Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Broadway included Mrs. O. M. Berrie, Mrs. Arthur Baum, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Mrs. C. W. Wharton and Mrs. W. F. Chapman.

Light refreshments were served later in the day by Mrs. Broadway.

Book Club Members Enjoy Afternoon at W. H. Fisher Home

The members of the Book club enjoyed a delightful pot-luck luncheon at the W. H. Fisher home in Laurelwood on Thursday of this week. The luncheon table was beautiful with its centerpiece of Ophelia roses and pink sweet-peas arranged with ferns. Favors and placecards were carried out in green.

Covers were placed for Mrs. W. H. Fisher, Mrs. P. T. Bubar, Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. C. W. Wharton and Mrs. M. F. Rice.

Following the luncheon hour, the members enjoyed the reading of their latest book.

Lovely Dinner Enjoyed by Royal Arch Chapter on Tuesday Evening

The Royal Arch Chapter of the Masonic order enjoyed a delicious six-thirty o'clock dinner at the Masonic temple on Tuesday evening of this week. The St. Patrick motif was carried out in the decorative scheme. Those sponsoring the dinner for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. Iolo Stephens.

Covers were placed at the beautifully arranged table for Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wells, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Runyan, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bubar, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Lebrack, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gile, E. McGee, J. D. Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lyons, Miss Martha Yeo, Mr. and Mrs. Iolo Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Jordan.

Following the dinner hour, the men retired to their lodge room, where the regular business session was held. The ladies enjoyed several hours of bridge in the social room.

Eastern Star March Social Is Brilliant Affair of Thursday

The Eastern Star March social held on Thursday night was a brilliant success. Mrs. M. E. Ritter and Mrs. Paul Bubar were joint hostesses for the occasion, which proved delightful to the many members present, as well as the honor guests, Job's Daughters and the following chapters: Glendale chapter, Valentine chapter of Myrtle Creek, Mistletoe chapter of Riddle and Oregon chapter at Canyonville. The officers of the above mentioned chapters were duly escorted East and were presented lovely corsages to each of the worthy matrons.

Job's Daughters with Miss Elizabeth Williams as queen, put on their initiation. Miss Williams also received a lovely corsage, as did the Job's Daughters guardian, Mrs. T. G. Watson, W. B. Strawn, associate guardian and also present for the evening, Miss Phyllis Quine and Miss Betty Shoemaker, member and Job's Daughters princesses, came in for their share of the evening's honors.

The banquet room and tables were unusually beautiful with their many bouquets of jonquils, spirea and Easter lilies. The Easter motif was carried out in the table appointments. J. E. Sawyers, past patron, gave the welcoming address with Mrs. Ada Raymond, of Canyonville, responding.

Walter Hershey was toastmaster for the evening and short toasts were given by Mrs. Uam, Mrs. Soursby, Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Willis, of Riddle, and Mr. Caswell and Mr. Connell, of Myrtle Creek.

The next social gathering will be one of the finest of the year and will be held in April. Mrs. T. B. Virden and Mrs. S. L. Kiddie will be joint hostesses and the worthy grand matron and other grand chapter officers will be guests of honor.

Bridge Club Members Guests at Dinner at Entler Home Thursday

Mrs. Roy Entler was a most gracious hostess Thursday evening of this week, when she entertained the members of her bridge club at a seven o'clock dinner at her home in Laurelwood. The table was lovely with a centerpiece of exotics and matching green tapers, placecards and favors. The same green color scheme was carried out in the menu.

Mrs. J. S. Tobin was a guest of the club for the evening and members enjoying the evening with Mrs. Entler included Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. T. H. Ness, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. Willard Johnson, Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen Jr., and Mrs. H. O. Parker.

B. P. W. C. Annual Business Associates Dinner Huge Success

The Business and Professional Women's club enjoyed their annual business associates' dinner at the Umpqua hotel on Monday evening of this week. The honor guests of the evening were Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harding, who on account of illness were unable to attend the affair.

Daffodils and anemias formed the floral decorations and the St. Patrick day motif was carried out in the favors and tall tapers. Covers were placed for 129 guests.

The program for the evening was unique. Mrs. Stella Spencer, as radio announcer for BPWC, announced that television had come into use and would be demonstrated throughout the program. The program opened with a song, by Miss Helen Magers, with the club joining in on the chorus. The chorus complimented Dr. Stewart and Mr. Harding.

Mrs. Edith Falbe, president of the club, very appropriately gave the address of welcome and Dr. A. C. Seely, in his usual humorous manner, gave the response.

Mrs. Grace Deets and Mrs. Gertrude Whipple sang "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" and "Mother Macbrree," accompanied by Mrs. C. S. Heinline.

Mrs. Dorothy McCullough Lee, of Portland, who is enjoying her third term as representative from Multnomah county, demonstrated her skill as a politician as well as a very fine orator. She talked on "Women in Politics" and gave several fine sketches of the last legislature.

Members of the club sang a song to the business associates, after which they drank together. Club songs followed, after which a novelty Irish dance was introduced. A novelty Irish dance was given by Miss Wanda Brunner. Miss Dorothy Herman, Miss Anna May Unrath, Miss Freida Thomas, Miss Norma Winston, Miss Jean Moore, Miss Helen Wolford and Miss Lydia Wilson. Miss Lois Ann Whipple accompanied them at the piano and the girls were directed by Miss Ona May Moore.

The program closed by singing "Happy Days Are Here Again." The decorations were in charge of Mrs. Laura Iles and the favors were made by Miss Beas Wharton. