Wool Prices Unchanged
BOSTON, Nov. 25.—The Commercial Bureau of Boston tomorrow will say of the wool market: "It has been a waiting market again this week. All branches of the trade desiring to see how the wool market stands at the first sale in Auckland. Both the opening and the closing of the market were fairly good buying and selling. The holders to let wool for 100 marks above have been successful in getting that they are 100c, or waiting for the market to go up 10c.

Mohair is slow and hardly changed with some small sales of kid hair reported at 50c to 55c. The market will hold the following quotations:
