

Local News

COMING EVENTS

March 20—Senior class play, senior high auditorium.
March 21—State convention reserve officers.
March 26—Oregon products dinner by Roseburg Woman's club, M. E. church.
March 27—American Legion smoker, Roseburg armory.
March 28—County declamation contest, Junior high.

Enjoy Day At Coast — Mr. and Mrs. Dean H. Bubar spent Sunday at Beaton on an outing.

Spending Month Here — Miss Agnes Fredrickson, of Portland, arrived here over the week-end to spend a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fredrickson.

Back From Eugene — E. R. Boyce, manager of the Roseburg Cleaners, has returned here after spending the week-end in Eugene visiting friends.

Visits in Eugene — Miss LaVerne Terrill, senior high school instructor, returned here last evening after spending the week-end in Eugene visiting relatives and friends.

Wild Flowers on Display — Irvin Brunn Jr., of this city, presented a large bouquet of lamb tongues and hillbilly to the local chamber of commerce display department today. The flowers were found in the hills just north of Roseburg.

Returns from Montana — Mrs. O. J. Rand has returned to her home here after spending the past three weeks in Great Falls, Montana, where she was called by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Wesley Van Koden. Her mother is reported to be slightly improved in health.

Visits Relatives and Friends — Miss Esther Edman, of Portland, spent the week-end visiting relatives and friends at Melrose and Roseburg. She was formerly stenographer at the Douglas county crematory before accepting a position in a Portland bank. She is the daughter of Mrs. E. Edman of Melrose.

Return to Portland — Garland Hess and Ernest Marsters, who visited over the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Story Hess, returned to Portland Sunday evening. Mr. Marsters is a resident of Beaverton. Both young men are students at Northwestern Business college.

Back From Salem — Attorney and Mrs. R. W. Marsters have returned to their home on North Jackson street, after spending a week in Salem visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pearey, and attending to their ranch. They stopped in Corvallis enroute home to visit their daughter, Miss Dorothy, senior at Oregon State college.

Spends Week-End Here — Harry Mayhew, of Portland, has returned to his work after spending the week-end in this city visiting at the home of his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Sandquist. Mrs. Mayhew and daughter, Miss Camille, who have been visiting at the Sandquist home for the past few weeks, will remain here until next Sunday when they will return to Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Sandquist, who will visit them for a few weeks.

When you buy a new suit you want durable fabrics, correct style, a fair price. And you want something that will please you.

We have just received new spring suits—a wide selection in fresh, smart shades... the season's latest. Fabrics are long lasting, worsteds, a texture that appeals to the man of fashion. Easy, comfortable cut, with silk linings that will wear the life of the suit.

Prices are remarkably moderate. You owe it to yourself to pay us a visit, and see these quality garments.

$27.50 to $45.00

Harth's TOGGERY

Ill At Home — C. R. Trussell, of South Deer creek, is reported to be quite ill at his home.

Visits Family in Medford — G. R. Boyd, of Winston, left yesterday morning for Medford where he will spend a short time visiting his family.

Mrs. Chandler Improving — Mrs. George Chandler is reported to be improving at her home in this city. She has been seriously ill for the past several weeks.

Pays Visit to Local Office — I. B. Tawley, mechanical superintendent of the Grants Pass Courier, paid a short visit to the Roseburg News-Review office Saturday.

Visits Relatives and Friends — Mrs. Agnes Hudson, of Yakima, is spending a few days in this city visiting relatives and friends. She is a former resident of Roseburg.

Leaves for Portland — A. T. Morlan left Sunday evening for his home in Portland after spending the past week in this city visiting his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morlan. He is a former resident of Roseburg.

Spend Week-End in Corvallis — Mrs. J. E. McClintock and Mrs. P. T. Bubar of this city motored to Corvallis Saturday where they spent the week-end visiting the former's daughter, Miss Vera, a student at Oregon State college.

Returns to Eugene — Mrs. A. Dowe has returned to her home in Eugene after spending a short time in this city visiting friends and attending to business. She is a former resident of Roseburg.

Returns to Salem — Miss Doris Pickens left Saturday afternoon for her home in Salem after spending a week in this city as the house guest of Miss Lois Ann Byrd at the J. P. Byrd home. Miss Pickens is a former Roseburg girl.

