

COMMITTEE HEADS ARE SELECTED FOR REEDSPORT C. OF C.

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
REEDSPORT, Feb. 5.—Reedsport chamber of commerce held a meeting of organization Tuesday afternoon in the chamber of commerce rooms, R. J. Hubbard, president, W. A. Penner was appointed director in the place of Karl Chapman, who has moved from Reedsport. The following heads of bureaus were appointed by the president: Rivers and harbors, O. H. Hinsdale; traffic, L. J. Weldner; industry, S. D. Chapin; commercial fishing, Jess Williams; legislative, W. G. Benson; clinic, Dr. C. Billington; roads, W. A. Lovelace; fish and game, Frank Taylor; aviation, Robin Reed; commercial affairs, Mrs. A. M. Purkerson; bureaus of agriculture and publicity were left open.

The matter of inviting farmers to become members of the chamber of commerce without payment of a fee was discussed and left for future decision. A letter was read from the Marshfield chamber of commerce urging the local chamber to endorse Senator Brigham's bill to regulate the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine. Favorable action was taken on the communication.

OAKLAND

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
OAKLAND, Feb. 4.—T. B. Garrison, president of E. G. Young & Co. land returning Tuesday.

John Reeves, of Union, Oregon, spent a few hours in Oakland Tuesday visiting friends. Mr. Reeves, who is a Spanish war veteran, was on his way to Roseburg to visit friends in the Soldiers' home.

Miss Clara Engebretsen, county health nurse for the north end of the county, inspected the Oakland public school Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Fortin and their daughter, Mrs. Frank Sparks, and her infant daughter spent Wednesday in Eugene visiting and shopping.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company has a crew of men in Oakland improving equipment. Many poles have either been "stubbed" or replaced not only making an improvement in efficiency but also in looks.

William F. Sturges, of Salem, and Doctor Carolyn Underhill were quietly married in Roseburg Saturday. Doctor Underhill has conducted dental office here for several months, having moved here from Seio, Oregon.

H. W. Richardson, who has charge of the Red Cross drive in this section, reports almost 500 collected. While none of the donors were especially large, there was a general desire to assist the suffering persons in the drought-stricken area.

The Misses Helen DeVore and Isabelle Harvey and Rev. Thomas Robinson assisted Mr. Richardson in this work.

Teams representing the Yoncalla high school and the Oakland high school will meet in a game of basketball on the local gymnasium floor Friday evening. A close and exciting game is expected as the teams are supposed to be very evenly matched.

TEN-ROOM HOUSE IS STARTED AT AZALEA

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
AZALEA, Feb. 5.—Mrs. Margaret Brady is having a large house built on her ranch located across Cow Creek from the Azalea post-office. It will be a two-story building 26x34 feet and have ten major rooms. The foundation will be of concrete with a full cement basement.

Peter Smith is doing the carpenter work.

Douglas County Society News

Organizations, Social and Club Happenings From All Sections of the County as Reported by Community Editors.

MYRTLE CREEK.—The gold-en jubilee anniversary celebrating the 50th birthday of Christian Endeavor was fittingly observed at the local Christian church Sunday night. An appropriate program led by Mrs. Thomas Ireland was given and followed by a sermon by Rev. G. A. Taggart of the Congregational church of which church Dr. Francis E. Clark, the founder of the Christian Endeavor movement, was a pastor. The church was beautifully decorated and a large birthday cake trimmed with 50 candles was thoroughly enjoyed by the members of the society and their guests after the services of the evening.

OAKLAND.—The Tuesday Afternoon Card club was entertained at its last meeting by Mrs. H. W. Fair at her residence on Oak street. The usual pastime of progressive five hundred was enjoyed followed by dainty refreshments. Mrs. J. R. Lasswell was high point winner with Mrs. George Hall securing second honors. Members present were Mrs. F. Fortin, Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. J. R. Lasswell, Mrs. Helen Laverne, Mrs. B. F. Burnett, Mrs. C. S. Shaw, Mrs. C. L. Chenoweth, Mrs. H. W. Richardson, Mrs. Isaac Flanary, Miss Laura Pinkston and the hostess, Mrs. R. M. Bestal and Mrs. J. F. Stafford were invited guests of the club. Mrs. George Hall will entertain the club at the next meeting.

NORTH MYRTLE CREEK.—Miss Katherine Jacoby, teacher of the Cedar Grove school, was given a surprise birthday dinner at the schoolhouse by the pupils and mothers Thursday. The dinner was served by the mothers at 12:30 o'clock. Miss Jacoby was presented with a friendship pillow. Those present were Mrs. May Jackson, Mrs. M. Rundell, Mrs. Leonard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Halbert, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin, Mrs. Jennie Buell, Elmer Halbert and Mrs. George Daniel.

REEDSPORT.—Following the dance Saturday evening a small party of young people enjoyed a waffle supper at the home of Mrs. L. E. Patterson. Those present were Mrs. Ben Baldrige and brother, Mickey Rose, Misses Willa Mathers, Jean Crawford, Thelma Rickor, Joannita Harrison and Messrs. Harold and Carl Esselstrom, Carl Roak, Carl Keating and Paul Goddard.

