Last of Series of Recitals Enjoyed at Heinline Home

A very enjoyable musical tea last Sunday closed the series of five given on Sunday afternoons at the home of Mrs. C. S. Heinline during which groups of students have been presented in varied programs consisting of compositions both classic and modern. Altogether, fifty-five students have played during the season and have demonstrated a well developed technique, poise and intelligent interpretation, always pleasing an appreciative audience of parents and friends.

Last Sunday Mrs. Heinline was assisted by Mrs. T. Ness and Mrs. Alva Wetherell, who presided over the prettily decorated dining room. Miss Alva Neely and Miss Helen Wetherell acted as assistants. Mrs. H. L. Lander received the guests. The program was greatly enhanced by two groups of vocal selections by Leroy Hiatt. Students playing were Claribel Stephenson, Patricia McClintock, Bernadine Prince, Kathryn Busenbark, Audrey Richard, Virginia Ness, Alice Godey, Anna May Urrah, Josephine Cachelin and Wilma Feldkamp, Victoria Newport, Corinne and Julia Perkins, Dale Borge, Lois Ann Whipple and Gertrude Adams played again although they had appeared in a previous program.

Valentine Dinner Given at Heinline Home Friday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline entertained with one of the loveliest Valentine parties of the past week. A seven o'clock turkey dinner was served at a table attractively arranged. Hearts hung from the chandelier over the table and various sized hearts were used for table dummies. The heart shape was carried out in every course served. Tiny candle red hearts outlined the Cyclamen and trailing center of the table and tall lighted red tapers completed the setting.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Rev. and Mrs. Perry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Austin, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. S. E. Collier and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline.

Two Comedies Coming Up

Jack Oakie and Lillian Roth in a scene from the Paramount comedy "Sea Legs."

"AMERICA'S Joy-Friend," Jack Oakie, has uncorked another pan of laugh moments in his latest starring role, "Sea Legs," the Sunday feature at the Indian theatre. And in addition to the inevitable Jack, hilarity is enhanced by the presence in the cast of "Sea Legs" of round Eugene Pallette and the "kibitzer" Harry Green.

These three, any one of whom can provide enough laughs to last a month, are joined by beautiful Lillian Roth, whose foibles in "The Love Parade," "Honey" and "Animal Crackers" lifted her to the front rank of screen comedienne. The love moments that arise between the lively Lillian and the glib Jack are riotous of roars. And nearly all the action takes place on the lone battleship of a mythical Mediterranean republic.

There are gobs and gobs, and gobs of love and laughter in "Sea Legs," with Oakie as a shaggy American sailor, impressed into the service of the tiny but ambitious Latin principality. Oakie, unwillingly, is doing service for a young millionaire who has paid his lawyer, Harry Green, to aid him avoid his compulsory period of naval service. When Oakie discovers the ruse that has set him to scrubbing decks and peeling potatoes under a legion of gold-braided officers, he is indignantly furious, but, when he discovers that his assumed name allows him unlimited credit on the millionaire's bank account, and that the captain's pretty daughter, Lillian Roth, looks with favor on his American accent, he begins to take an interest in life.

Jack Oakie, himself has a laugh that "Sea Legs" has more laughs per foot of picture and sound track than "Sweetie," "Let's Go Native,"

"The Social Lion," or any of his other hits.

Roseburg Women's Club Has Silver Tea for Opening of Club Rooms

A delightful Silver Tea for the benefit of the Scholarship Loan Fund was held at the clubrooms of the Roseburg Women's club members on last Saturday afternoon under the general supervision of Mrs. A. C. Marsters, assisted by Mrs. Washington Hughes, chairman of the entertainment committee, and Mrs. Foster Butler, chairman of the decoration committee. The clubrooms were attractive in a green and gold color scheme. The acacia bouquets were furnished by Mrs. S. P. Bolinger of Deer creek, and the narcissus bouquets were the compliments of Mrs. W. C. Winston of Winston.

Mrs. William Bell and Mrs. Louis Kohlman poured during the early afternoon and Mrs. W. E. Ott and Mrs. C. H. Bailey poured during the late afternoon hours.

A discourse on the Scholarship Loan Fund was given by Mrs. William Bell, followed by a number of plans presented by the following: Miss Patricia McClintock, Miss Lois Ann Whipple, Miss Gay Buhar, Miss Ethola Kinney, Miss Alva Neely, Miss Gertrude Adams, Miss Helen Wetherell and Miss Josephine Cachelin. A piano and orchestra band directed by Miss Virginia Russell and Miss Marjorie Ott.

The program was greatly enjoyed by the members and guests of the club. The afternoon tea also marked the opening of the club rooms after the completion of its recent remodeling.

Country Club Valentine Dance Is Delightful Affair of Friday Night

One of the most delightful Valentine affairs of the season was the Roseburg Country Club dance held in the club house Friday evening. A large attendance of members were present and a most enjoyable time had. Mrs. Ivan Picketts, general chairman of the affair, managed the dance in a most delightful and charming manner. The club house was unusually beautiful. Hearts and red crepe paper were used to decorate the lights and walls. The committee in charge of the decorations included Mrs. Edward Kohlman, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. T. G. Watson, Mrs. Phil Harth and Mrs. W. E. Ott.

A long table was placed at one end of the long hall. Large bouquets of red flowers were arranged at each end of the table and a buffet lunch was served by Mrs. A. A. Richard, chairman. Mrs. J. M. Judd and Mrs. William Jenkins, Mrs. Elsie Aggie and Mrs. Mary Parks were the members present.

A pot-luck dinner was served during the noon hour, after which several hours were spent tying a quilt.

CHARLEY'S AUNT IS LAUGH SPECIAL

Just as was predicted the sound version of "Charley's Aunt" is much funnier than the old silent picture in which Sid Chaplin made the world do some hearty laughing. Charles Ruggles is cast in the best role of his career as the make-believe old aunt from Brazil, "where the nuts come from."

Everyone knows the plot of this comedy—how two Oxford students persuade their friend (Ruggles) to assume the role of an aunt of one of them in order that they may entertain their girl friends. In the mix-up that follows two men fall in love with Ruggles and he becomes "engaged" to one of them about the time the real aunt reveals her identity.

There never was a film with more laughs per foot than this, as was evidenced by the audience which roared through the travesty at its opening last night at the Indian theatre. It's on again tonight. Don't fail to see it if you like an evening of laughter.—G. C. R.

MRS. WILLIS RITES SET FOR MONDAY

Funeral services for the late Mrs. W. R. Willis will be held Monday at 2 p. m. from St. George's Episcopal church, according to arrangements announced this morning by M. E. Ritter of the Roseburg Undertaking company, who has charge of the preparations. The service will be conducted by Rev. Perry Smith. Interment will take place in the L. O. O. F. cemetery.
