

(Continued from page 2.)

A short social hour was enjoyed later in the evening.

New Idea Club Has Lovely Shower for Member on Wednesday

The members of the New Idea club met on Wednesday afternoon at the lovely new home of Mrs. Curtis Calkins in Roberts creek, at which time, Mrs. Calkins, Mrs. V. R. Buckingham, Mrs. S. A. Sanford and Mrs. Harvey entertained with a one o'clock luncheon.

The table was beautiful with a large white tablecloth, centerpieces, satin ribbons tied around the box and running to each corner were placed conveniently near each guest. Appropriate placecards and favors added attractiveness to the table. Following the luncheon, each guest was asked to pull her streamer and Mrs. Spencer, who was honor guest, was delightfully surprised to find that the lovely centerpiece contained beautiful gifts for her.

A short business meeting followed the shower, after which the ladies went to the living room for an afternoon of visitation and sewing. Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Ella Harris and Mrs. Iyle joined the club at this meeting. Mrs. Addison and Mrs. C. B. Calkins were guests of the club.

Riversdale P-T. A. Jitney Fair Is Fine Success of Friday

The Riversdale P-T. A. met at the school house Friday evening at which time a jitney fair was enjoyed. A short program consisting of readings by Mrs. Sherfy, John Thelms, Mrs. Bjerg, Louise Lee and Donald Harmon were given. Radio music was furnished by James Smith.

The school was decorated with fall flowers and interesting booths, charging five cents admission, were enjoyed by the large crowd. Miss Pennie and Bert Kruse were negroes during the evening. Mrs. Common, Mrs. Bjerg and Mrs. John Marks had charge of the selling of popcorn and ice cream cones. Mrs. Burr and Mrs. Smith were in the candy booth and Mrs. Pearson acted as fortune teller. Mrs. R. Allen Lee had charge of the fish pond and Mrs. Utterback, Mrs. Marsters and Mrs. Weber served light refreshments.

The affair was a marked success and excellent returns were realized by the association. The money will be used to help beautify the school grounds.

Bridge Party Enjoyed at Sinnott Home on Wednesday Evening

Miss Mildred and Miss Josephine Sinnott entertained a few of their friends with a delightful bridge party on Wednesday evening of this week at the home of their father, Peter Sinnott. Chrysanthemums and Oregon grapes were used in large bouquets, to enhance the charm of the rooms. Bridge was played with Mrs. T. G. Watson winning first prize and Mrs. Foster Dutner winning second prize.

Those enjoying the evening included Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. Foster Dutner, Mrs. T. G. Watson, Mrs. C. H. Thurston, Jr., Miss Iona Porter, Mrs. O. C. Houser, Mrs. J. C. Leedy, Mrs. T. H. Burgess, Miss Enid Yeatch, Miss Audrey Laughlin, of Medford, and Mrs. Donald Dunnivan, of Stockton, California.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses at a later hour in the evening.

Mrs. M. L. Squier Surprised on Birthday on Thursday Evening

A group of friends of Mrs. M. L. Squier surprised her on Thursday evening, when they met at her home in honor of her birthday anniversary. The home was lovely with large bouquets of chrysanthemums and other fall flowers. A lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Squier from her friends and music and visiting were enjoyed during the evening hours.

Those surprising Mrs. Squier were Mrs. T. S. Millikin, Mrs. U. P. McLaughlin, Mrs. Tessie Jones, Mrs. Lila Armstrong, Mrs. T. G. Blevins, Mrs. A. Blevins, Mrs. C. W. Andrews, Mrs. C. W. Stewie, Miss Mary and Miss Goldie Millikin, Miss Margie and Miss Velma Squier, Nathan Stewie, Miss Lily and Gordon Armstrong.

Dainty refreshments were served at a later hour in the evening.

W. W. G. Meets on Monday Night for Pot Luck Dinner

The World Wide guild of the First Baptist church of Roseburg met in the church parlors for a six o'clock dinner on Monday evening of this week. Covers were placed for Mrs. R. E. Crawford, Mrs. Wallace Robertson, Miss Helen Rogers, Miss Jessie Redburn, Miss Eliza Kohlhaugen, Miss Iertha and Miss Hazel Johnson, Miss Doris Pickens, of Salem, Miss Evelyn and Miss Freda Thomsen, Miss Jennie Dicks, Miss Ruth Thompson and Miss Margaret Jennings.

The regular business meeting followed the dinner with Miss Besie Redburn, president, in charge. Final arrangements were completed for the Umpqua association rally held in Roseburg on November 21-22 at the Baptist church. A social hour followed the business meeting.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Lilac Circle No. 49 Sponsor Rally Monday

The Neighbors of Woodcraft Lilac Circle No. 49, held a rally in Roseburg on Monday night at the Macabee hall, with Dr. Oakland, Myrtle Creek, Riddle and Coquille Neighbors as guests of the evening.

Grand Manager Annie P. Hawkins, of Toledo, was the principal speaker of the evening and gave an honor guest of the circle. She was one of the seven original founders of the lodge. Her talk was on the "Order," its object and future plans. Captain of the guards and the team presented the honor guest with a bouquet of huge chrysanthemums.

After initiation work was completed the following program was given: Piano solo by Miss Jean Whitney; reading by Miss Frances Price; piano solo by Mrs. Bernice Hand; vocal solo by Mrs. Willis Myers, and recitation of a poem by Miss Frances Price.

The Oakland team gave a memory stunt and prizes were won by Mrs. Milo E. Taylor, Mrs. Annie Hawkins and Mrs. Belle Crenshaw.

A banquet was served in the dining room following the program. Table talks and clever stunts were enjoyed throughout the banquet hour.

Friday Night Bridge Club Members Enjoy Dinner at Wade Home

The Friday Evening Bridge club enjoyed a seven o'clock potluck dinner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wade on last Friday evening. Chrysanthemums and other fall flowers lent a colorful touch to the tables and throughout the rooms.

Covers were placed for Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kohlhaugen, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. Dean B. Bubar, John McClintock and Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wade.

Bridge was enjoyed following the dinner hour, with Mrs. Ivan Pickens holding high score for the ladies and John McClintock receiving high score for the men.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

An enjoyable event was the family gathering held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sanders on Cobb street on Friday evening, when a dinner was served honoring Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ferguson on their golden wedding anniversary.

The dining table was attractive with a large bride and groom wedding cake and yellow and white chrysanthemums. Several lovely gifts were presented to the honor guests and Mrs. Ferguson's daughter, Mrs. Sanders, presented her with a beautiful bouquet of large chrysanthemums. The day was enjoyably spent visiting.

Christian Church Members Enjoy Church Night on Wednesday

The regular monthly church night was enjoyed at the First Christian church on Wednesday evening of this week, with a large attendance of members present. A delicious six o'clock pot luck supper was served, after which a mock radio program was enjoyed. The program consisted of various readings, solos and a variety of interesting stunts.

A beautiful set of china ware was presented to Rev. and Mrs. Cunningham and later in the evening, a canned fruit shower was given them. The entire evening proved delightful and entertaining.

Mrs. Mabel Taylor, Mrs. Storey Iles and Mrs. H. Berk were in charge of the program for the evening.

Mrs. Roy Entler Is Hostess to Bridge Club Thursday Night

Mrs. Roy Entler graciously entertained the members of the Thursday evening bridge club at her home this week with a seven o'clock dinner. Chrysanthemums and other fall flowers were artistically arranged in the rooms. Covers were placed for Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. T. H. Noss, Mrs. H. O. Partridge, Mrs. Willard Johnson, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. J. K. Falbe, Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen Jr. and the hostess, Mrs. Roy Entler. The remainder of the evening was enjoyably spent playing bridge.

Roseburg Woman's Club Has Fine Meeting on Monday Afternoon

The Roseburg Woman's club met on Tuesday afternoon at the club rooms, at which time the committee in charge of Mrs. Foster Dutner, served a lovely one o'clock turkey luncheon. Chrysanthemums, arranged in attractive bouquets, were used to decorate the tables and the rooms.

A short business meeting followed in charge of Mrs. W. E. Ott, president, after which the members sewed for the service shop. Many new articles were donated to the club and several repaired and made ready for sale. The ladies are also assisting the Roseburg chamber of commerce in getting the North Umpqua road project before the senators and representatives in Washington, D. C.

W. C. T. U. Holds Meeting on Wednesday Afternoon of This Week

The W. C. T. U. met in the Woman's club rooms on Wednesday afternoon of this week with the president, Mrs. E. Willis, presiding. Mrs. J. P. Cunningham conducted the devotionals. Her subject was "Evangelism." Her scripture lesson was Christ on the cross, followed by a fine talk.

The president read an article on evangelistic work of the W. C. T. U. Rev. J. F. Cunningham, pastor of the First Christian church of Roseburg, sang a beautiful solo accompanied by Mrs. Cunningham, after which Mrs. E. E. Woodcock gave a very impressive talk urging more zeal in Christian work. Mrs. C. A. Edwards spoke on "Sewardship" and gave an explanation of "tithing" saying a tenth belongs to the Lord.

Mrs. A. C. Marsters spoke on the cottage prayer meetings, which will be held in the city in the near future. She urged that a special interest be taken in these meetings and all attend when possible. Short talks followed on the Bible in the public schools and the good derived from such teaching.

After the close of the business meeting, dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge and a social hour enjoyed.

St. George's Episcopal Guild Holds Meeting on Wednesday Evening

Mrs. C. H. Davies and Miss Myrtle Davies entertained the members of St. George's Episcopal guild on Wednesday evening of this week. Mrs. Willard Johnson, president of the society, was in charge of the business meeting. The guild members are remodeling the Parish house. A new hardwood floor and new interior decorations as well as a new kitchen are being attended to. Upon completion of the work, the house will be open again for rental to the various organizations or private persons wishing to entertain.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Willard Johnson, Mrs. P. W. Henry, Mrs. S. B. Evans, Mrs. E. R. Kenvy, Mrs. Loren McCulloch, Mrs. M. F. Middleburg, Mrs. A. A. Post, Mrs. C. J. Russell, Mrs. Perry Smith, Mrs. E. G. Kingwell, Mrs. C. C. Archibald and Mrs. C. Zachariae.

A social hour followed the business meeting.

Homecoming of Eastern Star Is One of Most Delightful Affairs

A large fraternal gathering assembled at the Masonic temple Thursday evening, November 20th, for the annual homecoming of Roseburg chapter No. 8, Order of the Eastern Star. The past matrons and past patrons of Roseburg chapter and visiting matrons and patrons of other chapters were the special guests of honor, each matron being presented with a beautiful chrysanthemum and each patron with a red carnation.

Mrs. Carl Wimerly, associate matron of Roseburg chapter, very graciously greeted and welcomed the guests of honor and visitors, to which Mrs. Wm. Bell, past matron of Roseburg chapter, responded in her usual charming manner. The beautiful initiatory ceremony of the order was exemplified at which time Mrs. B. Penhall and Mr. S. W. Starmer were received into the chapter.

At the close of the meeting, all present were invited to the banquet hall, where under the chairmanship of Mrs. Dean Bubar and Mrs. Oscar Berrie, delicious refreshments were served, featuring Douglas county turkey. The chapter was indebted to Mrs. Frances Lintott and Mrs. A. J. Young who furnished special music for the occasion and to William Austin, Mrs. Sam Starmer and Mrs. Washington Hughes for the beautiful flowers used in the decoration of the rooms. It was generally conceded one of the most successful social affairs of the chapter this year.

Six o'Clock Turkey Dinner Enjoyed at Pickens Home Sunday

An enjoyable six o'clock turkey dinner was an affair of Sunday evening at the J. E. Pickens home on South Jackson street, the occasion marking the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Pickens. Chrysanthemums, arranged in a low bowl, graced the center of the table and covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stenstrom, Mrs. V. T. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. D. Lennox, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbaker, Mrs. A. Wetherall, O. L. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pickens.

Many lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Pickens from her friends after which bridge was enjoyed during the remainder of the evening.

