

News of Douglas County

LEGION AUXILIARY CONTEST LOSERS SPONSOR PARTY

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
REEDSPORT, Jan. 16 — Tuesday evening saw the end of the membership contest conducted by the Reedsport chapter of the American Legion Auxiliary, and the winning side was entertained by the losers with a theatre party and supper at the Frank Taylor home. Ruby Taylor led the losers, and Gertrude Patterson the winners. The theatre party occurred at 7 p. m. and was followed by a business meeting. Vice President Hazel Bernhardt became president following the resignation of Laura Knapp, since deceased, and Mabel Wedder was elected vice president. It was decided to hold the poppy poster contest in connection with the school again this year, since last year's contest was so successful. A delicious supper was served following the business meeting.

SMITH RIVER P. T. A. PLANS HOT LUNCHEES

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
SMITH RIVER, Jan. 16 — The Smith River parent-teachers' association met Monday for its regular business meeting, and committee for the hot lunch were arranged for a month. Each mother comes for one day, brings food for the entire school and cooks it. One hot dish only is served, children bringing their own sandwiches. The high school board met at the same time and lunch was served to the entire gathering at noon.

CAMAS VALLEY

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
CAMAS VALLEY, Jan. 16 — Bertha of Marcola has been visiting here with her son, Wayne Rietz for several days. Wayne is building a new poultry house and his father has been helping with the new building. Mr. Rietz Sr. wishes to locate in the valley if he finds a suitable location.

Mrs. C. Wiley, who underwent a serious operation at the Keizer hospital in North Bend, is reported as improving.

Word was received here last week that Mr. and Mrs. John Stobie are the parents of a baby boy. Mrs. Stobie is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Wiley.

The Ladies' Aid met last week at the home of Mrs. E. W. Huntley. Mrs. Lester Coates and small daughter are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dick. Mrs. Coates' parents, Lester is working in a logging camp near Coquille. Clarence Mayer and his father are putting up a large new chicken house.

SMITH RIVER

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
SMITH RIVER, Jan. 15 — Mrs. Ella Devereaux of Eugene is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Jones.

Earl Bailey of Sulphur Springs returned home Saturday from Wesley hospital, Marsfield. He will be home for a few weeks, and then return for another operation, the sixth in 15 months. His trouble began with the accidental discharge of a gun while he was on a hunting expedition.

A clamming party to the middle grounds Monday consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pyritz, Oliver and Mrs. Peter Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Lewis. They brought back a nice supply of clams.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cowan who went to California last fall for the health of their small son, are now at Indio, living in an auto camp and the child is improving.

Mrs. Peter Cowan and daughter, Mrs. Everett Smith were Reedport visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. H. L. Lewis went Tuesday to Reedport to attend the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary and spent the night with Mrs. Tom Lillebo. Wednesday morning she caught the early boat and visited at the home of Mrs. Dave Roberts until the afternoon boat when she returned to her home. She reports a delightful time on her round of visits, as well as at the auxiliary meeting.

REEDSPORT

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
REEDSPORT, Jan. 16 — A. L. and R. L. Butler of Scottsburg were Sunday visitors at the H. D. Butler home.

It's double acting

First—in the dough. Then in the oven. You can be sure of perfect bakings in using—

KC BAKING POWDER

SAME PRICE FOR OVER 40 YEARS

25 ounces for 25c

MILLIONS OF POUNDS USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT

Andy Monson of Drain passed through Reedport Sunday en route to Saticum on a business trip. They returned the same day.

Mrs. A. L. Butler was called to East Gardiner Monday night to attend at the bedside of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Bush, who is suffering from a serious prostration.

Mrs. A. L. Butler of Scottsburg is visiting her parents in California, to be with them on their 51st wedding anniversary.

C. M. Danielson of Newport was in town Tuesday on business connected with the electric light service.

Frank Spencer and John Lusk, farmers of Beams creek transacted business in Reedport Monday.

Charley Harvey of Harvey creek was in town Monday on business. Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford of Klamath Falls arrived in Reedport Sunday and are in charge of the Port Umpqua Courier. Their daughter, Miss Jean, will arrive Sunday. She is completing the semester in the Klamath Falls high school.

