D. A. R. Entertains State Regent With Banquet and Meeting Monday Night

The Daughters of the American Revolution met on Monday evening at the Hotel Umpqua with Mrs. W. W. McCredie, state regent, and a resident of Portland, as honor guest. A six-thirty o'clock dinner was served at tables attractive with beautiful bouquets of red roses and white chrysanthemums.

Covers were placed for Mrs. W. W. McCredie and twenty members of the local D. A. R. chapter. Following the banquet the members escorted Mrs. McCredie to the home of Mrs. Frank Churchill on East Cass street, where a business meeting was held. Mrs. McCredie gave a very interesting talk on the new $7000 log cabin that the D. A. R. members are building in Champeong park near Newberg. Champeong park commemorated the foundation of government in the Pacific northwest. It is owned by the State and is an ideal meeting place, not only for each recurring memorial celebration, but for picnic parties during the summer months. The park consists of 41.73 acres and plans are underway by the state to purchase land surrounding the park to make the area 106.73 acres. Money has been appropriated by the state and various organizations to beautify the park and make it the most attractive spot in Oregon.

The new $7000 log cabin, which is being erected by the D. A. R. will be used to preserve old Oregon relics. Rooms are being built fireproof for the relics.

Mrs. W. M. Campbell, local regent, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. E. B. Stewart and Mrs. W. R. Willis were in charge of the banquet at the Umpqua hotel.

Mrs. S. D. Chapman Is Hostess to Glide Societies This Week

Mrs. S. D. Chapman was a most gracious hostess when she entertained the Glide Baptist Ladies Aid and Missionary society this week. A business meeting was held with Mrs. W. F. Price and Mrs. S. J. Shrum in charge of the devotionals. The secretary-treasurer reported that forty dollars had been taken into the treasury from the food sale, which was recently held in town. The societies are now preparing a caterer's lunch to be held all day on election day in the basement of the church. They are also planning on serving a turkey dinner in the near future.

The rooms were arranged with bouquets of autumn leaves and flowers. A social hour followed the business and devotionals service. A feature of the afternoon was a miscellaneous shower for a recent bride, Mrs. Robert Casebeer. Many lovely gifts were presented to the honor guest from her friends. A delicious two-course lunch was served at one long table in the dining room. A large bowl of yellow dahlias centered the table and bowls of fruit and Halloween favors completed a pretty table setting. Covers were placed for Mrs. Robert Casebeer, honor guest, Mrs. S. J. Shrum, Mrs. W. F. Price, Mrs. John Casebeer, Mrs. F. McLaughlin, of Roseburg, Mrs. E. S. Blakely, Mrs. George Casebeer, Mrs. Verne Shrum, Mrs. C. T. Talcott, Mrs. H. L. Engles, Mrs. Oscar Silanous, Mrs. Phil Strader, Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. Guy King, Mrs. F. O. Winkler, Mrs. Fred Asam, Mrs. Charles Vleck, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Larkin Rice, Mrs. Albert DeBernardi, Mrs. Floyd Watson, Mrs. Alvin Schloeman, Miss Eloise Caswell, Miss Norma Jean Shrum, Miss Marie Vleck, James K. Watson and Phil Strader Jr.

Mrs. Sarah Wimer assisted Mrs. Chapman with the serving.

Miss Esther Wright Complimented With Party on Birthday

A six-thirty o'clock dinner was enjoyed at the J. Wendell Wright home in North Roseburg on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Esther Wright's birthday anniversary. Roses and fern were arranged attractively on the table and covers were placed for Miss Esther Wright, guest of honor, Mrs. Philip Matthews and family, Morgan Russell and Mr. and Mrs. J. Wendell Wright.

At nine-thirty o'clock in the evening, Miss Wright was pleasantly surprised by her friends calling at her home. Five hundred was played and Miss Thelma Critser won the ladies prize, with Fred Cockle winning the men's prize.

Those enjoying the evening besides Miss Wright included Mrs. and Mrs. George Hinsdale, Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Cockle, Miss Gwendolyn and Miss Jean Scott, Miss Thelma Critser, Donald Hazen, Arzos Fisher, Allan Burkhardt and Morgan Russell.

A lovely gift was presented to Miss Wright from her friends.

Woman Benefit Association Meets on Thursday Night

The Woman's Benefit association met on Thursday evening at which time the regular business meeting was held. Games and visiting were enjoyed until a late hour, when the hostesses, Mrs. Belle Stephenson and Mrs. Matta Byn, served dainty refreshments, at tables decorated with baskets of fruit and fall flowers.

Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Ellison, Mrs. Rauch and Mrs. Helen Rapp were honor guests, as each had a birthday during the past three months. Several of the local members are planning to attend the Albany rally on November 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Weber Entertain With Dinner for Children's Birthdays

Mr. and Mrs. George Weber entertained with an informal birthday dinner at six-thirty o'clock on Thursday evening at their home on Commercial avenue, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of their four children, Maurice Weber Sr., Henry Weber, Mrs. Elsa Weber Kronke and Ernest Weber. Gladiolus arranged with greenery formed an attractive center piece and covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Weber Sr. and son, Maurice Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weber, Mrs. H. L. Engles, Mrs. Albert Kronke, Ernest Weber and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. George Weber.

New Society Organized in Presbyterian Church for Working Women

The Presbyterian church recently formed an organization of women of the church, which will provide for social and friendly contacts for those who cannot attend the other women's organizations. At a recent meeting, a committee was appointed to give a dinner at the church inviting the women of the church and organizing this society. The dinner was held on Tuesday evening, October 21, at the Presbyterian church.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Muldrin, their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. P. Robinson and children, Miss Louise and son, P. Robinson Jr., and Mrs. J. A. Cobb, Mrs. Elsie Williams, Mrs. Nellie Schellfele, Mrs. Anna Winters, Miss Clara Dillard, Mrs. Sara M. King, Mrs. Regina Sawyers, Mrs. Laura Iles, Mrs. B. W. Maddox, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. S. L. Virden, Mrs. Lilla Vowell, Miss Joyce Handley, Miss Edna Paulsen, Miss Naomi Cobb, Miss Martha Perry, Miss Gertrude Rast, Miss Elleen Norton, Miss May and Miss Margaret Baldwin, Miss Katherine Olsen, Miss Verna Carothers and Miss Esther and Miss Eleanor Sherk.

Following the dinner, a business meeting was held. Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Miss Verna Carothers, Miss Katherine Olsen composed the nominating committee and the following officers have been nominated and elected by the society for the ensuing year: Mrs. Lilla Vowell, president; Miss Mattie Perry, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. S. L. Kidder was in charge of the business meeting on Tuesday night.

It was voted that the fourth Tuesday of each month would be the night for the meeting of the society. A name will be given the organization at the next meeting. Games and a social good time was enjoyed following the business meeting.

Twelfth Annual Meeting of Woman's Synodical of Presbyterian Church Held

The twelfth annual meeting of the Woman's Synodical society of Oregon was held October 21-22 in the First Presbyterian church of Medford. A special stage carried the delegates from Portland, Corvallis and Eugene and there were representatives from all the presbyteries of Oregon.

Mrs. D. A. Thompson, of Portland, president of the Synodical, presided over the meetings and Mrs. F. C. Albert, of Medford, president of the local Missionary society, was the official hostess. On Tuesday afternoon, greetings were given by the presbyterial presidents and Miss Marjorie Kerr, of San Francisco, delivered an inspiring address. She has recently returned from a visit to the Orient and was able to give a vivid picture of conditions there, especially in Korea.

At the dinner hour, a banquet was served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church to the delegates and a large group of Christian Endeavor young people from all the Presbyterian churches of the Roseburg valley.

Following the banquet, a presentation "What Owest Thou Thy Lord," was most ably given by the young people of the Phoenix church.

Wednesday morning was largely devoted to the official business of the Synodical and the afternoon to conferences of workers. Miss Marie Preston, of Chicago, was one of the speakers, her subject being "Christ, the Motive."

The ladies of the Methodist church served luncheon on both days of the Synodical and the Synodical and the Medford ladies opened their homes most graciously to the delegates. The Medford chamber of commerce furnished a fine dinner through the valley on Tuesday afternoon. As the weather was perfect, this proved most delightful for the surrounding country was a blaze of autumn color.

The Roseburg delegates were Mrs. Alexander Muldrin, Mrs. Barton Holward, Mrs. Paul Birch, Mrs. J. N. Connor and Mrs. Charles Roberts. They were driven to Medford in Mr. J. N. Connor's car.

Delightful Party Enjoyed at Cobb Home Friday Evening

Miss Naomi and Miss Mildred Cobb entertained a group of their friends on Friday evening. The rooms were attractively decorated with autumn leaves, and an open fireplace lent an atmosphere of cheerfulness. The evening was spent in playing bridge with Miss Hazel Strickland holding high honors. Radio music was enjoyed throughout the evening and delicious refreshments were served at the individual tables to Miss Faye Geddes, Miss Dorothy Geddes, Miss Ruth Fallstrom, Miss Hazel Strickland, Miss Helen Thompson, Miss Anna Mae Hemmings, Miss Gertrude Laird, and the hostesses Miss Naomi and Miss Mildred Cobb.

