NEGATIVE MORALS INSUFFICIENT TO SAVE SOUL—LOWRY

REVIVAL ANNOUNCEMENTS Tonight 7:30—Subject, "The One Thing Needful." Sunday 10:50—"The Growing Christian." 2:30—meeting at the armory for men only, subject, "The Devil's Boomerangs"; 2:30, meeting for women at Presbyterian church. Miss Slough will speak; 6:00, Union Young People's service. 7:30, closing service, subject, "Almost But Lost."

(Revival Editor.) With the five services announced above the union revival campaign will be brought to a close tomorrow. In the morning service Dr. Lowry will direct his message more to the new converts and young Christians, showing them how to make a success of the Christian life. In announcing the meeting and subject for men and boys, he said that this had often proven to be the greatest service of the whole campaign. Miss Slough, whose work has been especially appreciated, will again speak to the women and girls Sunday afternoon. At the special request of the young people, another service is being held for them, although it will be necessary to have the service at six o'clock on account of the service starting earlier at the armory in the evening.

It has been announced a number of times that an offering will be taken at all the services on Sunday for the Moody Bible Institute. Envelopes will be distributed and the people are asked to contribute to the support of this great inter-denominational work. The evangelistic party came to Roseburg under the auspices of the Moody Institute and for that reason there will be no offering taken for the evangelist. Dr. Lowry announced that the present student body of the institute represents over thirty different denominations. There has never been any tuition charges to the students and this work is supported by the individual gifts of the people of the various churches. The institute is called the "West Point of Christian Service," being the largest training school for Christian workers in the world today.

Dr. Lowry began his message last night by saying, "My text for this evening is a question, more it is an unanswerable question. If you should go to the wisest lawyer in Oregon, one who knows how to codify the law and interpret it for the supreme court, and put to him the question of my text, he would turn away unable to give you an answer. You might go to the wisest physician in this country, a man who knows his drugs and how to prescribe them so as to produce marvelous cures and put to him the question of my text and it would still be unanswered. If it were possible for you to go to the world of lost souls and put to them the question of this text they would not be able to answer it."

Though an angel should wing his way from heaven to earth and you put to him the question of this text, he would not be able to answer. "Oh," you say, "that is a paradox. That is impossible!" Listen, then, to my text, Heb. 2:3: "How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation?" There is no escape for the man who neglects, therefore there is no answer to this question. There are many ways by which men neglect salvation, but there is no escape for the man that does it. To be neglecting salvation, there need be no grave offense against morality, we have many good people in the world, but what are they good for? You say they don't drink, they don't swear, they do not gamble, they do not sidestep their marriage vows, and they do not desecrate the Sabbath day.

Yes, they are good people, but their goodness is a negative goodness. Negative goodness never saved a soul, and more it never will. There must be something positive. It is negative goodness which would make a Christian Loeb this night is the best Christian in Roseburg. It never cursed or swore or got drunk since it was made, it never committed a sin in all its existence. Did you ever notice that, according to the teachings of Jesus Christ, the sentence of eternal damnation will be passed because of what men failed to do rather than what they did? "In as much as ye did it not." What then do you need to do to be lost? Just do what many of you fellows in Roseburg are doing now, that is, do nothing, and you will as certainly wake up among the lost one of these days as that you exist. It is procrastination that is killing the lost world. "Boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what a day bringeth forth." Again God says, "Come now and let us reason together. It is now, with God. There is no promise for tomorrow."

In the context of this find Paul's argument simply this: that if those blocks, improved real estate or for building purposes. The total cost of our loans is lower than any like organization doing business in the state. We invite comparison. EMPQUA SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION, Douglas Abstract building.

POEM FOR THE DAY By LOUIS ALBERT BANKS

TRAINING YOUTH TO FLY Here is an interesting story from England: "Appropriately named by Sir Charles Wakefield the 'Youth of Britain' a big biplane airplane started on May 15, with Sir Alan Cobham as pilot, on a tour of British towns for the purpose of awakening 'air-mindedness' among the population."

But as I pondered on this tale Of children on the skyline trail, My mind was off in fairy dreams, Was revelling on in loving schemes, To teach all childhood how to fly To search the wonders of the sky Until a new high-minded zone Gave life a richer, sweeter tone.