Will Manage Store — G. M. Bradburn left yesterday for Portland where he has accepted a position as manager of the Dunham grocery store. He was a former Winston fruit rancher before moving to Marshfield in January. Mr. Bradburn has been spending the past week in this city visiting his grandmother, Mrs. S. E. Collier.

Back From Portland — Miss Margaret Page, Mrs. Carlos Page, Miss Gladys Strong and Miss May Baldwin have returned to their homes here after hearing the Chicago Civic Opera company in Portland over the week-end. Mrs. Page also visited her daughter, Miss Margaret, in McMinnville, where the latter is a student at Linfield college.

Visits Sister Here — Mr. H. C. Baker, of Walla Walla, spent Friday and Saturday in this city visiting his sister, Mrs. George Stearns, at Roseburg General hospital. She was accompanied here by her cousin, Mrs. John Langdon, also of Walla Walla. Both are former Okanogan pioneers. Mrs. Stearns is reported to be doing nicely at the hospital.

CITY VISITORS

Richard Cannon, of Glendale, spent Saturday in this city on business. Lige Matthews, of Dixonville, was in town Saturday afternoon on business.

Brady Burnett, of Oakland, spent several hours here Saturday on business.

Roy Hatfield, of South Deer, spent Saturday in Roseburg on business.

Bert Neely, of Camas Valley, spent Saturday in this city attending to business affairs.

John Roberts, of Brookway, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Howard Kincaid, of Dixonville, spent several hours here Saturday on business.

Benjamin Nichols, of Riddle, was in town on business Saturday afternoon.

Lawrence Goodhoun, of Melrose, spent Saturday afternoon in this city on business.

Peter Sinclair, of Garden valley, attended to business affairs in this city Saturday afternoon.

O. Middleton, of Portland, attended to business in Roseburg over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellison, of Roberts creek, visited friends and attended to business affairs.

Henry Paulson, of Umpqua, was in Roseburg Saturday afternoon attending to business affairs.

Mrs. E. Meyer, of Canyonville, was in Roseburg Saturday afternoon shopping and visiting.

Mrs. A. C. Ulam, of Days creek, was in town Saturday afternoon visiting friends and shopping.

C. W. Hughes, of Garden valley, was in town on business Saturday afternoon.

O. E. Cook, of Drew, spent several hours in this city Saturday on business.

E. E. Hewitt, of Eugene, spent Saturday afternoon here on business.

Clay Smith, of Winston, was in town on business Saturday afternoon.

Asher Agee, of Oak creek, spent Saturday in this city attending to business.

H. Christiansen, of Melrose, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

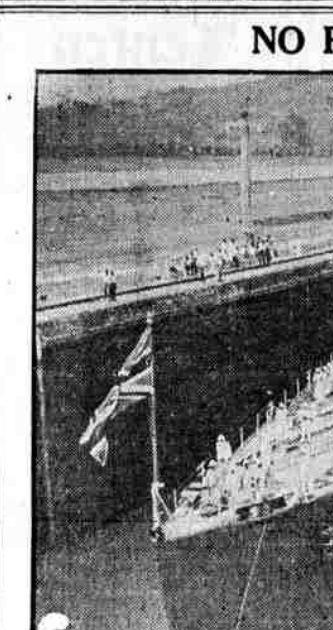

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis, of DuLard, were in town Saturday afternoon on business.

Howard Carnes, of Carnes, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellison, of Roberts creek, were in town for a short time Saturday visiting friends and attending to business.

D. Adams, of South Deer creek, spent Saturday afternoon in this city looking after business interests.

POLLY AND HER PALS

When the world's largest battleship, H. M. S. Nelson, of the British fleet, passed through the Panama canal recently to make a formal visit to the American fleet then lying in Pacific waters, so close was the squeeze that the sea giant scraped her sides. The huge vessel is shown above when it passed through the Pedro Miguel locks.

A. J. Anderson, of Melrose, spent Saturday afternoon here on business.

George Marsters, of Garden valley, was in town Saturday attending to business affairs.

