

WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

THE gayest and most festive season of the year is here and the most enjoyable social affairs of the coming weeks.

The Christmas L. F. T. ball on Tuesday evening was one of the most enjoyable social affairs of the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pickens were in charge of the committee sponsoring the ball, which was one of the most successful of its kind to be enjoyed by the club members in several years.

The Lady Elks enjoyed a social evening on Thursday night, when they were the guests of Mrs. D. B. Huber and Mrs. L. E. McClintock. The Lady Elks have been busy for the past several weeks preparing Christmas toys and baskets to be distributed to the needy at Christmas time. Other local clubs and organizations are also working for this cause.

L. F. T. Annual Christmas Ball Is Delightful

Affair of Tuesday Night

One of the most delightful affairs of the past week was the L. F. T. club annual Christmas ball held in the K. of P. hall on Tuesday evening. The Happy Chappies dance orchestra furnished the music and several gormantas and dancing was enjoyed by a large attendance of members.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pickens were in charge of the ball with the following assistants, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harth, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kohlhaugen, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Wait-scott, Joseph Murphy and Edwin Booth.

A feature of the evening was the balloon dance. Everyone was given a balloon, which they held in the air while dancing. Each person broke as many balloons as possible and the last one holding a balloon in the air received a prize. Storey Bea received the prize for the contest.

Later in the evening the Christmas tree was enjoyed at which time the gifts were distributed. Much merriment was enjoyed unwrapping the gifts.

Lunch was served buffet style. The punch table was lovely with Christmas favors and colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Harding Entertain Club With Dinner and Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding served a delectable seven o'clock dinner in the Blue room of the Umpqua hotel on Wednesday evening of this week, when they entertained the members of the Wednesday Evening Bridge club.

Elaborately decorated Christmas trees graced the center of the table. Tall lighted red tapers added a Christmas touch as did the Christmas placecards and attractive favors. Low bouquets of Fire-thorn were placed at intervals from the center of the table to the ends.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. A. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Smith, Miss Elizabeth Parrott, E. L. Parrott, members of the club, and guests, Mrs. A. Butler and Mrs. Mary E. Harding, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding.

Following the dinner, the guests played bridge in the Hartung apartment in the Umpqua hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman won the prize for the evening.

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly Entertains Delphin Club Members Wednesday

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly charitably entertained the members of the Delphin club at her home on Wednesday afternoon of this week. Fall flowers in lovely shades were used in large bouquets in the living room. A delightful study hour was held, after which an enjoyable social hour followed.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Wimberly included Mrs. Will Ham Bell, Mrs. S. A. Evans, Mrs. A. G. McMillin, Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. J. C. Leedy, Mrs. G. C. Finlay and Mrs. Foster Butler.

Mrs. Wimberly served dainty refreshments later in the afternoon.

Presbyterian Missionary Society Holds Meeting Wednesday at Virden Home

The Presbyterian Missionary society met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. B. Virden on North Jackson street, at which time Mrs. Virden, Mrs. Barton Howell and Mrs. W. G. Blake were hostesses.

Mrs. M. J. Shoemaker led the devotional. Mrs. E. R. Metzger gave a very interesting talk on "The Morning" and gave many personal experiences with the Mormon people, as she formerly resided in Utah. Mrs. Fred Fisher completed the study course of the Mission Society book.

A delightful social hour followed the meeting and later in the day, the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Walter Hercher Complimented With Bridge Party Thursday

Mrs. Ivan Broad entertained with a lovely party at her country home at Winston on Thursday evening complimenting Mrs. Walter Hercher. Colorful bouquets and Christmas decorations were charmingly arranged in the room. Bridge was the diversion of the evening. Mrs. Fred Lockwood received first prize and Mrs. R. D. Williams won the table prize.

