TODAY'S MARKETS

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

PORTLAND, Nov. 13—Wholesale butter and egg prices remained unchanged in tone and price today.

The city's independent milk dealers have announced last half November milk buying prices, effective November 15, at $2.25 a hundred pounds for grade B and $1.?? for grade C as against present top prices of $2.45 and $1.80 respectively for the two grades.

Highlights of the day's fresh fruit and vegetable trade were reported on by the government market news service as follows.

Celery and cauliflower shipping-point markets are unactive. Carlot shipments of celery are only moderate, while cauliflower is in heavy supply; and demand is slow, with prices barely steady. Current loadings of celery are selling mostly at $1.50 per crate in the rough, but any recent shipments rolled unsold, and realized considerably lower returns.

Fancy California tomatoes are moving at slightly higher prices, but most of the present offerings are of only fair to ordinary quality, selling at $1.25-1.75 per lug.

Lemons declined 25c per case today. Grapes are in slow demand, with quality of cost varieties declining.

Although cranberry supplies are rather light, the market continues lifeless, with slow consumer demand.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By Geo. McManus

POEM FOR THE DAY

By LOUIS ALBERT BANKS

THE SLAVERY OF CUSTOM

"There is no Probability of our being 'a peculiar People, so zealous of good Works as to have no Fellowship with Works of Darkness,' while we have Wants to supply which have their Foundation in Custom, and do not come within the Meaning of those Expressions: 'Your Heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these Things.'"—John Woolman.

Gay Fashion is a tyrant grim,
And holds us handcuffed to her whim;
'Tis not the thing we feel we need
To which we give most anxious heed;
It is the thing that Fashion craves
And sternly orders for her slaves;
No woman counts herself as free
If she to Fashion bows the knee.

And gray-haired Custom is her twin—
Too often holds men fast to sin;
'Tis not what most our nature needs
That with our souls most loudly pleads,
But what old Custom's habits urge
That through our mental grooves will surge.
Whene'er we strive for better things,
Old Custom clips our soaring wings.

Yes, Custom, Fashion, have their rules
And make of us their pliant tools;
They crack a keen and stinging whip—
'Tis hard to give their eyes the slip.
And rare, indeed, the soul so brave
As to deny he is their slave;
We call him genius or a freak,
And think he must be somewhere weak.

If we were free from Custom's laws,
And did not fear her tiger claws,
How sweet would be our common life!
How much 'twould free us from our strife!
How quick good causes would advance
And blossom out in rare romance!
Full half our fears would then be laid,
And men would walk all unafraid.

BIRTHDAY PARTY ENABLES AGENTS TO TRAP "DOPE" RING

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—John Collins celebrated his 28th birthday last night and federal agents gave him the surprise party of his life.

For seven months they worked their way into his good graces, but with little headway in ascertaining what friends were allied with him in a suspected narcotic ring of wide scope.

So they arranged a birthday party for him and bade him bring all his friends.

Today Collins, his wife and fifteen of the more than 70 guests who attended the party in a Times Square restaurant last night, were under arrest as participants in a narcotic ring whose business the federal men said ran to fifty thousand dollars a week.

The round-up was timed with others in Brooklyn, Manhattan and New Jersey, and followed closely a succession of raids in Syracuse and other upstate New York cities last week, with which officials said it had only an indirect connection.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.—Adv.
