STRIB, SCHMELING SLATED FOR BOUT

(Associated Press Special Wire)
NEW YORK, Jan. 12 — If little observers have interpreted the signs correctly, all obstacles in the path of a heavyweight title match between Max Schmeling and young Stripling have been cleared away and their managers are ready to sign on the dotted line.

Certainly there were definite indications that "Pa" Stripling, father-manager of the Macon, Ga., heavyweight, and promoters for the Hearst milk fund were close to an agreement. Scheduling at ready is under contract to the milk fund and no trouble is anticipated from that quarter.

According to best available advice, the bout if all goes well will be held next June in Detroit, Cleveland, Philadelphia or Jersey City.

Promoted to Sergeant—Harlan Atterbury and Earl Smith, Roseburg students at Oregon State college, have been promoted to sergeant in the cadet corps, according to word received here. The appointments have been approved by President Kerr.

INDIAN—Today and Tuesday, "Morocco," with Gary Cooper, Marlene Dietrich and Adolphe Menjou; Wednesday and Thursday, "Part Time Wife," with Edmund Lowe and Lella Hyams; Friday and Saturday, "Tom Sawyer," with Jackie Coogan, Mitzi Green.

The talking screen has found its voice of love in "Morocco," in which Gary Cooper, Marlene Dietrich and Adolphe Menjou will be seen at the Indian theatre, starting today for two days. At rare intervals the motion picture industry produces a super picture, one achieving the rare combination of power, sweep, artistry and universal appeal. "Morocco" is such a picture. It's the greatest love drama since "The Sheik."

"Morocco" is a story of a turbulent, fierce, all-consuming love; of a man and a woman swept into a maelstrom of emotions which neither of them desires and neither can resist. Love is wrung from their hearts, actually torn from them, and the compelling dramatic direction of this production sweeps all who see it along with the master theme.
