With the passing of the Armistice day celebration, society matrons of the city are preparing for a busy coming week and also for a busy Thanksgiving week.

The D. A. R. will meet next Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. M. Campbell on North Jackson street and the Beacon P. T. A. will meet next Monday evening in the school house.

The members of the Kiwanis club will be entertained with a dinner at the senior high school on Tuesday evening. The second dance of the L. E. T. dancing club will also be an event of Tuesday evening and will be held in the K. of P. hall. The American Legion auxiliary members are planning a potluck supper for the same evening.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the woman's club rooms and the St. George's Episcopal guild will meet next Wednesday evening.

The Catholic Ladies' bazaar will be an interesting affair of all day Thursday and the Eastern Star homecoming will take place in the Masonic temple on Thursday night.

The Business and Professional Women's club are making extensive plans for their Thanksgiving party, which will be held in the woman's club rooms on November 21. The B. P. W. C. Thanksgiving ball will be an interesting event of November 27.

Community Thanksgiving Dinner Planned for Days Creek People for Nov. 27

Plans are well under way for the community dinner to be held at the Days Creek school house on Thanksgiving day. Last Thanksgiving day a similar dinner was given, and the building was crowded with people from nearby towns as well as the Days Creek residents.

The dinner this year will be served at noon, at long tables set in the school auditorium. A program will be held in connection with the dinner and a basketball game is scheduled for the afternoon entertainment. The Days Creek P. T. A. is sponsoring the event and have asked their patrons and friends of the school to bring their dinner and join the day's fun with them.

Flounces Predominate in Season's Styles

Fashion indicates flounces as is manifest by the gray rayon crepe and silver piping in a three-flounced frock pictured above. Black suede gloves, bag and hat are chic accessories, with the silver fox scarf giving it a luxurious touch.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

The item of discussion this coming week is our Mother's dinner, of which you have all been informed. It is to be a pot luck affair and will be served in the armory dining room at six thirty o'clock next Tuesday evening. We would like to have a large crowd as it is not often that we can get the mothers all together at a meeting. You are certain to have a good time. The Legion boys are invited to join in and they are asked to bring their mothers, even though they are members of the auxiliary.

Our Armistice day celebrations "went over" very well. We had a larger crowd for the parade than we have had for a number of years. We wish to thank all the women who helped in any way to make our day a success.

We again would like to urge all those who have not paid their dues to please bring them in as we are trying to finish our membership drive as soon as possible. As if you know of any eligible members, please do your best to get her to join.

Let's have a 100 per cent attendance next Tuesday evening, November 18th, at the pot luck dinner for the mothers.

CHRISTMAS CARDS

Sure I'll Turn Your Order Over to the News-Review

Not all of Santa Claus' most valued contributions of the season are in the form of gifts. Many a sincere and well-turned sentiment gracing an artistic, ornate card has been held in higher regard than the most elaborate gift because it represented the personal warmth and attentiveness of a friend. You can convey such greetings by letting us print your personal message with your name thereon on some of these magnificent cards we have provided for Christmas and New Years greetings.