No Host Affair Enjoyed in Sutherland on Friday Evening

A delightful no-host dinner was enjoyed at the Community hall in Sutherland on Friday evening of this week when Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sellick, Mr. and Mrs. Diney West, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hochradel, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. C. Leedy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whitton, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton motored to Sutherland for the affair.

Following the dinner, they returned to Roseburg, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker at their home on East Lane street for several hours of bridge. The rooms were attractively decorated with red berries and greenery. Mrs. J. C. Leedy received the ladies' prize and Mr. Jack Wharton received the men's first prize.

Younger Set Enjoy Party at Bob-O-Links Golf Course Tuesday

Members of Roseburg's younger set enjoyed a delightful evening on Tuesday, when they gathered at the Bob-O-Link golf course for several hours of miniature golf, cards and dancing.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Norbas, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Bolter and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bellows acted as chaperones for Miss Sabina Norbas, Miss Lois Ann Whipple, Miss Phyllis Ann Bolter, Miss June Wiard, Miss Anna May Unrath, Miss Leta Hatfield, Miss Mary Dell Goodies, Miss Frances Metzger, Miss Mae Hutchings, Miss Dorothy Frazar, Miss Eleanor Fies, Miss Allene Brown, Miss Virginia Gurnee, Miss Betty Whipple, Miss Ruth Whidell, Miss Jewel Adams, Miss Madeline Adams, Miss Marjorie Bates, Miss Dorothy Bates, Arthur Norbas, Barton Brown, Arthur Baum, Emmett Fullerton, Rex Applegate, George Rapin, Robert Rapin, Jack Goulet, Kenneth Stormes, Gustaf Forchlen, Clinton Moroy, Robert Chase, George Bacher, Cloice Taylor and Robert Huff.

Light refreshments were enjoyed at eleven o'clock.

Days Creek Bride Complimented With Party on Thursday

Mrs. David Fate, a recent bride who is making her home at Days Creek, was the inspiration for a pleasant party on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Archie Ferguson, when Mrs. Pete Uiam and Mrs. Ferguson entertained in her honor.

Bowls of chrysanthemums were used throughout the room. After an hour spent in visiting and sewing, Mrs. Fate was presented with a number of lovely gifts. Later in the afternoon dainty refreshments were served to Mrs. David Fate, honor guest, Mrs. Margaret Perry, Mrs. David Fate, Mrs. D. Wright, Mrs. M. K. Dear, Mrs. R. V. Matheys, Mrs. Earl Welman, Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. A. E. Moore, Mrs. Walter Hutchinson, Mrs. R. A. Moore, Mrs. Raymond Spore, Mrs. Roy Duncan, Mrs. John Ferguson, Miss Lois Ellen and Miss Elva Mathews, Miss Betty Lou Welshman, Elton, Delbert and Leon Moore, Lester and Norval Ferguson and the hostesses, Mrs. Pete Uiam and Mrs. Archie Ferguson.

Edwin Booth, Lyman Skinner, Truman Green and Bernard Young have been selected as usher for the evening.

The following list is the names of the members enrolled to date in the Roseburg Chamber of Music society: Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Helms, Miss Naomi Scott, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lander, Miss May Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Booth, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferrier, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. E. Fletcher, Miss Faye Godden, Mr. and Mrs. L. Goodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Mrs. S. M. King, Louis Langenberg, Miss Ila Laubach, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McMillin, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hillwell, Mr. and Mrs. John Weatherford, Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Shoremaker, Miss Verlie Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft, Miss Dolma Grobe, Miss Beadie Wharton, Miss Lois Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Harpham, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Finlay, Marjorie Hallmark, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, King's Service Station, Miss Emma Wolford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brand, Mrs. Page, Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Mulrden, Mr. and Mrs. P. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McKean, Miss Katharine Oleka, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Young, Edwin Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Miss May Fisher, Miss Colla Bleck, Mrs. Bertha Parrott, Mrs. M. C. Whittemore, C. E. Mansfield and Miss Ethel Webb.

Those joining the society today, Sunday and Monday, will have their names announced later.

Immediately following the program of the quartet on Monday evening, all members of the Roseburg society are being asked to remain in the church to perfect the future plans of the organization.

