TODAY'S MARKETS

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

PORTLAND, March 6.—White wholesale butter and egg quotations opened unchanged in Portland today, the butter market was barely steady with slow demand for the rather light volume of receipts and the egg market continued weak and unsettled by cluttings of under-grade eggs. Receipts were liberal and trade activity only fair.

Country dressed meat and poultry dealers were selling veal at 14 cents a pound, 35 cent device, no supplies gained on demand. A few rosin duck springs were in on a basis of 30 to 32 cents for weeklings 1 pound or over white and redskins were quoted 24-25 cents.

Arrival of first California asparagus, fine quality, featured opening of the fresh fruit and vegetable market. Quotations were set at 15-20 cents a pound.

New green peas were offering at 14-15 cents a pound.

Government news service reported.

Labish district onion growers reached a practically unanimous agreement yesterday, whereby remaining unsold stocks will be held for 30 per cent, plus sales. This is in contrast to recent sales of 10-20c per cent. Three or four carloads of more are affected by this agreement.

Retail apple sales in Portland's downtown office and factory buildings by the unemployed are getting very encouraging returns to the address, some of whom are distributing 2 to 3 boxes of apples per day. Large ripe Hood River Spitzelburgs are being featured in this movement.

Wool Takes Spurt

Labish district wool tomorrow will say:

"There is rather more business being done in wool this week, in spots in the market, with the demand chiefly for fine, half-blood and three-quarters grades, which have hardly changed for the week.

Wools are steady, as also are waxes, which are growing rather scarcer.

The foreign markets are up again this week slightly as compared with last week and show a general average since the first of the year.

While the market has been steady still, in the case of medium wools, a slight decline is noted.

The manufacturing position is fairly encouraging because it is healthy but there is no boom market in sight.

"In the wool a little business is being done in consignments of small clips here and there."

"Mohair is dull and still with prices hardly more than nominal."
