TODAY'S MARKETS

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

PORTLAND, Nov. 21.—Turkey prices ranged a cent higher today. Top quotations to producers ranged from 24 to 26 cents a pound for prime young toms. Receipts for Thanksgiving trade have been light so far with producers holding back for a higher market. Dealers anticipate suddenly heavier receipts starting Saturday or Monday with resultant top heaviness of supplies at the last and consequent weaker prices all round than now holding. Dealers are having difficulty filling large orders for shipment [illegible] however, visible country supplies are held to be sufficient for the season's need.

Country dressed meats, choice veals at 14 cents a pound and pork at 13½ cents were buying prices quoted ½ cent cheaper than earlier in the week. Receipts were sufficient for an ordinary to light demand.

Wholesale butter and egg prices were unchanged. Tone of the butter market continued weak with eggs fully steady on top grade with mediums and smaller meeting a spotted demand involving some price shading. Butter and egg receipts were sufficient for demand.

Fresh fruit and vegetable trade was of normal character at generally steady prices except for potatoes where supplies were liberal, demand slow, resulting in an average price decline of 10 cents a hundred making quotations on No. 1 stock from $1.75-2.00 and for No. 2s from $1.15-1.50.

A fresh carload of artichokes or Brussels sprouts is due in the market Monday from California for Thanksgiving trade.

POEM FOR THE DAY

By LOUIS ALBERT BANKS

DON'T ALLOW YOURSELF TO RUST

"The safe and general antidote against sorrow is employment. Sorrow is a kind of rust in the soul, which every new idea contributes in its passage to scour away."—Dr. Johnson.

I'd rather be abused and cussed
Than let my life grow dim with rust;
In idleness we're soon mildewed
And much inclined to sadly brood.
I'd have my soul a channel clean
And would provide a constant "dreen",
That there should be no stagnant waste
Becoming bitter to my taste.

An active mind can never mope—
'Tis washed and scoured with constant hope.
Fresh thinking gives an atmosphere
Which keeps the soul in conquering gear.
But if we stew in dire disgust,
Mere prejudice will form a crust
Through which no blood of life can surge,
And we shall lose all buoyant urge.

No man is meant to grouch or gloom,
Or think himself a child of doom,
To give himself to black despair,
And grieve because his life is bare,
For he who fights against his fate
Soon finds his nerves alive, elate;
And through his exercise alone
His lungs will breathe a rare ozone.

God helps the man who helps himself—
Who is no idler on life's shelf;
Who quick responds to every chance
To breathe the air of rich romance.
A grief will often lead the way
To brilliant scenes of glorious day;
It only needs that we shall seize
On every brave adventurous breeze.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE TO COMMENCE ON THANKSGIVING

Mrs. H. C. Boyle to Direct in County; City Work to Be Managed by Mrs. Runyan.

With absolutely every cent derived from the sale of Christmas seals last year expended the Douglas County Public Health association is anxiously awaiting the arrival of Thanksgiving day, the official date for the opening of the Christmas seal sale for the prevention of tuberculosis, according to Bessie Redbarn, secretary.

Mrs. H. C. Boyle has been appointed to handle the sale of seals throughout the county, and Mrs. Elizabeth Runyan will have charge of the sale in Roseburg. Mrs. Boyle has conducted the sale of the tuberculosis Christmas seal in Douglas county for several years in a very efficient manner, and prior to her coming to Roseburg, she was very active in Christmas seal work in Oklahoma. Mrs. Runyan is president of the Douglas County Public Health association and so understands the campaign very thoroughly. She is actively interested in the prevention of tuberculosis, not only in this county but throughout the state and nation.

The Douglas County Public Health association, which sponsors the local sale of Christmas seals is affiliated with the Oregon Tuberculosis association, which in turn is affiliated with the National Tuberculosis association. Through a contract for the sale of seals, most of the money derived from the local sale will remain in this county, the percentage depending upon the amount sold.

Through an agreement with the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis association, the sale of Christmas seals does not begin until after the Red Cross membership drive ends on Thanksgiving. These two organizations are not in any way connected.

Mr. Applegate in Town—C. F. Applegate, of Yoncalla, transacted business in Roseburg yesterday afternoon.