REEDSPORT.—Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Walker entertained a small circle of intimate friends Saturday evening, the occasion being the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Niece. Bridge was enjoyed, prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Niece. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lilleho, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyster, Mr. and Mrs. George McCulloch of North Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Niece and the host and hostess. Delicious refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Niece departed Sunday for Springfield, where they will visit Mr. Niece's parents a few days before beginning work on the highway near Hedder.

REEDSPORT.—Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pettit were hosts Thursday evening at dinner to the teachers of the local school. After dinner, the guests spent the evening singing and conversing. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. B. Borrevik, Mrs. Orval Goddard, Mrs. Ralph Germond, Mrs. Flora Sagaberd, Misses Lelah Parks, Kathryn Langworthy, Fay Lite, Irma Middleton, Selma Toniz, Edythe Johnson, Mollie Easley, Alice Owen and the host and hostess.

Phone your news items to the News-Review—telephone 135.

Crazy Crystals

A Mineral Water Treatment

Especially to those who are suffering from such chronic ailments as CONSTIPATION, COLIC, RHEUMATISM, KIDNEY and BLADDER TROUBLE, DIABETES, AUTOINTOXICATION and STOMACH TROUBLE.

Crazy Water also has a powerful tendency toward the prevention of cystitis, urethritis, cirrhosis of the liver, chronic metritis, and is exceptionally interesting in the treatment of mellitus, arthritis, acidosis, and for the prevention of gravel and calculous concretion in the bladder and gall duct.

The palatability of Crazy Water is inducive to the intake of liberal quantities.

Drink a glass of hot Crazy Water every morning and pull yourself up to a high health level.

A pound box of Crazy Crystals represents 15 gallons of the natural Crazy Mineral Water and sells for $1.50.

RED CROSS PHARMACY

REEDSPORT CITY COUNCIL HOLDS MONTHLY MEET

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
REEDSPORT, Feb. 5.—The city council met Monday evening for their regular monthly session.

Mayor Buck presiding, and Councilmen Foster, West, Reeves, Burton, Attorney Benson, Treasurer Cairns, Recorder Chapin and City Marshal Roak present, in addition to several visitors.

Following the routine business, the recorder read a communication from R. J. Hubbard setting forth the terms on which he would permit the city to use a certain spot on his property as a dumping ground for garbage. The city would agree to maintain a road to the spot, to see that all garbage was dumped in the same place, and to assume all responsibility for fire or other complications. No charge was made for the use of the property.

Petitions for pool hall licenses were presented by Johnson Brothers and E. L. Lord, and both were granted.

Attorney Benson sketched the bills pending in the legislature, explaining those which pertained to small towns.

REEDSPORT.—After some discussion concerning the redemption of houses to which the city had acquired title through foreclosure of mortgage the council adjourned.

REEDSPORT

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
REEDSPORT, Feb. 5.—C. C. Clarke received word Sunday of the sudden death of his son in Portland and he at once departed for that city. Details of the son's death were not learned.

R. J. Hubbard arrived in town Monday from Portland where he has been on business for the past few weeks.

Miss Nadine Caswell and Mrs. Suzanne Honevman of Portland motored to Reedsport Wednesday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Caswell. They returned to Portland Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyster came down Saturday afternoon from Florence, where Mr. Lyster is employed on the new high school. He returned to his work Sunday evening and Mrs. Lyster went back Tuesday.

Mrs. Ralph Germond and Miss Alice Walker were Marshfield visitors Saturday.

AZALEA

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
AZALEA, Feb. 5.—John and Ted Arzner of Riddle were over Thursday and ordered lumber from one of the local mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Healy of Roseburg made a business trip here Thursday.

Edgar Duncan of Powers visited with his niece, Mrs. Bill Jantzer, Wednesday and Thursday. He left Thursday afternoon for Orland, California, where he will spend a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. Frank Johns.

Gary Swan and son Wayne of Lookingglass visited relatives here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Jantzer attended to business matters in Roseburg Wednesday.

G. Skellon, state highway commissioner, and Grant Pass, made a business trip to the George L. Jantzer Lumber company Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adkins, recently of Grants Pass, who have leased the Neil Hamilton place, on the highway 3 miles north of Glendale, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Steve Small over Sunday.

Joe Blanchard returned to Salem, Tuesday, to resume his studies at Willamette university, after visiting with his folks here during the mid-year vacation.

Frank Jantzer Sr. returned from his prospecting trip at Persim, Jackson county, the last of the week.

Belvin Curtis of Blachley, Lane county, drove down to Azalea to visit his father, Lester Curtis, last week, who returned to Blachley with his son on Saturday to spend the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pickett's house guests over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Pickett and sons Ernest, Bible and Lloyd. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Jenks and son Pat of McKenzie Bridge. Mr. Pickett returned with them Sunday evening and will have several weeks employment doing carpenter work.