Mrs. Broad was assisted during the evening by her sister, Miss Margaret Hewitt. Those enjoying the affair included Mrs. Walter Hercher, honor guest, Mrs. D. H. Lenox, Mrs. C. G. Forrier, Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung, Mrs. J. Harold Nichols, Mrs. Chester Hercher, Mrs. H. L. Connelly, Mrs. Guy Gordon, Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mrs. R. D. Williams, Mrs. Donald Hell-well, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. Wesley Williams, Mrs. L. M. Orchard, Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, Mrs. Hazel Booth, Mrs. Loren Miller, Mrs. M. J. Newland and Miss Hazel Strickland.

Later in the evening, a large basket of beautiful gifts was presented to Mrs. Hercher, after which Mrs. Broad served dainty refreshments.

Monday Evening Bridge Supper Club Members Guests at Parrott Home

Miss Elizabeth Parrott and E. L. Parrott entertained the members of the Monday Evening Bridge Supper club at their home in South Roseburg this week with a seven o'clock dinner. The table was beautiful with a centerpiece of roses and ferns. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. George Bolter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. B. Casey, Mrs. Arthur Baum, Miss Gertrude Raat, H. Wollenberg and the hostess and host, Miss Elizabeth Parrott and E. L. Parrott.

Bridge was enjoyed during the evening with Miss Gertrude Raat holding high score for the ladies and Mr. Wollenberg holding high score for the men.

Philip Bergh Marries Portland Girl in New York City Monday

Of interest here is the announcement of the marriage of Philip Bergh of Roseburg, and Miss Margaret Holbrook of Portland, who were married in New York, December 8.

Mr. Bergh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Bergh of this city, and after being graduated from the local high school, was graduated from University of Oregon in the class of 1927. He has had a business administration during his university course and was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi national fraternity. Mrs. Bergh studied music at University of Oregon for a few years later going to New York City and Boston, where she has been studying for the past two years.

They will spend the Christmas holidays at Roseburg at the M. W. Bergh home. Later, going to their home in Portland. Mr. Bergh is assistant production manager and designer of the Jantzen mills in Portland.

Camp Fire Guardians Hold Business Meeting Wednesday Evening

The Roseburg Camp Fire guardians and their assistants met at the home of Mrs. E. S. Hall in West Roseburg on Wednesday evening of this week. The regular routine business was cared for and plans for the new year discussed.

Business for "The Big Top" were prepared for the girls winning some. In order to receive an award a camp fire girl must do one of three things: (1) Obtain a new camp fire member; (2) a new guardian; (3) or help to form a new camp fire group. There is a coming home this month with Miss Helen Walker, Miss City Du-hart, Miss Ethel, Miss Mary Bell, Miss Quine, Miss Kathleen Red-iel and Miss Lora Cloy Hartfield.

A new camp fire group has been formed recently with Mrs. Hugh Whipple as guardian and Miss Wanda Harding as assistant guardian. Members of this group are: Miss Virginia Smith, Miss Elizabeth Entler, Miss Nancy Elwood, Miss Louisa and Miss Leola Bell, Miss Elizabeth Campbell, Miss Mary Carol Finch, Miss An-nabelle Berg and Miss Mary Joan Parkison.

All of the camp fire groups are busy preparing Christmas cards, which will be given Christmas eve in front of every Roseburg home having a habited candle in the window. The girls have been divided into four groups for Christmas eve.

Those attending the meeting at the home of Mrs. Hall included Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. Hugh Whipple, Miss Thelma Smith, Miss Ed-yeatch and Miss Dorothy Arndel.

Pot Luck Affair Enjoyed at Singleton Home Monday Evening

An enjoyable seven o'clock pot luck dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Singleton on Monday evening of this week. Three small tables centered with a lighted taper and placed in the living room were attractively arranged for Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deers, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Orchard, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. George Singleton.

Following the dinner hour, bridge was enjoyed with Mrs. Burr winning the ladies prize and Mr. Orchard receiving first prize for the men.

Mrs. Ralph Russell Elected President of Presbyterian Ladies Aid

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid met on Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors with a large attendance of members present. The meeting date was changed from the third Wednesday of each month to the third Thursday of each month.

Election of officers was held. Mrs. Ralph Russell is the new president; Mrs. T. B. Virden, vice-president, and Mrs. Carl K. Allen, treasurer. Mrs. C. E. Roberts, secretary for the past year, will be secretary for the ensuing year also.

