All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

The week following Thanksgiving proved to be a trifle quiet since the students of the state colleges returned to their studies and the holiday festivities are over. However, preparations are well underway by the various city organizations and clubs for a happy and busy Christmas holiday. Society at large is turning to the practical side of Christmas tide this year and much good is being accomplished by various matrons for those in need.

The senior high school Parent-Teacher association meeting on Tuesday evening is of considerable interest to the city, as the dance question was decided in favor of the students wishing to hold chaperoned, private dances.

Miss Gladys Strong, one of the city's prominent musicians and piano instructors, opened the season's recitals on Tuesday evening with the first of a series of such recitals to be given by her during the coming months.

Thursday was perhaps the busiest of the past week days. Several members of the Roseburg Ladies of Elks motored to Eugene Thursday afternoon and attended the Eugene Ladies of Elks' benefit. They returned to Roseburg in time to attend the Elks' annual Christmas ball on Thursday evening, which proved to be one of the outstanding affairs of the week.

Albert Meehl had charge of the ball. The Eastern Star business meeting and election of officers was also an event of Thursday evening.

The L. F. T. annual Christmas ball will be the next Tuesday evening, which will be of interest to the members of the club. Mrs. Ivan Pickens are in charge of the ball, which promises to be an outstanding affair of the L. F. T. dancing season.

Mrs. R. D. Coen Compliments Mrs. Frank Coen With Bridge Party

Mrs. Frank Coen was the inspiration for one of the past week's most interesting parties when Mrs. R. D. Coen complimented her with a bridge party at her home on East Douglas street. Chrysanthemums were attractively arranged in the parlor room and bridge was the diversion of the evening.

Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung won first prize for the evening and Mrs. Ivan Pickens won second prize and also the table prize. Those present to meet Mrs. Coen, honor guest, included Mrs. Hartung, Mrs. Charles B. Wade, Mrs. M. M. Thorne, Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, Mrs. Roy Catching, Mrs. Ralph Quine, Mrs. Edward G. ### Rufus R. Wood Is Surprised on Birthday Anniversary Saturday

Most everybody has read of the fellow who alleged he never could be surprised, but the unexpected finally happened. So it was Saturday night when the niece and nephews and the in-laws of the News-Review "Around County" scribe inveigled that gentleman to the home of Mrs. Lela Wood where they had prepared a genuine "ambush" to surprise him. The occasion of all this was the anniversary of this pioneer newspaper man's birthday, which occurred near Walls Walla so long ago that most people have forgotten it. There were more than twenty present, but the hostess had prepared for all comers, so a delightful time was enjoyed by the group until well toward what might be termed an "early hour."

Roseburg Woman's Club Holds Important Business Meeting Tuesday Afternoon

The Roseburg Woman's club met in the club rooms on Tuesday afternoon of this week with Mrs. W. E. Ott, president in charge. Community singing was enjoyed at the opening of the meeting. Mrs. Ott appointed Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. L. Kohlman and Mrs. S. L. Kidder to go before the Douglas county court in behalf of the County Health Unit.

Mrs. W. E. Ott and Mrs. A. G. McMillin are representing the club to aid the city council and the chamber of commerce to aid in the unemployment situation in Roseburg.

Mrs. Ott read a letter from the Oregon Products company asking the club to cooperate to boost an Oregon products dinner some time after the first of the year, at which time only products grown in this state would be served. At this time the merchants will be asked to decorate their windows with Oregon products also.

Instead of exchanging gifts this year, each member has been asked to bring something for the club baskets, which will be made up and taken to needy families in the city at Christmas time. Vegetables, fruit, groceries, clothing and toys will be needed to fill the baskets.

Mrs. Ott is in charge of this work and has consented to call for articles from anyone wishing to help in this work. Those who can have been asked to take their donations to the club rooms.

Following the business meeting, Miss Margaret Carr gave a very interesting talk on Wednesday afternoon of this week, with the president, Mrs. E. Willis, presiding. Rev. Alexander Mulrden conducted the devotional and took his scripture lesson from the eleventh chapter of John. He gave a very impressive talk on the raising of Lazarus to life.

Mrs. L. L. Bodle read a letter from the Children's Farm home at Corvallis, containing a list of articles needed for the children there. It was decided to hold an all-day meeting on December 17 to prepare a Christmas box to be sent to the home.
