POEM FOR THE DAY

By LOUIS ALBERT BANKS

THE HUMAN TOUCH

The Rev. G. A. Studdert Kennedy says: "There is in this country (England) a wide and socially dangerous gulf between Mean Street and Prosperity Crescent, and you cannot build a paper bridge across it. Every family in Prosperity Crescent ought to have a pal or two in Mean Street—a pal, mind, not a patronized charity pensioner—and all Prosperity children ought to know what life down there is like."

The human touch is what we need—
The social world needs just that seed;
No mere philosophy will do—
We need to catch the blood-red hue
That shows in only fellowship.
That comes with tender friendly grip;
"Thy love can make it clear—
Seen in the life of one who's dear.

Mere routine charity is bunk—
For social worth a useless junk;
'Tis not by hearsay we can learn
The hearts of weaker men to turn
To thoughts of love and grateful thanks,
Enlist them in high service ranks
To help to swell the common good
And bind the world in neighborhood.

Ah, no, it takes a brother's hand
To bind men in a friendly band;
We must through actual presence find
The attitude of others' mind,
Must feel the throbbing of each heart
If we would gain that sentient art
To make them feel that in our blood
Our sympathy's a bursting bud.

Oh, for a brotherhood like this!—
That like a lover's tender kiss
Will thrill through all our social soul
And make us human, friendly, whole.
Let's go abroad with laughing face,
With all a brother's friendly grace,
Count every man we meet a pard—
As neighbor, close, in our next yard.

VARMIN'T HUNT TO START AT ONCE IN CAMAS VALLEY

(News-Review Douglas County Special)

CAMAS VALLEY, Jan. 30.—Government Hunter John Ulan of Canyonville arrived in Camas Valley this morning to make arrangements for cougar and coyote hunting next week.

He is putting out draw bait ahead of the main hunt. Mr. Ulan has been working in Olalla, Tennile and Reston for a few days prior to his visit here this morning. He will return to Days Creek this afternoon where he has been hunting during the last few weeks.

Mr. Ulan wishes to warn all owners of dogs to take care that their dogs do not run loose now as he has placed coyote poison in the Bennett Rock country, and also around the Aubin place between Olalla and Camas Valley.

Mr. Ulan has been hunting for the government around the Days Creek, Riddle, and Canyonville country for the past two years. Just within the last few weeks he has had Tennile, Olalla, Reston and Camas Valley added to his former districts.
