Frank Blattner of this city returned Sunday evening from a visit at the home of his parents at Newport. Mr. Blattner received word Wednesday of last week that his father was very low so left immediately for Newport but found that his father had become much better and is now out of danger.

GLENDALE HIGH SCHOOL CAFETERIA WELL PATRONIZED

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
GLENDALE, Nov. 13.—The Glendale high school cafeteria being conducted at the local school by Virginia Belcher, Lela May Smith, Celia Wenderoth and Ethel Bartle as part of their work in domestic science is proving to be more of a success and more popular than the young ladies had anticipated. They are serving an average of 25 lunches each school day noon with the exception of Mondays when the time is devoted to class work.

The menus are changed from day to day but the actual lunch is made up of three items consisting of a soup, a salad and a dessert. The cost of this lunch to the patrons is but 10 cents, the actual cost of material used.

According to Miss Helene Gregg, under whose supervision the work is being done, the cafeteria has proven very popular with the students as it gives them a wholesome hot lunch at a very nominal cost and at the same time giving the young ladies of the domestic science class much valuable practical experience in planning and preparing luncheons.

MYRTLE CREEK

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
MYRTLE CREEK, Nov. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. George Trank returned Monday from a week-end visit at Molalla with Mr. Trank's brother Charles who is quite ill with jaundice.
