EUROPEAN STAR HIT IN 'MOROCCO'

"Morocco," current attraction at the Indian, is a picture that defies comparison. It is so different that it is in a class by itself. Even complete review of the entire picture would not give a fair idea of its type. At any rate it is safe to say that there is no other actress like the star of this picture, Marlene Dietrich, the toast of Europe who has now invaded the American screen. After seeing the picture you will not wonder that her acting has caused comment in all dramatic publications of the land and that radio has recently lauded her artistry. Gary Cooper does the best character acting of his career and the veteran Frenchman, Adolphe Menjou, outdoes anything he has yet accomplished. You may like at least the only way you'll know is by seeing it. Our advice is that you see "Morocco."

She Loves Love and Weds

CHARGES AGAINST HUBBARD DROPPED

Charges recently brought against A. M. Hubbard, accused of petty larceny, have been dismissed from the Reedsport court. Hubbard was arrested with C. K. Glendonin, charged with the theft of parts from a donkey engine near Reedsport. Hubbard, it was shown, had no knowledge of the theft, with which Glendonin was charged also, and the charge against him was dismissed. Glendonin was also released after the owner of the property refused to prosecute, a settlement having been made.
