THANKSGIVING week was a busy and happy week this year. Many informal dinners were enjoyed and the high school football game drew a large crowd for the afternoon's entertainment. The Business and Professional Women's club realized a big success when they sponsored their annual Thanksgiving ball at the Armory on Thanksgiving evening. The ball was well attended and greatly enjoyed.

The Neah-Kah-Nie string quartet, which played in this city on Monday evening, was of considerable enjoyment to the members of the Roseburg Chamber Society. Already plans are being made by members of the younger set for a busy Christmas holiday time. One of the large events scheduled for Christmas week is the 1929 Roseburg high school class reunion, which will take place at the Palace on December 21. Arrangements for as many of this class as possible to attend the affair.
