TODAY'S MARKETS

(Associated Press Local Wire) PORTLAND, Oct. 18.—Conditions in Portland wheat market were unchanged today. Price today, 100c, 100c, 100c.

However receipts of the last day and the country demand made it a cent making closer stock now quoted at 11c, 11c, 11c.

Wheat and vegetable market were quiet today. A brisk wheat trade at mostly unchanged prices except for some spots where some prices were lower, notably in some, $1.00 to $1.25 a hundred, off a cent. Oregon stock rates the market.

Potato markets both at Portland and throughout the country were steady with a stronger undertone but selling prices were unchanged.

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—The common oat market today was quiet.

The domestic wool market has been very slow and in some cases the National Wool Marketing association has this week reaffirmed the policy of stabilization of wool prices so far as possible.
