Mrs. Santa Claus MAKES SOME GOOD SUGGESTIONS

Mrs. Santa Claus has gone modern. Tired of being a stay-at-home... sewing frills on doll dresses and painting blushes on their china cheeks... she's taken a hand in her husband's business. And (don't let this get back to Nicholas) they do say she's much more helpful than he is when it comes to making suggestions to Christmas shoppers.

And she says, "Give people gifts that are as useful as they are lovely... give them Westinghouse electrical appliances." For what matron or maid — or even bachelor — wouldn't appreciate an exquisitely designed percolator... a gleaming toaster... a waffle iron to turn the most informal party into a delightful feast? And, surely, every woman will appreciate the gift of easier, shorter ironing hours—made possible by a Westinghouse Iron!

These are just a few of Mrs. Santa Claus' suggestions. The Westinghouse dealer nearest you has a complete display which he will be glad to show you when you drop in.