Guests at the Frank Wade home on the Umpqua Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jacob and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Vanderpool. Wednesday Ernest Wade motored to town and returned with Mesdames E. E. Clark, E. K. Steinback and Ray Chambers, who spent the day.

MYRTLE CREEK

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
MYRTLE CREEK, Jan. 16 — George Aker, the Standard Oil manager at Myrtle Creek, whose car, a Chrysler six, was on Tuesday evening received word Wednesday that the car had been ditched at Medford after the gas had been used. Mr. Aker immediately went to Medford, returning in the evening with the car, but so far no trace of the thieves has been found.

A. C. Redifer, who owns and operates a small shingle mill on South Myrtle, fell over the bed of his truck last Saturday and fractured some of his ribs.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Saulsbury made a flying business trip to Portland Monday, returning Tuesday.

A good deal of improvement is noticeable at the south end of Main street since the new concrete highway bridge was completed. J. I. Holtum has leveled and graded the grounds around his service station. The city has erected a neat little pump house, and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bulck are having a new coat of paint put on the historic old hall which is their home.

The Myrtle Creek Commercial Club has held two important meetings this month, the first on the evening of the 7th and the next the 13th. At the first meeting a backward look was taken at the accomplishments of 1930. The most outstanding events were found to be the establishing of market roads on North and South Myrtle and aid rendered in the Tiller Trail project.

Aims for the new year include assistance in the South Douglas Fair and beautification of the city and community property. Directors for the coming year were elected as follows: J. M. Lockwood, R. W. Reynolds, H. F. English, H. P. Rice, and G. R. Bates. At the next meeting the president, vice president and secretary will be appointed.

The Friendly Few club met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Chumey, Wednesday afternoon. An excellent program was given, after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Starbuck and Mrs. Ruby Irvine transacted business and visited friends in Medford Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Roberts are spending a few days in Portland this week.

CAPTAIN CLARK HOME

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
REEDSPORT, Jan. 16 — Captain Prentiss M. Clarke of the Umpqua coast guard station has returned from his vacation. He left Reedport December 15, accompanied by his mother, motored to San Francisco, Sacramento, Stockton, Santa Rosa and other California points. December 29 found him returning to Portland, from whence he visited Seattle, Port Angeles, and returned to the Umpqua January 10, having driven 2,900 miles. Officially he will be back next Thursday.

Nice Weather

we are having for Gasco Briquets

That's why we are going like hot-cakes.

Better Try a Ton

Denn-Gerretsen Co.

231 N. Main Phone 128

VISITORS ENJOY CLAM DIGGING TRIP AT SMITH RIVER

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
SMITH RIVER, Jan. 16 — Guests at the Charley Morris home are Mrs. Kyle Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Axford of Battle-ground, Washington, Mrs. Orva Holbrook, Vancouver, Washington, and Mrs. Parke Sturgis of Salem. The ladies are sisters of Mrs. Morris. On Wednesday, by way of showing the visitors the attractions of the lower Umpqua, the party, accompanied by F. L. Boye and children, went down the Umpqua to the clam beds and brought back an abundance of this delectable sea food.

GARDINER

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
GARDINER, Jan. 16 — Mrs. R. G. Cairns, who has been visiting Mrs. E. E. Williams the past week, returned Monday to her home at Reedport.

Mrs. Edlin and Mrs. Loren Gerhard accompanied their husbands Friday to Lakeside and watched them play in the basketball game there.

Mrs. H. Durbin returned Friday from a week's visit in Portland. Mrs. Byron Serling entertained the Steiner club Thursday. Members responded to roll call with a helpful household hint. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Inga Houck and Mrs. John Bernhardt of Reedport were callers at the T. A. Richmond home Monday.

June Ford and Mrs. John Bernhardt were luncheon guests at the George Richmond home Tuesday, and called on Mrs. Tom Richmond before returning to Reedport.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Margaret Glover and John Leach were united in marriage. Both have lived many years in Lower Umpqua, but Mrs. Leach has recently made her home in Forks, and came from there last week. The happy couple will live in Gardiner.