Dan Clare made a business trip to Canby Valley on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCabe spent Sunday at Myrtle Creek visiting Mrs. McCabe's father, Jack Wilson, who isn't feeling very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bollenbaugh and four children of Creswell are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rigby.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Clare are leaving in a few days for Sacramento, California, for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fair shopped at Myrtle Creek Saturday.

Miss Betty Tripp have been quite ill with a severe cold and unable to attend school for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Niederhauser, Stouts' creek ranchers, shopped and visited friends at Myrtle Creek, Tuesday.

The road crew is widening the had turn in the road by the Ran Rust place this week.

Roy Howard of Klamath Falls, who is visiting his sister, Mrs. Oscar Head, is quite ill at her home here.

Rollin Johns of Medford made a brief visit with his folks Sunday.

REEDSPORT

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
REEDSPORT, Feb. 5.—Summer weather prevailing Sunday at the beach at Winchester Bay was visited by many Reedsport citizens who took advantage of the new highway to the lighthouse.

Among them were Jane Ford and Carmen Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Traylor and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lou Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bennet and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bennet and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford and daughter Jean, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Clark, motored to Sunset bay, Shore Acres, and after lunch extended their drive to include Coquille. They saw two cars in the ditch, one just east of Empire, which had turned completely over, wheels up, having skidded when a rear tire blew out, and the other on a slippery piece of road west of Charleston, which had slipped off the side of the road and was right side up in a ditch.

AZALEA FARMERS IMPROVE PLACES

AZALEA, Feb. 5.—During this lovely springlike weather several people are making general improvements about their places. J. B. Pickett has torn down several of the old camp houses on his property that housed his crew when his sawmill was in operation. He has cleared the land near and built quite a bit of fence. He is planning on moving his residence several hundred feet up the road from its present location, in the near future.

Ray Clothier of the Rosehill ranch has grubbed out his old apple orchard and burned it. He has also cleared some land and is building new fence.

Harrison Dickey, who lives on the ranch just below the Rosehill place, is making a considerable amount of general improvements also.

Ed and Leland Johns are cleaning out their 5-mile irrigation ditch and building new flumes in several places.

SOUTH DEER CREEK

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
SOUTH DEER CREEK, Feb. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wiggins of Salem have been visiting with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Kelley, and also her brothers, Dee and Roy Kelley, of South Deer creek.

Miss Rose Whitsett of Portland is spending a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Melson. She was called here by the death of her brother, S. D. Whitsett, of Drew.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Findlay Jr., of Roseburg are spending a few days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blood, of South Deer creek.

Butter Builds Better Bodies

That's why Miss Virginia Randolph, cooking authority, uses plenty of it!

She knows that pure, genuine dairy foods rank at the top in food values. Butter's vitamins are vital for the whole family.

On the table or in cooking—butter is equally valuable. But be sure of its quality... follow Miss Randolph's expert example and buy Mel-O-Maid, home-produced and highest-grade!

DOUGLAS COUNTY
CREAMERY

THEY HAD TO HAVE SALT...

Used Exclusively at the News-Review
Cooking School.

LESLIE SALT
PLAIN OR SALT IODIZED

TOMORROW

Every Housewife in Roseburg and Vicinity
Should Attend the News-Review Cooking School
It is the Last Day

The last day is always the best. All the work that has been shown during the other days will be drawn to a successful conclusion. If you have missed the first two programs of this successful school be sure not to miss the last day. Remember that every day is complete in itself. Learn about Electric Cookery—how you can operate your range at less cost—more successfully. Knowing how to cook with electricity is a science and brings you more delicious meals with less effort. The time is from 2 to 4 p. m. at the Roseburg Armory.

YOUR LAST CHANCE
Everyone Invited

THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY

"Your Partners in Progress"

PIGGLY WIGGLY

Wednesday-Thursday-Friday

Happy Breakfasts, Smiling Lunches, Blithesome Dinners are made such by ALL GOLD FRUITS used by Miss Virginia Randolph in her "Happy Kitchen." See these fine fruits demonstrated at the ROSEBURG NEWS-REVIEW FREE COOKING SCHOOL this week.

Pineapple "All Gold," rich Yellow Slices. No. 2 size CAN 21c

Fruit Salad "All Gold," Tall Can CAN 23c

Peaches "All Gold," Mammoth Cling Peaches LARGE CAN 23c

Pears "All Gold," Fancy Bartlett Pears LARGE CAN 25c

Chocolate Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate 1 POUND CAN 33c

Coffee Schilling's Rich Fragrant Coffee 1 POUND CAN 38c

FREE with each can a 4-oz. bottle of Schilling's prepared mustard.

Baking Pdr SCHILLING'S 12 oz. Can 39c 16 oz. Can 43c

FREE with each can a 2-oz. can of Schilling's cinnamon.

Tea Schilling's Vacuum Sealed, Green or Black 1/4-LB. TIN 25c

FREE with each can one 1-oz. bottle Schilling's vanilla.

Milk Armour's 2 TALL CANS 15c

Corn Custer's Golden Bantam Corn CAN 12c