Mrs. W. M. Campbell Entertains With Halloween Party

One of the most enjoyable parties of the past week occurred at the W. M. Campbell home on North Jackson street, when Mrs. W. M. Campbell entertained with a Halloween party complimenting the lady teachers of the junior and senior high schools. Halloween colors and decorations were used throughout the rooms and the evening hours were pleasantly spent playing games and strolling. Later in the evening, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Campbell, assisted by Miss Lora, Miss Kate and Miss Gayle Buchanan and Miss Elizabeth Campbell. Covers were placed at small decorated tables for Miss Fern Scott, Miss Nellie Westra, Miss Margaret Carr, Miss Thelma Smith, Miss Enid Voth, Mrs. J. A. Curaway, Mrs. J. K. Falbe, Miss Anna May Moore, Miss Fredricka Korshaw, Miss Ellen Matson, Miss Marjorie Chester, Miss Alice Deland, Miss LaVerne Tirrell and Miss Beth Partridge.

D. of U. V. Meet of Friday Night for Florence Nightingale Tent of D. of U. V.

The 1861-65 held a meeting at the armory on Friday evening, October 17. The regular business session was held and reports from the various committees given. It was reported that a number of bouquets had been sent to sick soldiers and several floral pieces were purchased for funerals. Forty-five personal calls were made upon Civil war veterans during the past two weeks. One new member, Mrs. Arthur, was initiated into the order.

Music for the good of the order was enjoyed following the meeting. The tent is to have the state in speaker, Mrs. Maude Eva Stevens, as their guests at the next meeting on November 7, at which time a large social will be enjoyed.

A. A. U. W. Drama Section to Meet Next Monday Night at Fred Fisher Home

The drama section of the A. A. U. W. will hold its first meeting of the fall season, next Monday night at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. Fred Fisher on the North Pacific highway. The drama section of the society will meet each second and fourth Monday nights of each month.

A review of last year's work will be given at the meeting next Monday night, after which a report will be given by the committee for the coming winter's plans and work. The play "By Ourselves" by Ludwig Faldt will be read following the report by the committee. Anyone interested in modern drama is most cordially invited to attend the meeting Monday night. All those wishing transportation to the Fisher home have been asked to call Mrs. Homer Grow or Mrs. J. C. Leedy.

One o'clock Luncheon Enjoyed by Roseburg Woman's Club Members

An enjoyable one o'clock luncheon was held on Tuesday at the Roseburg Woman's club building. Mrs. L. Kohlhaas was chairman of the luncheon with the following assistants, Mrs. Floyd Frear, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. C. M. Boyd, Mrs. J. A. Harding and Mrs. Earl Agee. The tables and rooms were lovely with bouquets of dahlias and other fall flowers.

Following the luncheon, a business meeting was held in charge of the president, Mrs. V. E. Ott. The remainder of the afternoon was spent sewing for the service shop. The service shop opens each Saturday and is located in the Woman's club building across from Han's Indian theatre. The work accomplished for the shop by the members of the Roseburg Woman's club last year, was a fine success and the plans for the shop during the coming months promise a most successful year.

Miss Rice Is Hostess to Bridge Club and Friends Wednesday

Miss Eva Rice was a charming hostess to the members of her bridge club and a few of her friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Rice, on South Jackson street this week. Poets' Corner

TO A FAVORITE SON
You say you're no poet and may be only a modest rhymester careless.
To be inspired like to Mount Nebo
To woo the Muse for light, thought and glow.

This New Eden you are soon to leave
But unkind to cause the fair to grieve.
Perchance you will stop your wanderlust
By locating in fair Roseburg first.

Or buy a farm in Umpqua valley
To till and your spirit to rally.
For good, fun and joy in every live
To save you from worry and reprieve.

Give up your single life if you can,
And on bachelors favor a ban.
If a mild climate you are seeking
You can find it here and of it sing.

G. W. KIMBALL.

PROGRESSION

By ALDEN HARNESSE
Gain Love, supplying every human need,
And fill thy life with harmony and light;
Then forces that from deathless Truth proceed
Shall over lead thee onward and aright.

PROTECTION

By ALDEN HARNESSE
As on the heights the far light breaks
And to the dawn the world awakes;
We glimpse through darkness of our night
Divine effluence from above,
Revealing God before our sight
As perfect Mind, whose forces hold
In space the planets manifold
And by whose laws we shall remove
From our domain of earthly life
The primal cause of sin and strife;
Will we, forever unified
With harmony and joy and light,
Shall with an all-absorbing love
In holy consciousness abide.
