Attractions AT THE MOVIES

INDIAN—Today and Saturday, "Renegades," with Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy, Noah Beery.

WITH stark drama worthy of Eugene O'Neill at his best, "Renegades," the feature which opens at the Indian theatre today, is one of the most gripping and entertaining pictures this reviewer has seen in many months.

The finest picture of the French Foreign Legion to reach the speaking screen, "Renegades," has much to recommend it. The notable performance of Warner Baxter in the leading role is a revelation to those whose admiration for this fine actor has heretofore revolved around his impersonations of dashing bandits in the old southwest. As the luckless French officer who flees to the Legion when his sweetheart proves to be an enemy spy, only to encounter her deadly activities at the moment of his triumph, Baxter's work is flawless. Myrna Loy is as alluring as ever and fascinates while she repels the spectator in her difficult but excellently handled role.

ORGAN PROGRAM SET FOR NEXT SUNDAY

A program of music from the masters, popular Christmas selections and other music appropriate to the holiday season will be presented at the First Christian church Sunday afternoon between 3 and 4:30 o'clock, by Frances Linott, organist and director of music. The vesper service is an anniversary of the presentation of the pipe organ to the church by Wilbur C. Perkins of Chicago, who gave the organ as a Christmas gift to the church a year ago in memory of his mother, Mary E. Perkins, a former resident of Roseburg and a member of the Christian church.

as follows: Grand March, "Aida".....Verdi. Serenade.....Schubert. "The Lost Chord".....Sullivan. Medley of Christmas Carols. Ikerous, "Jocelyn".....Godard. Barcarolle from "Tales of Hoffmann".....Offenbach. "The Shepherd's Dream".....Stultz. "Hymn of the Sime".....Lefebvre-Wely. Andante from "Orfeo".....Gluck. "Melodie".....Massenet. "A Japanese Sunset".....Debussy. "Festal Postlude".....Kinross.

Miss Olsen Returns—Miss Olive Olsen, who has been spending a few days visiting in Portland, has returned to her home in Roseburg.
