SALEM, March 3.—Circuit Judge Gale S. Hill today signed an order dismissing the complaint of the Portland Van & Storage company and some 40 other truck lines of the state against Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state. The complaint involved validity of an act of the 1929 legislature which fixed the license fees for such truck lines. The court recently sustained a demurrer to the complaint. The order of dismissal leaves the 1929 act, as far as this suit is concerned, in the same situation as when it became a law.

KEN WILLIAMS TO PLAY WITH BEAVERS

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
PORTLAND, Ore., March 3.—Thomas L. Turner, president of the Portland club of the Pacific Coast Baseball league, announced today Ken Williams, outfielder, and veteran major leaguer, has signed his 1931 contract and will leave immediately for the San Jose training camp. His home is in Grants Pass.

There are now only two hold-outs on the Beaver list. They are Walter Malls and Ray Keating, both pitchers. Malls is coaching at Santa Clara university in California.

"Of course, it's Schilling's"

Do you believe in the double standard?

Schilling Coffee is for those who will not tolerate "cheapness" in their own homes--and who appreciate the same standard in those who make their coffee. The Schilling roasting room is the only place in America where cheap coffees are not made side by side with good coffee. There is no Schilling double standard--no confusion of quality--for Schilling believes that cheapness is contagious. There are several good coffees--but where is the finest apt to come from?

"Fire, started by defective wiring, gutted our premises and destroyed our equipment and stocks at the outset of our busiest season."

"We were thoroughly covered against fire loss, and prompt settlement by the insurance company provided funds for immediate rebuilding and for new equipment."

"In the meantime, we occupied temporary quarters at higher rental. Fixed expenses had to be met and sales dropped until normally-expected profits were wiped out."

"Fortunately, we had supplemented our fire coverage with business interruption insurance. As a result, the insurance company paid our fixed overhead and our interrupted profits until we were re-established in our new plant."

THE USUAL DIVIDEND WILL BE DECLARED

You're not INSURED until COMPLETELY covered

If your plant or your store should burn tomorrow, would it wreck your profits, as well as your plant? For adequate protection, make sure that your business is fully covered, not only against direct fire loss, but against loss of profits during business interruption. Ask us for details concerning Business Interruption Insurance, an essential part of complete protection.
