HOLDUP VICTIMS LOSE CASH, DUDS

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

KLAMATH FALLS, March 12—Art Minor and Ernest Root, enroute to Klamath Falls, were held up and robbed on the Ashland-Klamath Falls highway late yesterday. They lost $155 in cash and clothing valued at about the same amount.

Two men with a gun ordered them not to move for 15 minutes. The robbers came on to Klamath Falls and were followed by the victims.

Because the license plate of the car used by the highwaymen was covered with mud it could not be distinguished.

Run-Down, Weak Nervous?

To have plenty of firm flesh and the ability to do a big day's work and feel "like a two-year old" at night, you must eat three good meals a day, relish your food and properly digest it. If you can't eat, can't sleep, can't work, just give Tanlac the chance to do for you what it has done for millions.

Mrs. Fred Westin, of 387 E. 57th St. North, Portland, Ore., says: "Tanlac cured my stomach trouble completely after three years of suffering. It built me up to perfect health, with a gain of 27 lbs. That was two years ago, and I still enjoy the best of health."

Tanlac is wonderful for indigestion and constipation—gas pains, nausea, dizziness and headaches. It brings back lost appetite, helps you digest your food, and gain strength and weight. It contains no mineral drugs; it is made of roots, barks and herbs, nature's own medicines for the sick. The cost is less than 2c a dose. Get a bottle from your druggist. Your money back if it doesn't help.

POEM FOR THE DAY

By LOUIS ALBERT BANKS

A FELLOW FEELING

"From Plutarch, we learn the anecdote of the Spartan King Agesilaus, who, being caught romping with his children and riding on a stick, requested his visitor not to tell what he had seen until he had children of his own."—W. B. Sedgwick, in the Nineteenth Century.

A fellow feeling makes us kind;
It gives a sympathetic mind,
For when we know a brother's load
It helps to frame a kindly code;
We fit ourselves right in his place,
And suddenly he grows in grace;
We look with sympathetic eyes—
Our estimate of him will rise.

God made this for a brother world
And, if we keep that flag unfurled,
We soon can conquer and subdue
Until our skies are always blue.
The bitter thing that brings us grief
Is when we lose this kind belief
And treat our brother cold and strange—
Then life becomes a gloomy range.

This world was keyed to fellowship—
'Tis only thus we hold our grip;
Cooperation makes us strong,
Awakes within our hearts a song;
Two men are like an army then,
Are multiplied by ten times ten.
Oh, why should we so rob ourselves
And cling to selfishness that delves!

Let's ever keep the brother touch;
Of human kinship let's make much,
For then it is a friendly world
With kindly care about us curled.
The man who lives thus all the while
Will always meet a brother's smile;
His life will yield a fragrance rare.
And he'll have love enough to spare.
