WITH the approaching of the gayest week in the entire year, society matrons have been busy making plans to enjoy the coming week to the greatest extent. A large number of Christmas home dinners will be enjoyed, as will several informal affairs. The Christmas Charity Ball will be a large affair of next Thursday evening and with the university and other college students home for the holidays, promises to be an enjoyable event.

The past week's outstanding affairs include the Boudoir club, Daughters of the Nile, annual Christmas party honoring their husbands, which occurred in the Woman's club rooms on Monday evening. The installation of officers for the Eastern Star was perhaps the largest event of the week. Several out of town guests were in Roseburg Thursday evening especially for the affair. The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph annual Christmas party was also enjoyed on Thursday evening and the B. P. W. C. Christmas party was enjoyed last evening.

Eastern Star Installation of Officers Is One of Season's Loveliest Affairs

A beautifully arranged installation ceremony on Thursday evening, December 18th, the following officers were installed to serve Roseburg Chapter No. 8, Order of the Eastern Star, for the ensuing year: Lela Winkler, worthy matron; Walter Hercher, worthy patron; Eva May Forrier, associate matron; David Lenox, associate patron; Free Johnson, secretary; Pearl Jones, treasurer; Mada Whipple, marshal; Clara Starnes, chaplain; Anna Gordon, conductress; Ella Lehou, assistant conductress; Myrtle Williams, organist; Harriet Turner, Adah; Helen Brod, Ruth; Claudia Hartung, Esther; Dora Ritzman, Martha; Grace Brown, Electa; Lillie Pett, warden; John Runyan, sentinel.

On the installation of Free Johnson for the 26th consecutive term as secretary, an ovation was given him. At the close of the installation ceremony Mrs. E. E. Morgan, past matron, on behalf of the chapter, presented Aida Williams, outgoing matron, with a beautiful past matron's jewel, in appreciation of her leadership during the year. Mr. Johnson, veteran secretary, very thoughtfully had framed an etching sent out by Grand Chapter in holiday greeting and at this time presented it to Mrs. Williams in memory of their year's work together.

Special music was arranged by Mrs. Frances Lintott and Mrs. A. J. Young and Mrs. Pruitt favored the audience with two whistling solos.

After closing, all present were invited to the banquet room where delicious refreshments were served by a committee whose chairman were Mrs. Elizabeth Runyan and Mrs. Alice Chapman. The tables were lovely with tall red tapers, miniature Christmas trees and red berries, carrying on the Yuletide spirit. The outgoing officers of the chapter at this time presented Mrs. Williams with a beautiful silver gift in appreciation of her work during the year.

John's Daughters were especially invited guests of the evening and several other invited guests were also present.

Dixonville P. T. A. Holds Meeting on Monday Afternoon

Mrs. Joseph Brumback and Mrs. C. L. Branton were joint hostesses on Monday afternoon when they entertained the members of the Dixonville P. T. A. at the Brumback home. Chrysanthemums and ferns were tastefully arranged through the rooms and a miniature Christmas tree, beautifully decorated, lent a Yuletide atmosphere.

Plans were discussed for the annual Christmas affair, which will be held at the school house next Tuesday evening, December 23rd. Sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the balance of the afternoon by Mrs. J. H. Korte, Mrs. E. Lindholm, Mrs. G. Chadwick, Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mrs. R. J. Ber, Mrs. Grover Tison, Mrs. Albert Stiefel, Mrs. C. F. Kregel, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. George Bonbrake and Miss Julia Keasey.