Mesdames M. Dolan and E. Abbott attended the meeting of the Casad club at the home of Mrs. Dave Roberts on Smith River.

Chester Chim made a business trip to Portland Sunday, returning Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Perkins returned Saturday from a visit of a few weeks with her son Clifford and family at Piedmont, California.

Mrs. Mary and Miss Margaret Sagaberd were called to Roseburg Friday evening by the illness of Mrs. Sagaberd's father, Mr. Luper, who returned Sunday with Lorraine Adams, who accompanied them, and Mrs. Sagaberd remained with her parents.

RIDDLE

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Ryan left Sunday morning for southern California where they will remain for several months in the hope of benefiting Mr. Ryan's health.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Clifford, who had been spending a vacation in California, stopped here last Friday for a few days' visit with Mrs. Clifford's aunt, Mrs. Hulot Ash, and other relatives. They returned to their home at Portland Sunday.

A. H. Hoefler and family, who have resided on the farm belonging to Mrs. Hattie Nichols for the past three years, have moved to Myrtle Creek to reside. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols Walker have moved to the Nichols farm.

Mrs. J. M. Cornutt, who has been quite ill, is reported to be improving slowly.

Mrs. Anna Mills acted as installing officer for the Rebekahs and Mrs. Arney as marshal, installing the following: Mrs. Lillian Hall, N. G.; Mrs. Ida Burgoyne, V. G.; Oma Kellar, secretary; and Lora Riddle, treasurer.

Mrs. Bertell Ford and small son Dickie, who have been visiting here for the past six weeks, left Sunday for their home at Lindsay, California.

Mrs. Clyde Catching of Roseburg visited relatives here Friday.

Ralph Ball and son Sammy of Portland were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ball.

Mrs. Milton Acker and infant daughter, Leona Joyce, were dismissed from the hospital at Roseburg Sunday and returned to their home here.

Representative and Mrs. B. F. Nichols left Saturday for Salem where Mr. Nichols will be in attendance at the Oregon legislature for the next forty days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cutsforth and children motored down from Portland Friday and spent the week-end visiting relatives here.

W. W. O'Connor arrived here from California last week and will spend the remainder of the winter at the J. B. DeVore home.

Mrs. George Frater of Longview, Wash., and Mrs. Charles Stauffer of Taft, Calif., are spending several weeks at their old home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stutler accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Jim Brunchack, departed Friday for Oxnard, Calif., where they will visit for a few weeks.

GLIDE

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
GLIDE, Jan. 16 — Plans for immediate improvement work on the North Umpqua camp ground sponsored by Glide school, were discussed at the regular grange meeting held January 10. The annual community fair was also discussed. The grange is sponsoring a scout troop at Glide and is arranging an entertainment and feed for the scouts in the near future.

A great improvement has been made in front of the Glide school building by grading the widened portion of the road in front of the entrance. This has previously been very muddy and has made it difficult and disagreeable for persons entering the school grounds from the road.

TRADE

Sheep, real estate, or cattle acceptable in trade for our used cars. J. O. Newland and Son, 114 So. Stephens St.—Adv.

LADIES OF CASAD CLUB, SMITH RIVER, INSTALL OFFICERS

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
SMITH RIVER, Jan. 16 — The Casad club met Wednesday with Mrs. Dave Roberts for the first meeting of the year. The new officers took over their duties. They are: Mrs. Walter Pyritz, president; Mrs. Ernest Koepke, secretary. A delicious luncheon was served at noon to some 20 members. Hostess prize fell to Mrs. Pyritz, and kid prize to Colleen Abbott of Gardiner.

ELKTON

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
ELKTON, Jan. 15 — Lena De Gnath spent the week-end in Elkton visiting friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Levenhagen were in Elkton Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Solomon were in Elkton Sunday.

Harry Burehard was in Elkton Saturday looking after business matters.

Anthony Wentz was buried at Elkton Sunday. The funeral services were held at the home. Mr. Wentz has been a resident of this vicinity for many years.

