time the regular business meeting was held in charge of the new president, Mrs. W. E. Ott.

Reports from the various committees were given. Mrs. Louis Kohlman reported the plans for the new year's work and stated that one meeting would be in the form of a business and entertainment meeting and that one would be in the form of a luncheon, after which the members would new for the Roseburg Woman's club service shop.

Mrs. William Bell reported that there had been a total sum of $77.95 taken in by the service shop during the summer months. This amount was taken in on Saturdays, when the shop was especially open for people making to buy articles for the club. Rent of the room for the club amounted to $33 for the summer months.

W. C. Harding, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, was the principal speaker of the afternoon. His subject dealt with the relationship of the Woman's club to the chamber of commerce. His talk was both interesting and instructive and very much appreciated by the members of the club.

Mrs. Morgan Fowle, Portland radio singer, delighted the members and guests with several selections.

Light refreshments were served by the officers of the club, following the program. The rooms were very attractive with large bouquets of fall flowers in brilliant hues.

The next meeting of the club will be held in the club rooms on Tuesday afternoon, October 21.

McClintock, Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. W. E. Ott, Mrs. John Thorne, Mrs. Harry Stearns, Mrs. T. G. Watson, Mrs. A. A. Richard and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker. Mrs. Harry Stearns won first prize for the day.

Natski Camp Fire Group Making Plans for Year's Activities

The Natski Camp Fire Girls' group, who have been meeting regularly since the opening of the school season, have outlined a most interesting and busy year. Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. T. R. Burr, Miss Thelma Smith and Miss Edith Veatch are guardians of the group this year.

The girls are looking forward to the public ceremonial, which the group will sponsor on Christmas. They will celebrate the birthday anniversary of the group in March. Extensive plans for next summer's camp activities are being outlined during the meetings.

The food sale, sponsored by the Camp Fire group last Saturday, was a decided success.

Lady Elks Card Party Outstanding Success of Fall Season

The most brilliant affair of the past week occurred on Thursday evening at the Elks' temple, when the Lady Elks sponsored a large card party for their members, the Elks, and their invited guests. The rooms were unusually beautiful with masses of autumn leaves, large baskets of carnations, zinnias and other fall flowers.

Seventeen tables of bridge were in play with Mrs. J. E. Sawyer winning first prize for the ladies and Mrs. A. J. Ford winning second prize. Chester Morgan won first prize for the men and Hugh Whipple was awarded second prize.

Three tables of five-hundred card party were played with Mrs. H. C. Otterby winning first prize for the ladies and Mrs. Charles Healy winning second prize. C. W. Parker received first prize for the men and Charles Healy second prize.

The dining room was beautiful with its array of buffet decorated tables, where refreshments were served to the guests, who were later seated in the lodge room.

Mrs. Ivan Pickens was complimented highly for her management of the entire affair, as it was one of the outstanding card parties to be sponsored by the Lady Elks. The card parties are given twice each year, once in the spring season and once in the fall.

Poets' Corner

A HUNTER'S STORY
By GRACE CUREAK

It was autumn season: the day was warm.
I had hunted for deer since early morn.
I paused to rest 'neath a leafy tree.
Sort o' dozing, I guess. Will you believe me?
A five-point buck slipped out of the ferns,
Said "Beg your pardon, please don't be alarmed;
If you've no objection, I'll rest a bit."
I answered "You're welcome, I'm sure of it."
He leaned against a clump of birch
Told me this tale (or I'm a liar):
"Six summers I've seen come and go.
Each year brings change, as you all know.
Bright red huts, puffed breeches, golf socks to boot.
It's as hard to hide from such ducks
It's manners and bill bluffs that get my goat."
I started to say "And how is that?"
He looked around, spat out his cud,
Raised a slender foot and tapped on the wood.
"Well, since I've no use for city dudes
I'd sort o' hoped if anyone killed me
'Twould have been an honest bill-billy."
I was now trembling, but I raised my gun,
Sighted gray hair and fired—boom! boom!
I missed him by a length and a half.
And he leaped away with a jarring laugh.
Fifty awake, I looked up to see
What had happened to upset me.
A snaky squirrel who bounced a cone on my bean
Consisted of all the game I had seen.
The five-point buck was a poor hunter's dream.

Lady Golfers Planning Large Bridge Party for Next Thursday Afternoon

Twelve members of the Ladies Golf club read off Thursday morning playing Scotch golf at the Roseburg Country club this week. The members paired off in six couples and each couple played with one ball. Miss Naomi Scott and Miss Helen Casey had low score for the game.

Those playing golf included Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. Harry Stearns, Mrs. Guy Cordon, Mrs. L. E. McClintock, Mrs. W. E. Ott, Mrs. T. G. Watson, Mrs. Edward Kohlman, Mrs. A. A. Richard, Mrs. Phil Harth, Miss Naomi Scott and Miss Helen Casey.

A twelve o'clock lunch was served in the club house, then several members returned to the course for golf and others remained in the club house for bridge. Those playing bridge included Mrs. L. E. McClintock, Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. W. E. Ott, Mrs. John Thorne, Mrs. Harry Stearns, Mrs. T. G. Watson, Mrs. A. A. Richard and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker. Mrs. Harry Stearns won first prize for the day.

Next Thursday will mark one of the largest events for the entire ladies' golf season. A large bridge party will be given at the club house in the afternoon. Each lady member is privileged to invite one guest for the day. All cups and prizes for the entire season will be awarded on this date and it is hoped that every club member will be present for the occasion.

The plans for the affair have been completed and it promises to be one of the most enjoyable events of the fall season.

Mrs. J. M. Judd is general chairman of the affair. Mrs. Ivan Pickens is chairman of the decoration committee, Mrs. Harry Stearns is chairman of the bridge tables and Mrs. S. L. Kidder is chairman of the refreshment committee. Reservation of tables may be had by calling Mrs. Stearns. Only lady golfers and their invited guests are to spend next Thursday at the Roseburg Country club house.

More Fishskin Shoes Predicted for Winter

PARIS (AP)—Fishskin shoes and handbags are the winter ensemble several shoe designers are predicting.

The fishskin is hard and has a fine pebbled surface like sandpaper. Black, dark brown and navy blue are the colors most shown.
