Miss Evelyn Houser Is Lovely Spring Bride on Friday
One of the loveliest of the early spring brides was Miss Evelyn Houser, of Roseburg, when she became the bride of Delbert O. Kimberling, of Prairie City, at an informal wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Houser, in West Roseburg, Friday, March 20th.

The ceremony was performed at high noon in front of an improvised altar of Easter lilies, carnations, daffodils and ferns. Rev. Alexander Mürden read the service in the presence of a few relatives and friends. With the opening strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Violet Houser, the wedding party advanced toward the altar. The bride was given in marriage by her father, O. C. Houser. Miss Mary Prinitz was maid of honor and Ralph Crawford acted as best man. The bride was lovely in a model of green printed chiffon, floor length, and made along informal lines. Her slippers were matching green moire and she carried a bride's bouquet of pink rosebuds. Miss Prinitz wore a gown of pink printed chiffon, made along similar lines as that of the bride's. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and daffodils.

The bride's going-away outfit was a green print dress, green spring coat, with large lapin collar with matching hat, and green shoes.

She is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Houser of this city, and following her graduation from the local high school entered University of Oregon Business Administration school at Eugene, where she is now a sophomore. The bridegroom is a junior in the University of Oregon Business Administration school at Eugene following their honeymoon in Portland. During the summer months they will make their home in Prairie City, where the bridegroom is manager of the J. Paulus Mercantile company.

A buffet luncheon was served immediately following the wedding ceremony, Mrs. L. J. Houser, Mrs. Joseph Brumback, Mrs. Claude Talcott and Mrs. Floyd Watson served.

Those witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Houser, Mr. and Mrs. Volney McKean and son, Volney Jr., Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Houser, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Houser, Mrs. Alexander Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Prinitz, James Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brumback and Joseph Jr., and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Talcott, Mr. and Mrs. Edna Watson, D. S. Houser, Leland Houser and Harold Prinitz.