Mrs. M. J. Shoemaker led the devotional and Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft gave a reading.

Later in the day, dainty refreshments were served by the committee composed of Mrs. Chalmers, Mrs. A. J. Bellows, Mrs. Clair K. Allen and Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft.

Informal Dinner Is Enjoyed at Fred Hamilton Home Tuesday

An enjoyable informal six o'clock dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton at their new home on East Oak street on Tuesday evening of this week. The table was charmingly arranged with a centerpiece of fall flowers and tall tapers. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Humm and daughter, Miss Jeanne, Miss Verna Carothers, Miss Florence Isabelle and Miss Frederica Hamilton, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton.

An enjoyable social evening followed the dinner hour.

Mrs. J. M. Luttrell Honored With Lovely Party Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. C. H. Wickham and Mrs. J. E. Byrd were joint hostesses on Tuesday afternoon, when they entertained Mrs. J. M. Luttrell with a shower at the Wickham home on Mill street. Chrysanthemums and other tall flowers were attractively arranged in the room. Games and visiting were enjoyed. An annual sewing contest was held with Mrs. Luttrell winning the first prize. The prize was a large basket filled with beautiful gifts.

Those enjoying the afternoon included Mrs. J. M. Luttrell, honor guest, Mrs. R. B. Shoun, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Snoddy, Mrs. Stafferton, Mrs. Shiloh, Mrs. Spauld, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Earl Decker, Mrs. C. M. Page, Mrs. Hugh Whipple, Mrs. Joseph Deers, Mrs. John Penney, Mrs. R. E. Crawford, Mrs. Elmer McKeon, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Arnot, Mrs. Jackson and the hostesses, Mrs. Wickham and Mrs. Byrd.

Later in the afternoon, Mrs. Wickham and Mrs. Byrd served light refreshments.

National Guard Non-Commissioned Officers Enjoy Turkey Dinner

The non-commissioned officers of the local National Guard unit met at the armory Friday evening and marched to the Graham Coffee Cup, where they enjoyed a turkey dinner. The table was attractively decorated and placecards arranged for each member according to rank.

Those enjoying the dinner were: First Sgt. Robert L. Irvine, Supply Sgt. Orville Lindsey, Sgt. James W. Stovall, Sgt. Edwin L. Dolan, Corp. William C. Bonobrine, Corp. Charles E. Coats, Corp. John A. Irvine, Corp. William E. Loma, Corp. H. Orlaf Peterson, Pvt. Earl C. Hubert E. Graham.

Following the dinner, a special business meeting was held and the proposed constitution was revised and adopted.

Mrs. Sellick Is Hostess to Badoura Club Tuesday Night

The Badoura club, daughters of the Nite club, held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. G. Sellick. Chrysanthemums were used as a decorative note.

Election of officers was held and Mrs. George K. Quine was elected president, Mrs. S. G. Seelick, vice-president, Mrs. L. Jordan, secretary, and Mrs. Iolo Stephens, treasurer.

Mrs. Waltham Bell, 1929 president of the club, had charge of the business meeting for the evening. The club donated $10 to the Christmas fund for the Umpqua Relief association. A prize for attendance of members for the past year was awarded to Mrs. George Quine by Mrs. Bell. Mrs. Quine had not missed a meeting during the entire year. Several members had only missed one meeting during the year.

Next Monday evening, the Badoura club will give a six o'clock turkey dinner in the Roseburg Women's club rooms, at which time their husbands will be guests.

Those enjoying the meeting Tuesday evening included Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. George Hag-burn, Mrs. F. W. Chase, Mrs. Will-iam Johnson, Mrs. H. R. North, Mrs. George Quine, Mrs. Iolo Seelick, Mrs. John Thorne, Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. L. Jordan and the hostess, Mrs. G. Sellick.

After an enjoyable social hour Mrs. Sellick served delicious refreshments.

