AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

The thing of most interest to our Auxiliary now is, of course, Armistice day. Usually the two important events on that day are the football game and the dance in the evening. During our last meeting Rudolph Ritzman turned over to the secretary 150 tickets which he urged us to sell. All those wishing tickets will be able to get them from any of the Auxiliary members. We hope to make this Armistice day celebration the best ever. Every Armistice day it is the custom for the Legion boys to have a big dinner at noon, which will this year be a venison "feed." They have asked for about 35 Auxiliary ladies to help serve. The following names have been secured to help: Mrs. Lois Busch, Mrs. Greta Caskey, Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman, Mrs. Nell Cummings, Mrs. Nora Boyle, Mrs. C. E. Fowler, Miss Dorothy Arundel, Mrs. Roy Grimm, Mrs. Molly Dillard, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Nickson, Mrs. George Ware, Miss Pearl Jones and Mrs. Virginia Campbell.