Young Married People of Christian Church Enjoy Party Friday

The young married people of the First Christian church enjoyed a get-together social at the church on Friday evening of this week. Games, stunts and visiting were enjoyed by Rev. and Mrs. Frank Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Strander, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Guiley, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stapp and small son, Mrs. S. L. Hebard, Miss Virna Blee and Henry Miller.

After a social evening, light refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Thanksgiving Party Enjoyed by B. P. W. C. Members Friday Night

The Business and Professional Women's club met Friday evening at the Woman's club rooms on South Jackson street. The occasion was a Thanksgiving party with Miss Josephine McElhinny as chairman of the entertainment committee assisted by Dolma Grobe and Arnes Pitchford. The rooms were nicely arranged with occasional bouquets of chrysanthemums. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Edith Falbe, president, presiding, after which new members and visiting guests were introduced to the old members. Numerous games were played and contests were in order for the best turkey trot. A prize was given to the winning couple by Catherine Kenny and Mae Pyron. Judges for the contest. A tamale feed was served to sixty-five members and guests with Joyce Handley as chairman of the refreshment committee.

The party was reported as one of the most successful for a long time and an excellent attendance as well.

Miss Naomi Scott, member of the local organization broadcasted over KOAC Thursday evening in the old Douglas county program. Her music was greatly enjoyed by enthusiastic fans of Miss Scott's who had been looking forward to the appointed hour.

Mrs. C. V. Stanton's Sunday School Class Has Party Thursday

The members of the C. O. M. E. Sunday school class and a few invited guests enjoyed a social evening and party at the First Christian church on Thursday evening of this week. Basketball and other games were enjoyed by the following members, Miss Helen McDonald, Miss Thelma Morris, Miss Nellie East, Miss Eva Hall, Miss Mildred Patterson, Miss Nova Busch, Miss May Henry, Miss Edna Brown, Miss Marjorie Reeves, Miss Opal Horner and Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Stanton. Guests of the evening included Miss Mildred Nelson, Miss Jessie Pyron, Miss Roale Neurither, and Miss Mildred Huffman.

Light refreshments were served later in the evening.

Catholic Ladies Bazaar Is Fine Success of Thursday

The Catholic ladies bazaar on Thursday of this week proved to be a very successful and interesting affair of the week. Mrs. H. Willet, president of the society, was general chairman of the affair and Mrs. T. H. Noss had charge of the luncheon which was served from eleven thirty until two o'clock and from five-thirty to seven-thirty o'clock.

The quilt, which was raffled off was won by B. Casey; cut-work luncheon cloth by Mrs. Charles H. Wade; pillowslips by Mrs. Catherine Nichols, of Portland, and basket of apples by Sisters of Mercy.

An interesting event of the day occurred Thursday evening, when three turkeys were won. A quart jar of beans was used and the one guessing the correct number of beans in the jar won a turkey. It was won by Mrs. P. J. Hohl. Mrs. Joseph Heidenrich won the second turkey when she guessed the nearest number of apples in a barrel. The third turkey was won by M. Paul in a turkey shoot.

The affair was attended by a large number and was one of the most enjoyable events of its kind of the fall season.

Baptist Choir Members Enjoy Evening at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Strong

The members of the First Baptist church choir were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Strong on South Main street on Thursday evening of this week, following the regular choir rehearsal.

The evening was spent with games in which all participated. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Roseburg Chamber Music Society Is Formed This Week

The Roseburg Chamber Music society, which is being formed by Miss Naomi Scott and Mrs. C. S. Helms, for the purpose of bringing the local talent to the fore, met on Thursday evening of this week, following the regular choir rehearsal.