Mrs. H. B. Cox returned Sunday to her home at Lakeside. The Modern Woodmen held lodge Saturday night. At seven o'clock the annual supper for their families was served and was very much enjoyed.

Frank Werth is at Elkton visiting.

Dayton Minter of Kellogg was in town Monday evening.

Bill Edwards was in Elkton on Monday looking after business affairs.

A. Wilson of Drain was in Elkton Monday.

Mrs. V. Daniel left Monday for La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Haines motored to Lakeside Sunday. Mr. Haines is staying for a few days, while Mrs. Haines came back the same day.

The Epworth League held a cabinet meeting at the home of Iris Haines Monday evening. They discussed ways and means of making the League more active.

GARDINER LITERARY CLUB HOLDS MEETING

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
GARDINER, Jan. 16 — The Gardiner Literary club met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Janelle, Friday afternoon. Members responded to roll call with current events. Miss Alice Walker presented a study of the life and works of Sir Henry Lauder, following which the hostess served refreshments to Mrs. M. Melvin, Mrs. A. P. Smith, Mrs. J. W. Ford, Mrs. George Perkins, Mrs. Henry Sagaberd, Miss Margaret Sagaberd, Misses Florette Janelle and Alice Walker.

LEGIONNAIRES AND AUXILIARY MEMBERS

We must know immediately how many cars are available for the trip to Canyonville Tuesday, January 20, for the joint meeting with

DR. NERBAS

DENTIST

Painless Extraction
Gas When Desired
Pyorrhea Treated

Phone 488 Masonic Bldg.

Roseburg Undertaking Co.

Established 1901

M. E. RITTER, Manager

Founded and Maintained on Efficient Service and Courtesy

Ambulance Service

Phone 284

Oak and Kane Sts.

Licensed Lady

Umbalmer

Never before at this season of the year has there been such quantities of fresh local produce on the market. See the displays at the Mac Marr Stores. Bunch vegetables as well as stacks of bulk turnips, carrots, rutabagas, beets and parsnips. These items are all fresh, sweet and tender. For the sake of economy try buying vegetables in bulk.

SUTHERLIN

ROSEBURG

Prices Effective Saturday and Monday, Jan. 17-19

CRISCO

Pure Vegetable, 3 lbs.

77c

OLEO

Swift's Clipper Nut 3 lbs.

35c

SALMON

Pink, Excellent for Croquettes, 3 cans

39c

BEANS

Red or White, 4 lbs.

25c

PANCAKE FLOUR

MacMarr, 2 1/2 lb. pkg.

19c

FLOUR

MacMarr Guaranteed Hard Wheat.
49 lb. sack $1.29, 4 sacks

$5

COFFEE

MacMarr Blend	Economy Blend
1 lb. 35c	1 lb. 27c
3 lbs. $1.00	3 lbs. 79c

PRODUCE SPECIALS

Bananas Extra Fine, 5 lbs.	23c
Oranges Sunkist 252's, 2 dozen	39c
Turnips Bulk, 5 lbs.	13c

Store No. 365 Cass and Stephens, has a few fancy Eastern Cranberries.

MEAT SPECIALS

Bacon Eastern Light, lb.	29c
Cottages Lots of Lean, lb.	29c
Squares Morell's, lb.	20c
Salt Side Lb.	20c

$5.00 Orders delivered free; small orders 10c, sugar excepted.

Economy Grocery

344 N. Jackson

O. L. JOHNSON

Phone 63

LOCALLY OWNED

Specials Saturday and Monday

PICKETT FLOUR Hard Wheat, highest quality, 49 lb. sack	ROYAL CLUB COFFEE Vacuum Packed, 1 lb. tin
$1.49	38c
White Star Tuna Half pound tins, 2 for	Royal Baking Powder 12-oz. tin
43c	36c
FELS NAPHTHA SOAP 3 for	DATES 2 for
18c	19c
Clorox Pint Bottles	Salted Peanuts 2 lbs. for
11c	27c
ROLLED OATS 10 lb. bag	Canned Corn White or Yellow No. 2 tins, 3 for
39c	37c
	SUGAR Pure cane, 8 lbs. for 46c