W. D. Hess, of Garden valley, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

J. E. Perry and Alfred Tompkins, of Riddle, were business visitors in this city Saturday.

Charles Buxton, of Brookway, attended to business in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

David Fleming, of Glendale, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Wilson, of Canyonville, spent Saturday in this city attending to business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hill and family, of Days creek, spent Saturday in Roseburg on business.

Mrs. W. Schrom, of Edenbow, was in town this morning visiting friends and shopping.

William Bailey, of South Deer creek, spent Saturday here attending to business affairs.

C. A. Kocken, of Cleveland, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Trueman, of Camas Valley, was a business visitor here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Julius Sindt, of Melrose, visited friends and shopped in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Thomas Hatfield, of South Deer creek, was in Roseburg Saturday looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brink, of Sutherlin, visited friends and attended to business here Saturday.

Miss Pearl, of Riverdale, visited friends and attended to business here Saturday.

Mrs. V. C. Cleveland and children, of Sutherlin, visited friends and shopped here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Valentine and Miss Edna Barge, of Sutherlin, spent Saturday here visiting friends and shopping.

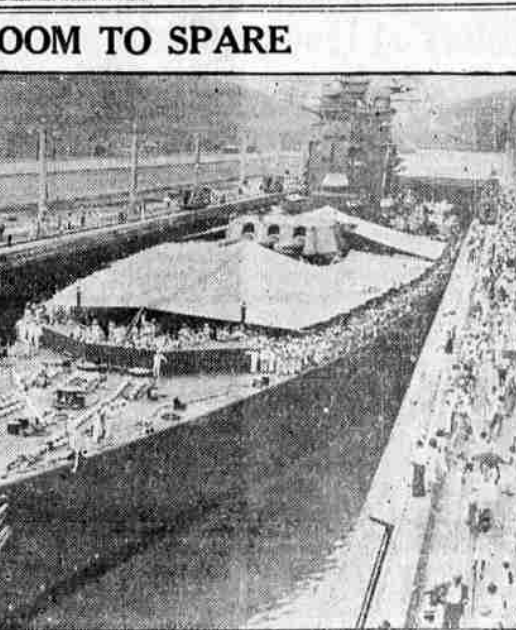

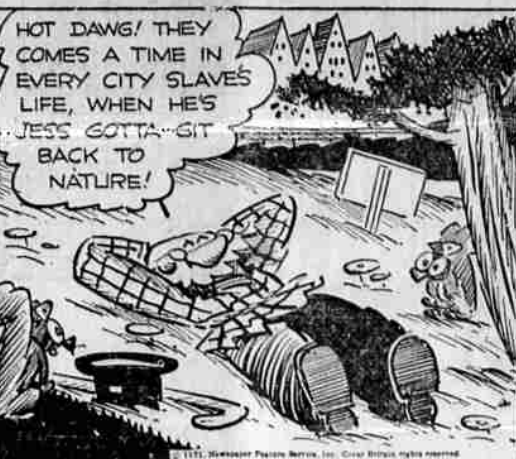

O. G. Rogers, Geo. Hanson and H. G. Klore, of Lookingglass, were business visitors in this city Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Short and daughter, Mrs. T. Whitaker, of Clover creek, were visitors in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Ten Wolves Killed

RED CLOUD, Neb.—Ten wolves were killed in the fourth annual Webster county wolf hunt here recently. Three thousand persons attended the hunt. An area comprising one hundred square miles was covered. An airplane acted as scout and kept the lines in formation.

The Best Things In Life Are Free

When the world's largest battleship, H. M. S. Nelson, of the British fleet, passed through the Panama canal recently to make a formal visit to the American fleet then lying in Pacific waters, so close was the squeeze that the sea giant scraped her sides. The huge vessel is shown above when it passed through the Pedro Miguel locks.

A. J. Anderson, of Melrose, spent Saturday afternoon here on business.

George Marsters, of Garden valley, was in town Saturday attending to business affairs.

W. D. Hess, of Garden valley, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

J. E. Perry and Alfred Tompkins, of Riddle, were business visitors in this city Saturday.

Charles Buxton, of Brookway, attended to business in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

David Fleming, of Glendale, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Wilson, of Canyonville, spent Saturday in this city attending to business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hill and family, of Days creek, spent Saturday in Roseburg on business.

