W. H. JENKINS WILL RETIRE FROM S. P.

After 43 years of service with the passenger traffic department of the Southern Pacific railroad, all but two years of which have been spent in Oregon, W. H. Jenkins, traveling passenger agent, will voluntarily retire on pension, February 1, according to word received at local S. P. offices today. As Jenkins' railroad service dates back to February 5, 1888, when he started to work with the Oregon & California railroad which was later taken over by the Southern Pacific. With the exception of two years, 1896-98, spent at the general offices in San Francisco, all of his service has been in Oregon with Portland as headquarters. As a traveling passenger agent he visited this city many times and has a large circle of local friends who will be interested in news of his retirement. Jenkins will be 70 years old August 2nd.

Attractions AT THE MOVIES

INDIAN - Today and Thursday, "Oh, for a Man!" Friday and Saturday, "Africa Speaks."

Coming here preceded by the most glowing praise from every town in which it has been shown, "Oh, for a Man!" at the Indian theatre today, promises to delight and entertain local audiences to a greater degree than any picture which has been shown in many months.

Jeannette MacDonald, who rose to cinema fame as co-star with Chevalier in "The Love Parade," is co-starring this time with Reginald Denny and the combination is even more impressive. The story is that of a temperamental prima donna and a most successful one who is courted by all men but has no time for any of them. She has her own ideas of the sort of a man she could love and never does find her ideal until a burglar enters her apartment in the dead of the night to rob her of her jewels. The man's physique attracts her, she engages him in conversation, learns that he has ambitions to become a singer, engages a teacher for him and eventually abandons her own successful career to marry him.

She was re-elected yesterday at the first session of a two-day conference. The meeting was opened by Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner. The Rev. H. R. White, rector of St. Mary's church, Eugene, preached the convention sermon. Other officers elected included the following heads of deaneries of the state: Northern, Mrs. Joan Tait, Astoria; central, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Salem; southwestern, Mrs. W. E. Cooper, Marshfield; southwestern, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Roseburg.

PROGRAM GIVEN BY CHURCHES AT SUTHERLIN SUNDAY

(News-Review Douglas County Special) SUTHERLIN, Jan. 28.—Music lovers of Sutherland filled the Methodist church to capacity Sunday evening to hear a sacred concert under the auspices of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches. Waldo Davis on the chimes, accompanied by his son Herschel Davis on the piano, rendered several groups of familiar sacred songs and selections which were greatly enjoyed. The evening's program was interspersed by local talent; vocal solo by Miss Margaret Nell, vocal duet by Misses Sloan and Weinman, male quartette by Messrs. The Olson, Higgenbottom and Rethwell.

RAT'S NEST YIELDS STOLEN BUTTONS

(Associated Press Leased Wire) MARSHFIELD, Ore., Jan. 28.—The best laid plans of rats, as well as mice, go "haywire" sometimes. For weeks loggers in a Blue Ridge camp were provoked and not a little embarrassed by the disappearance of buttons from trousers, shirts and coats. They sought in vain for a solution of the mystery. Until one logger discovered a rat's nest built in the toe of
