Miss Eloise Caswell Honored With Shower by Mrs. Floyd Watson

Mrs. Floyd Watson, of Glide, charmingly entertained at her home last Saturday afternoon, when she complimented Miss Eloise Caswell, a recent bride-elect. The marriage of Miss Caswell to J. Carlton Livingston will be an event of the holidays.

A special feature of the afternoon was the carrying out of a mock wedding. Before the ceremony, Mrs. Frank Wilson sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Floyd Watson on the piano.

To the strains of Lehengrin's wedding march, prayed by Miss Alleta Bjorg, the wedding procession came in through the front door. Little Miss Norma Jean Shrum, dressed daintily in a pink silk dress, accompanied by James K. Watson, in a white suit, carried baskets of chrysanthemums and ferns. Miss Helen Smith and Miss Helen Conine, bridesmaids followed and Mrs. William E. Woodcock acted as maid of honor. She carried the two wedding rings on a white satin pillow. The bride, Mrs. Cord Hintin, on the arm of her mother, Mrs. Frank Wilson, approached the improvised altar. Mr. Albert Everts, minister, Mrs. George Casebeer, the bridegroom, and the rejected suitor who took the part of best man, Mrs. Verne Shrum, came in from the dining room. The party assembled in the archedway, which was decorated with pastel shades of crepe flowers and ferns. The bride was dressed in white and wore a long white net veil, which was the wedding outfit worn eighteen years ago by one of the guests of the afternoon. Amid much merriment and excitement, the preacher read the ceremony. Five-hundred was enjoyed during the remainder of the afternoon. Later in the day, Mrs. Watson served dainty refreshments. The bridal party, the guest of honor and her mother, were seated at one large table. The centerpiece was a large golden cake decorated with a miniature bride and bridegroom and the wedding rings. Gifts were placed at small tables for the other guests.

Those enjoying the affair included Miss Eloise Caswell, honor guest, her mother, Mrs. Paul Caswell, and her grandmother; other guests included Mrs. Joseph Brumback, Mrs. Elmer Bartrum, Mrs. Charles Swindler, Mrs. Agnes Blakely Moore, Mrs. C. D. Talcott, Mrs. S. T. Matthews, Mrs. George Casebeer, Mrs. Verne Shrum, Mrs. Ellis Watson, Mrs. Lawrence Strohecker, Mrs. William Frey, Mrs. Richard Woods, Mrs. Phil Strader, Mrs. Oscar Skeanish, Mrs. Cord Hintin, Mrs. Albert Everts, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Helen Conine, Miss Alleta Bjorg, Miss Ruth Walters, Miss Myrtle Kenney and Miss Dorene Shrum.

Many lovely and useful gifts were presented to Miss Caswell by her friends.

Mrs. Watson was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. Skeanish, Mrs. Talcott and Miss Bjorg.

Mrs. Edward Kohlhaugen Entertains Club With Christmas Party Friday

Mrs. Edward Kohlhaugen was a charming hostess on Friday afternoon when she entertained the members of her bridge club with a Christmas party at her home in the Kohlhaugen apartments.

Bouquets of holly and a large Christmas tree were used in the rooms. Names were drawn at a previous meeting and the exchange of gifts was enjoyed Friday afternoon.

Bridge was played during the afternoon by Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung, Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, Mrs. Paul Helwig, of Sutherlin, Mrs. Harrie Booth, Mrs. E. M. Squier, Miss Eva Rice and the hostess, Mrs. Edward Kohlhaugen.

Later in the day, the guests were seated at a large table attractively centered with a miniature Christmas tree and tall lighted red tapers. Small favors and candies were placed at each plate. Mrs. Kohlhaugen served dainty refreshments at this time.

Roseburg Woman's Club Has Annual Christmas Party Tuesday Afternoon

The Roseburg Woman's club members enjoyed their annual Christmas party on Tuesday afternoon of this week. A large number of members were present to enjoy the affair.

Mrs. Floyd Fear was general chairman for the affair with the following assistants, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. L. H. Skinner, Mrs. W. A. Stephenson and Mrs. A. H. Perrin.

Each member brought a gift, which was wrapped during the social hour, and turned over to the local relief association for the needy at Christmas time.

The club rooms were unusually beautiful. The Christmas atmosphere prevailed with a large decorated fireplace, Christmas tree and holly and mistletoe bouquets.

Mrs. W. E. Ott had charge of the regular business meeting. Mrs. Charles Hiney sang two solos and the Roseburg Campfire girls sang Christmas carols.

Refreshments were served at two large tables decorated with miniature Christmas trees and tall lighted red tapers.

POEM FOR THE DAY

By LOUIS ALBERT BANKS

AMERICA GOING HOME

A writer in "The Monitor" telling of watching a great group of working people going home, says:

"Dvorak, in his symphony of 'The New World' has an exquisite bit with a plaintive minor theme. It is called 'Going Home.' It sets forth its theme in beautiful harmony. The early winter's night, filled with the voices of many races, homeward bound from the day's work is another symphony, its motif as high and gay, as free and untroubled as Dvorak's is sad and full of yearning."

"Fragments of talk are to be heard, all bearing out the motif. The world that labors is merry, it would seem French or Irish, German or Polish, Swedish or Spanish—the day's work is over—it is a fine winter's night—this is America—going home."

Not like a slave to dungeon cold— One crushed upon a wheel of gold— Will go American citizenship. But, like a gay excursion trip. Our workers seek their jolly homes As evening twilight softy gloams, With oft a bright and merry laugh. With happy wit and cheerful chaff.

In this free land we honor work, And none lose color, save they shrink: And work grows brighter all the time— Its dignity is on the climb; And as we come to shorter hours The toilers blossom out like flowers. So going home's a thing of joy— To evening peace without alloy.

They go to homes with comforts rife— No other land can show such life. The average worker owns his car, Is held in social life at par; His modern wages now bestow Both telephone and radio. No wonder going home is sweet When all these blessings he will greet.

Thrice happy those from other lands Who find these bounties in their hands. God grant that they appreciate The basic stones that make us great; The Sabbath day—a day of rest, A sober land—no liquor zest, The right of all upon our sod To freest worship of his God.