Mrs. W. Schrom, of Edenbow, was in town this morning visiting friends and shopping.

William Bailey, of South Deer creek, spent Saturday here attending to business affairs.

C. A. Kocken, of Cleveland, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Trueman, of Camas Valley, was a business visitor here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Julius Sindt, of Melrose, visited friends and shopped in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Thomas Hatfield, of South Deer creek, was in Roseburg Saturday looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brink, of Sutherlin, visited friends and attended to business here Saturday.

Miss Pearl, of Riverdale, visited friends and attended to business here Saturday.

Mrs. V. C. Cleveland and children, of Sutherlin, visited friends and shopped here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Valentine and Miss Edna Barge, of Sutherlin, spent Saturday here visiting friends and shopping.

O. G. Rogers, Geo. Hanson and H. G. Klore, of Lookingglass, were business visitors in this city Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Short and daughter, Mrs. T. Whitaker, of Clover creek, were visitors in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Ten Wolves Killed

RED CLOUD, Neb.—Ten wolves were killed in the fourth annual Webster county wolf hunt here recently. Three thousand persons attended the hunt. An area comprising one hundred square miles was covered. An airplane acted as scout and kept the lines in formation.

When the world's largest battleship, H. M. S. Nelson, of the British fleet, passed through the Panama canal recently to make a formal visit to the American fleet then lying in Pacific waters, so close was the squeeze that the sea giant scraped her sides. The huge vessel is shown above when it passed through the Pedro Miguel locks.

A. J. Anderson, of Melrose, spent Saturday afternoon here on business.

George Marsters, of Garden valley, was in town Saturday attending to business affairs.

W. D. Hess, of Garden valley, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

J. E. Perry and Alfred Tompkins, of Riddle, were business visitors in this city Saturday.

Charles Buxton, of Brookway, attended to business in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

David Fleming, of Glendale, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Wilson, of Canyonville, spent Saturday in this city attending to business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hill and family, of Days creek, spent Saturday in Roseburg on business.

Mrs. W. Schrom, of Edenbow, was in town this morning visiting friends and shopping.

William Bailey, of South Deer creek, spent Saturday here attending to business affairs.

C. A. Kocken, of Cleveland, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Trueman, of Camas Valley, was a business visitor here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Julius Sindt, of Melrose, visited friends and shopped in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Thomas Hatfield, of South Deer creek, was in Roseburg Saturday looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brink, of Sutherlin, visited friends and attended to business here Saturday.

Miss Pearl, of Riverdale, visited friends and attended to business here Saturday.

Mrs. V. C. Cleveland and children, of Sutherlin, visited friends and shopped here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Valentine and Miss Edna Barge, of Sutherlin, spent Saturday here visiting friends and shopping.

O. G. Rogers, Geo. Hanson and H. G. Klore, of Lookingglass, were business visitors in this city Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Short and daughter, Mrs. T. Whitaker, of Clover creek, were visitors in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Ten Wolves Killed

RED CLOUD, Neb.—Ten wolves were killed in the fourth annual Webster county wolf hunt here recently. Three thousand persons attended the hunt. An area comprising one hundred square miles was covered. An airplane acted as scout and kept the lines in formation.

When the world's largest battleship, H. M. S. Nelson, of the British fleet, passed through the Panama canal recently to make a formal visit to the American fleet then lying in Pacific waters, so close was the squeeze that the sea giant scraped her sides. The huge vessel is shown above when it passed through the Pedro Miguel locks.

A. J. Anderson, of Melrose, spent Saturday afternoon here on business.

George Marsters, of Garden valley, was in town Saturday attending to business affairs.

W. D. Hess, of Garden valley, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

J. E. Perry and Alfred Tompkins, of Riddle, were business visitors in this city Saturday.

Charles Buxton, of Brookway, attended to business in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

David Fleming, of Glendale, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Wilson, of Canyonville, spent Saturday in this city attending to business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hill and family, of Days creek, spent Saturday in Roseburg on business.

Mrs. W. Schrom, of Edenbow, was in town this morning visiting friends and shopping.

William Bailey, of South Deer creek, spent Saturday here attending to business affairs.

