DOCTORS ASKED FOR BOWLES WITNESS

PORTLAND, Jan. 20.—Defense attorneys for Nelson C. Bowles, millionaire, and Irma Loucks, charged with the murder of Mrs. Leone Bowles, today petitioned the court to appoint three physicians to investigate the injuries suffered by Mrs. H. W. Howard, state witness, in two mysterious attacks. The petition was filed as court opened to resume arguments on motions to quash first degree murder indictments against the capitalist and his former secretary, Mrs. Bowles was stabbed to death by Mrs. H. W. Howard, state witness, in two mysterious attacks. The two declare she killed herself.

Mrs. Howard was attacked last Thursday in her home and suffered knife wounds in her chest and injuries to her back and head. In a previous attack she was kicked and beaten and threatened with death if she testified in the case, she said.

The district attorney asked the court not to consider such a motion until the matter now before the judge is disposed of. The court agreed.

George Burchard, Ernest Voorhes and T. F. Hurd, of Lookingglass, were business visitors in this city yesterday.
