

GRANGE STARTS WAR ON RODENTS

(News-Review Douglas County Special)
SOUTH DEER CREEK, Feb. 27 — Plans for an organized pest hunt were worked out at a meeting of South Deer Creek Grange Saturday. James Kunish and J. L. Royce were appointed captains. The losing team will provide a supper for the winners after the final count.

The grange went on record by resolution favoring a higher tax on dairy substitutes. The date of March 5 was set as the time for the presentation of a play at South Deer Creek Grange hall, by the cast from Evergreen Grange. Prizes also were made to entertain the Roseburg Kiwanis club.

An interesting program was prepared by the lecturer, William Karcher, consisting of a violin solo by Mrs. Melton, reading, Bee Royce; harmonica solo, J. C. Royce; and a clog dance, George Albans.

A donation of $7.09 was raised for the Red Cross. Carmen Lovelace was the winner in the prize package drawing.

The meeting closed with a short play, "The Unlucky Woman," given by Betty Boyer, Freddie Boyer, Thelma Lovelace and Carmen Lovelace, after which dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.