The following list is the names of the members enrolled to date in the Roseburg Chamber of Music society: Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Helms, Miss Naomi Scott, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lander, Miss May Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Booth, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferrier, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. E. Fletcher, Miss Faye Godden, Mr. and Mrs. L. Goodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Mrs. S. M. King, Louis Langenberg, Miss Ila Laubach, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McMillin, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hillwell, Mr. and Mrs. John Weatherford, Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Shoremaker, Miss Verlie Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft, Miss Dolma Grobe, Miss Beadie Wharton, Miss Lois Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Harpham, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Finlay, Marjorie Hallmark, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, King's Service Station, Miss Emma Wolford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brand, Mrs. Page, Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Mulrden, Mr. and Mrs. P. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McKean, Miss Katharine Oleka, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Young, Edwin Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Miss May Fisher, Miss Colla Bleck, Mrs. Bertha Parrott, Mrs. M. C. Whittemore, C. E. Mansfield and Miss Ethel Webb.

Those joining the society today, Sunday and Monday, will have their names announced later.

Immediately following the program of the quartet on Monday evening, all members of the Roseburg society are being asked to remain in the church to perfect the future plans of the organization.

Young Married People of Christian Church Enjoy Party Friday

The young married people of the First Christian church enjoyed a get-together social at the church on Friday evening of this week. Games, stunts and visiting were enjoyed by Rev. and Mrs. Frank Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Strander, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Guiley, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stapp and small son, Mrs. S. L. Hebard, Miss Virna Blee and Henry Miller.

After a social evening, light refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Thanksgiving Party Enjoyed by B. P. W. C. Members Friday Night

The Business and Professional Women's club met Friday evening at the Woman's club rooms on South Jackson street. The occasion was a Thanksgiving party with Miss Josephine McElhinny as chairman of the entertainment committee assisted by Dolma Grobe and Arnes Pitchford. The rooms were nicely arranged with occasional bouquets of chrysanthemums. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Edith Falbe, president, presiding, after which new members and visiting guests were introduced to the old members. Numerous games were played and contests were in order for the best turkey trot. A prize was given to the winning couple by Catherine Kenny and Mae Pyron. Judges for the contest. A tamale feed was served to sixty-five members and guests with Joyce Handley as chairman of the refreshment committee.

The party was reported as one of the most successful for a long time and an excellent attendance as well.

Miss Naomi Scott, member of the local organization broadcasted over KOAC Thursday evening in the old Douglas county program. Her music was greatly enjoyed by enthusiastic fans of Miss Scott's who had been looking forward to the appointed hour.

Mrs. C. V. Stanton's Sunday School Class Has Party Thursday

The members of the C. O. M. E. Sunday school class and a few invited guests enjoyed a social evening and party at the First Christian church on Thursday evening of this week. Basketball and other games were enjoyed by the following members, Miss Helen McDonald, Miss Thelma Morris, Miss Nellie East, Miss Eva Hall, Miss Mildred Patterson, Miss Nova Busch, Miss May Henry, Miss Edna Brown, Miss Marjorie Reeves, Miss Opal Horner and Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Stanton. Guests of the evening included Miss Mildred Nelson, Miss Jessie Pyron, Miss Roale Neurither, and Miss Mildred Huffman.

Light refreshments were served later in the evening.

Thanksgiving Party Enjoyed by B. P. W. C. Members Friday Night

The Business and Professional Women's club met Friday evening at the Woman's club rooms on South Jackson street. The occasion was a Thanksgiving party with Miss Josephine McElhinny as chairman of the entertainment committee assisted by Dolma Grobe and Arnes Pitchford. The rooms were nicely arranged with occasional bouquets of chrysanthemums. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Edith Falbe, president, presiding, after which new members and visiting guests were introduced to the old members. Numerous games were played and contests were in order for the best turkey trot. A prize was given to the winning couple by Catherine Kenny and Mae Pyron. Judges for the contest. A tamale feed was served to sixty-five members and guests with Joyce Handley as chairman of the refreshment committee.

The party was reported as one of the most successful for a long time and an excellent attendance as well.

Miss Naomi Scott, member of the local organization broadcasted over KOAC Thursday evening in the old Douglas county program. Her music was greatly enjoyed by enthusiastic fans of Miss Scott's who had been looking forward to the appointed hour.