Fastidious

Capucine crepe is the material from which this fashionable after-noon dress was created. The be-coming jewel collar is self-trimmed and the belt, which repeats the fab-ric, is fastened with an antique gold buckle. The hat is of black soieil, the chiffon here are crepe, beige and the pumps are of black patent leather.

Photo—Courtesy Register-Guard

Miss Amy Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Porter, of Eugene, whose engagement to Lee Rapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rapp, was announced Saturday evening at a formal dinner at the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

The engagement of Miss Amy Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Porter, to Lee Rapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rapp, was announced at a formal dinner Saturday evening at the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority on the Eugene campus.

The announcement was made in an original song, sung by Mrs. E. L. Mckalson of Portland, sister of the bride-elect, Miss Irma Greig, who accompanied. Cards were placed on the centerpieces of holly, red ribbons running from the centerpieces to the places and red lights carried out the holiday note. A corsage was brought in with the ring.

News of the betrothal is of much interest to town and campus groups. Miss Porter is a senior at the university this year, majoring in the school of architecture. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi and of Theta Psi, honorary group. Mr. Rapp graduated from the university four years ago and is now in Roseburg. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity on the campus. No date has been announced for the wedding.

Special guests at the announce-ment dinner were Mrs. Frank H. Porter, Mrs. A. F. Rapp, Mrs. E. L. Mckalson, and Miss Irma Greig. Members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon called after the dinner.

Later in the evening, Miss Porter entertained at her home for a few friends.—Eugene Register-Guard.

Large Social Party Enjoyed at Schulze Home Friday Night

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schulze entertained with a delightful party at their Brookway home on Friday evening. Fall flowers were used as a decorative note.

An enjoyable social evening was spent by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fletcher, Miss Egan, Miss Freda and Miss Dora Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. C. Heater, Mrs. J. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Veni Hixson, Miss Ruth Parker, Miss Edith and Miss Mary Green, Miss Florence Morris, Miss Helen Rorer, Miss Ada and Miss Elizabeth Martin, Miss Vera Hodges, Mrs. C. Hodges, Miss Martha Montgomery, Miss Florence Meredith, Miss Grace Montgomery, Mrs. F. Steinhauser, Miss Lucia Rogers, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Hilda, Miss Bessie and Miss Virginia Schulze, Ralph Heater, J. Robert McKay, Roger Green, Arthur and Alfred Morris, Walter Rorer, Fritz Martin, John and Ralph Roddy, Vern Hodges, Edward Montgomery, Ernest, Earl and Verle Roberts, Russell and Kirby Steinhauser, Charles Duxton, Glenn Wood, Chester Williams, Henry, Fred, Cecil and Charles Schulze and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schulze.

Mrs. Schulze served delicious refreshments at a later hour in the evening.

For Completion of Milady's Wardrobe

This smart afternoon ensemble is an indispensable part of every woman's wardrobe. It is of brown Elizabethan style trimmed with beige tulle. The bodice is of brown moire braid in harmony with the gown. The new bell-shaped sleeves are featured.

No Host Dinner Enjoyed by Club on Sunday Evening

Members of the Thursday evening bridge club and their husbands enjoyed a six o'clock dinner at Roseburg Catering on Sunday evening of this week. A low bowl of marigolds graced the center of the table and tall green tapers were placed at both ends of the table.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Entler, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Lauren, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Falbe, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ness, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen Jr.

Following the dinner, the members went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Entler in Laurelwood, where a delightful social evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. J. A. Harding Is Hostess to Aureneous Club Saturday

Mrs. J. A. Harding was a most gracious hostess on Saturday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Aureneous club at her apartment in the Umpqua hotel. The festive atmosphere was prevalent throughout the room with many bouquets of flowers in shades of green and red.

Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon with Mrs. C. W. Whar-ton winning first prize.

Mrs. Mary E. Harding and Mrs. B. A. Butler were guests of the day and members present included Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mrs. C. W. Whar-ton, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. Oscar Berrie, Mrs. Arthur Baum and Mrs. J. A. Harding.

Later in the afternoon, Mrs. Harding served dainty refreshments.