C. A. Kocken, of Cleveland, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Trueman, of Camas Valley, was a business visitor here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Julius Sindt, of Melrose, visited friends and shopped in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Thomas Hatfield, of South Deer creek, was in Roseburg Saturday looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brink, of Sutherlin, visited friends and attended to business here Saturday.

Miss Pearl, of Riverdale, visited friends and attended to business here Saturday.

Mrs. V. C. Cleveland and children, of Sutherlin, visited friends and shopped here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Valentine and Miss Edna Barge, of Sutherlin, spent Saturday here visiting friends and shopping.

O. G. Rogers, Geo. Hanson and H. G. Klore, of Lookingglass, were business visitors in this city Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Short and daughter, Mrs. T. Whitaker, of Clover creek, were visitors in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Ten Wolves Killed

RED CLOUD, Neb.—Ten wolves were killed in the fourth annual Webster county wolf hunt here recently. Three thousand persons attended the hunt. An area comprising one hundred square miles was covered. An airplane acted as scout and kept the lines in formation.

When the world's largest battleship, H. M. S. Nelson, of the British fleet, passed through the Panama canal recently to make a formal visit to the American fleet then lying in Pacific waters, so close was the squeeze that the sea giant scraped her sides. The huge vessel is shown above when it passed through the Pedro Miguel locks.

A. J. Anderson, of Melrose, spent Saturday afternoon here on business.

George Marsters, of Garden valley, was in town Saturday attending to business affairs.

W. D. Hess, of Garden valley, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

J. E. Perry and Alfred Tompkins, of Riddle, were business visitors in this city Saturday.

Charles Buxton, of Brookway, attended to business in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

David Fleming, of Glendale, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Wilson, of Canyonville, spent Saturday in this city attending to business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hill and family, of Days creek, spent Saturday in Roseburg on business.

Mrs. W. Schrom, of Edenbow, was in town this morning visiting friends and shopping.

William Bailey, of South Deer creek, spent Saturday here attending to business affairs.

C. A. Kocken, of Cleveland, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Trueman, of Camas Valley, was a business visitor here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Julius Sindt, of Melrose, visited friends and shopped in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Thomas Hatfield, of South Deer creek, was in Roseburg Saturday looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brink, of Sutherlin, visited friends and attended to business here Saturday.

Miss Pearl, of Riverdale, visited friends and attended to business here Saturday.

Mrs. V. C. Cleveland and children, of Sutherlin, visited friends and shopped here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. W. Valentine and Miss Edna Barge, of Sutherlin, spent Saturday here visiting friends and shopping.

O. G. Rogers, Geo. Hanson and H. G. Klore, of Lookingglass, were business visitors in this city Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Short and daughter, Mrs. T. Whitaker, of Clover creek, were visitors in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Ten Wolves Killed

RED CLOUD, Neb.—Ten wolves were killed in the fourth annual Webster county wolf hunt here recently. Three thousand persons attended the hunt. An area comprising one hundred square miles was covered. An airplane acted as scout and kept the lines in formation.

When the world's largest battleship, H. M. S. Nelson, of the British fleet, passed through the Panama canal recently to make a formal visit to the American fleet then lying in Pacific waters, so close was the squeeze that the sea giant scraped her sides. The huge vessel is shown above when it passed through the Pedro Miguel locks.

A. J. Anderson, of Melrose, spent Saturday afternoon here on business.

George Marsters, of Garden valley, was in town Saturday attending to business affairs.

W. D. Hess, of Garden valley, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

J. E. Perry and Alfred Tompkins, of Riddle, were business visitors in this city Saturday.

Charles Buxton, of Brookway, attended to business in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

David Fleming, of Glendale, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Wilson, of Canyonville, spent Saturday in this city attending to business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hill and family, of Days creek, spent Saturday in Roseburg on business.

Mrs. W. Schrom, of Edenbow, was in town this morning visiting friends and shopping.

William Bailey, of South Deer creek, spent Saturday here attending to business affairs.

C. A. Kocken, of Cleveland, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon.

Frank Trueman, of Camas Valley, was a business visitor here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Julius Sindt, of Melrose, visited friends and shopped in Roseburg Saturday afternoon.

Thomas Hatfield, of South Deer creek, was in Roseburg Saturday looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brink, of Suther