Mrs. C. V. Stanton's Sunday School Class Has Party Thursday

The members of the C. O. M. E. Sunday school class and a few invited guests enjoyed a social evening and party at the First Christian church on Thursday evening of this week. Basketball and other games were enjoyed by the following members, Miss Helen McDonald, Miss Thelma Morris, Miss Nellie East, Miss Eva Hall, Miss Mildred Patterson, Miss Nova Busch, Miss May Henry, Miss Edna Brown, Miss Marjorie Reeves, Miss Opal Horner and Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Stanton. Guests of the evening included Miss Mildred Nelson, Miss Jessie Pyron, Miss Roale Neurither, and Miss Mildred Huffman.

The new General Motors radio is combination only $225 complete. It is the last word in daylight reception. It is sold by Hansen Chevrolet Co. and fine music. Radio phonograph on easy G. M. A. C. terms.—Adv.

After a social evening, light refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Thanksgiving Party Enjoyed by B. P. W. C. Members Friday Night

The Business and Professional Women's club met Friday evening at the Woman's club rooms on South Jackson street. The occasion was a Thanksgiving party with Miss Josephine McElhinny as chairman of the entertainment committee assisted by Dolma Grobe and Arnes Pitchford. The rooms were nicely arranged with occasional bouquets of chrysanthemums. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Edith Falbe, president, presiding, after which new members and visiting guests were introduced to the old members. Numerous games were played and contests were in order for the best turkey trot. A prize was given to the winning couple by Catherine Kenny and Mae Pyron. Judges for the contest. A tamale feed was served to sixty-five members and guests with Joyce Handley as chairman of the refreshment committee.

The party was reported as one of the most successful for a long time and an excellent attendance as well.

Miss Naomi Scott, member of the local organization broadcasted over KOAC Thursday evening in the old Douglas county program. Her music was greatly enjoyed by enthusiastic fans of Miss Scott's who had been looking forward to the appointed hour.

Mrs. C. V. Stanton's Sunday School Class Has Party Thursday

The members of the C. O. M. E. Sunday school class and a few invited guests enjoyed a social evening and party at the First Christian church on Thursday evening of this week. Basketball and other games were enjoyed by the following members, Miss Helen McDonald, Miss Thelma Morris, Miss Nellie East, Miss Eva Hall, Miss Mildred Patterson, Miss Nova Busch, Miss May Henry, Miss Edna Brown, Miss Marjorie Reeves, Miss Opal Horner and Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Stanton. Guests of the evening included Miss Mildred Nelson, Miss Jessie Pyron, Miss Roale Neurither, and Miss Mildred Huffman.

Light refreshments were served later in the evening.

Thanksgiving Party Enjoyed by B. P. W. C. Members Friday Night

The Business and Professional Women's club met Friday evening at the Woman's club rooms on South Jackson street. The occasion was a Thanksgiving party with Miss Josephine McElhinny as chairman of the entertainment committee assisted by Dolma Grobe and Arnes Pitchford. The rooms were nicely arranged with occasional bouquets of chrysanthemums. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Edith Falbe, president, presiding, after which new members and visiting guests were introduced to the old members. Numerous games were played and contests were in order for the best turkey trot. A prize was given to the winning couple by Catherine Kenny and Mae Pyron. Judges for the contest. A tamale feed was served to sixty-five members and guests with Joyce Handley as chairman of the refreshment committee.

The party was reported as one of the most successful for a long time and an excellent attendance as well.

Miss Naomi Scott, member of the local organization broadcasted over KOAC Thursday evening in the old Douglas county program. Her music was greatly enjoyed by enthusiastic fans of Miss Scott's who had been looking forward to the appointed hour.

Mrs. C. V. Stanton's Sunday School Class Has Party Thursday

The members of the C. O. M. E. Sunday school class and a few invited guests enjoyed a social evening and party at the First Christian church on Thursday evening of this week. Basketball and other games were enjoyed by the following members, Miss Helen McDonald, Miss Thelma Morris, Miss Nellie East, Miss Eva Hall, Miss Mildred Patterson, Miss Nova Busch, Miss May Henry, Miss Edna Brown, Miss Marjorie Reeves, Miss Opal Horner and Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Stanton. Guests of the evening included Miss Mildred Nelson, Miss Jessie Pyron, Miss Roale Neurither, and Miss Mildred Huffman.

Light refreshments were served later in the evening.