Pot Luck Turkey Dinner Enjoyed on Sunday at Barnum Home

A delightful pot luck two o'clock turkey dinner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barnum on South Kane street on last Sunday. Large bouquets of chrysanthemums were used to enhance the charm of the rooms.

Covers were placed at a large table for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce C. Elliott and daughter, Miss Norma Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sawalich and daughter, Miss Sue, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barnum and daughter, Miss Virginia.

An enjoyable social afternoon and evening followed the dinner.

Church Night and Annual Christmas Party to Be Enjoyed at Christian Church

The regular church night and Christmas party will be enjoyed by the members of the First Christian church of Roseburg next Wednesday evening in the church parlors. A special six o'clock dinner will be served by the committee in charge, after which Mrs. Horace Berg and committee will present a delightful and interesting program.

The church night is a regular monthly affair of the church and has been very successful during the past fall months. It is believed that the December church night combined with the annual Christmas party will prove to be a delightful affair for the members.

Dinner Complimenting Richter Family Is Enjoyed Tuesday Night

Mr. and Mrs. Clair K. Auen complimented Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richter and two daughters, Miss Made-line and Miss Barbara, with a six o'clock dinner on Tuesday evening. Shades of red were used in the table centerpiece and holly completed a most attractive table setting.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richter and daughters, Miss Made-line and Miss Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dillard, Mrs. W. A. White, Miss Carolyn Allen, Billy Allen and the host and hostess, Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Auen.

An enjoyable social evening followed the dinner hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Richter and family left Roseburg Wednesday morning for their new home in Oak-ridge, Oregon, where Mr. Richter will be a partner of his brother, who is engaged in the grocery business there. They have many Roseburg friends who regret their leaving this city.

Natsih Camp Fire Group Enjoys Social Meeting on Saturday

The Natsih Campfire group met at the home of Mrs. T. R. Burr, guardians, on last Saturday afternoon for their social meeting. Miss Ella Hennrich was in charge of the program for the day.

Miss Eugenia Virden played a piano solo "Fun"; Miss Gay Huber also played a piano solo "Golly-woog" which was followed by "Dream Waltz," piano solo played by Miss Katherine Lapp. Games and contests followed.

Christmas seals were given to each member to be sold to help the group. Dolls were also distributed to the members to be dressed and to be given away at Christmas time.

Later in the day, Mrs. Burr served light refreshments. Miss Ella Hennrich, Miss Katherine DeLant, Miss Gay Huber, Miss Ethola Huber, Miss Eugenia Virden, Miss Mildred Grimm, Miss Shirley Mae Bland, Miss Betty Russell, Miss Betty Quine, Miss Myrtle Stearns, Miss Fanny Lou Wimberly, Miss Alia Baker, Miss Catherine, Miss Jean, Miss Helen Catching, Miss Jean Geddes, Miss Mary Ellen Darby and Miss June Falbe.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

Genevieve Barnett Receives Medal

During National Education Week Mrs. Richard Busch, Americanism chairman, presented Miss Genevieve Barnett with the American Legion Auxiliary medal for her outstanding scholarship, honor, service, courage, leadership and Americanism for the past school year. Umpqua Unit presents one such medal each year. The following letter was received from Miss Barnett:

Mrs. Roy Campbell, Sec. Umpqua Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, Dear Mrs. Campbell:

I wish to extend thanks to the American Legion Auxiliary for the beautiful medal presented to me November 13, 1930, by Mrs. Richard Busch for scholarship, honor, service, courage, leadership, and Americanism of last year. I can't express my appreciation in terms of words, but once again I thank you very, very much for this medal. I'm certainly proud of it.

Sincerely,
Genevieve Barnett.

Child Welfare and Hospital Work Being Stressed.

Umpqua Unit is exerting most of its efforts to child welfare and hospital work at the present time, as there is much to be done among the needy. Mrs. George Caskey, chairman of the child welfare com- mittee, and Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman, chairman of the hospital committee, are both experienced in this work and are giving liberally of their time and efforts. The week December 1st to 6th was American Legion Auxiliary Benefit Week at Hunt's Indian theatre and 400 tickets were donated by Mr. Hunt to the Unit, the entire proceeds from the sale of which are to be used for child welfare and hospital work. The total ticket sale was $41 and $200 was cleared for this worthy work.

