PRE-SCHOOL AND BABY CLINICS ARE SCHEDULED JAN. 15

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

GLENDALE, Jan. 13—Another pre-school and baby clinic is being planned by the Glendale Health Unit for Thursday, January 15, at which time it is expected Mrs. Elise Poel, county health nurse, will be in attendance. Whether the local doctor or a doctor from the county health department will aid in the clinic work has not been decided yet.

It is also being planned to hold these clinics quarterly instead of monthly as in the past year. These clinics proved very popular last year but it is felt that there was not enough need for them here to warrant holding them oftener than once every three months.

DRAIN

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

DRAIN, Jan. 14—Mrs. Olin Snook, whose husband is an employee of the Ford garage here, was taken to a Eugene hospital last week, being quite seriously ill, but was reported better a few days ago.
