EUGENE ANDREWS WILL PROSPECT ON ROGUE RIVER

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
GLENDAL, Dec. 22.—Eugene Andrews left Wednesday evening for West Fork where he was to meet a packer who would aid him into the Mule creek country on the lower Rogue river where he expected to do some prospecting.
Andrews was the innocent cause of considerable excitement at Grants Pass when word was received from Mule creek the first of the week that he had not arrived there. It was feared he had met with some tragedy until it was learned he was safe in Glendale.
Andrews left Grants Pass a week ago Friday to go into the Mule creek district. He came to Glendale and left over the Gold Bug road to the top of Mt. Reuben where he took a trail that connects with the west Port-Marial pack trail. When he reached this trail he travelled the wrong direction and found himself in West Fork instead of Mule creek. So he returned to Glendale Monday to make arrangements for a guide and new start.