Membership Drive in Progress

The annual membership drive closes very shortly and a final effort is being made to reach the quota of 251 by Tuesday night, December 16th, in order to receive the national citation. Those who have not already done so are urged to send in their dues at once. Mrs. Carl Wimberly is chairman of the membership drive and has been working hard to put Umpqua Unit over the top.

Social Hour to Be Held

The meeting Tuesday night, December 16th, will be followed by a social hour. Mrs. E. R. Kenny and Mrs. W. A. Stephenson of the entertainment committee and Mrs. H. C. Boyle of the hospitality committee are co-operating to make the evening a success. A good attendance is expected.

N. S. N. Sunday School Class Formed at First Presbyterian Church

A group of young people met at the First Presbyterian church on Monday evening of this week, at which time a new Sunday school class, called the N. S. N. class was formed. Mrs. C. E. Roberts and Mrs. Earl Agee were hostesses for the evening and Mrs. Roberts is the teacher for the class.

Miss Louise Robinson was elected president; Miss Ruth Meyer, secretary, and Miss Abbey Claire Hirschinger, treasurer.

Miss Robinson played a piano solo and Miss Neva Agee sang several solos, after which a social evening was enjoyed. Those enjoying the evening included Miss Neva Agee, Miss Louise Robinson, Miss Ruth Meyer, Miss Abbey Claire Hirschinger, Miss Naomi and Miss Mildred Cobb, Miss Mary Banning, Miss Shirley Ware, Miss French Victor Arundel, Louis Wilson, Percy Robinson, Rev. Alexander Mulrden and the hostesses, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Agee.

Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Agee served dainty refreshments later in the evening.

Mrs. Carl Wimberly Entertains Bridge Club Monday Night

Mrs. Carl Wimberly graciously entertained the members of the Monday evening bridge club and a few of her friends at her home on East Lane street this week. Chrysanthemums were tastefully arranged throughout the room and bridge was the diversion of the evening.

Guests of the evening included Mrs. Guy Gordon, Mrs. Ralph Quine, Mrs. Roy Catching, Mrs. Kenneth Quine and Miss Margaret Hewitt.

Mrs. Harris Ellsworth won the club prize for bridge and Miss Margaret Hewitt received the guest prize for the evening.

Mrs. Wimberly served dainty refreshments at a later hour.

Belle View Club to Meet Next Thursday

The Belle View club will meet next Thursday afternoon, December 13th, at the home of Mrs. Pitzer Beckley on Deer creek at two o'clock.

THIS YEAR

... a gift for many years

THIS YEAR—let your gift be one that will still be giving for many years to come. A gift that LASTS—a gift of precious metal!

Here, you will find many fine gifts of enduring beauty. To the recipient, they will bring lasting happiness. To you, lasting satisfaction for having chosen them.

A fine watch, for example, in a case of NATURAL YELLOW GOLD by Wadsworth. A band to match or a distinctive belt buckle by the same skilled craftsmen. And just hundreds of other "gifts that last." Come in—soon!

Christmas Gift Suggestions

Men's Intaglio Rings. Different and distinctive rings, one to cause favorable comment whenever seen. Onyx, Bloodstone, Tiger Eye, and Ruby with Intaglio carving by Italian artists.

Chains. For across the vest, its bright gleam relieves the most barren breadth of the vest. For attachment to suits, watch keys. Priced from $2.50 to $10.

The Hamley Kit

"What Oregon makes, makes Oregon." This popular toilet kit for men is made by the cowboy saddle makers of Pendleton of solid leather.

... and for his desk

Humidifiers, Ash Trays, Cigarette Boxes, and many other items of the arts in bronze ... desk sets including large pad and the useful accessories for desk use ... and Telenorm electric clocks.

Community Silver Knudtson's Green and Elgin Watches JEWELERS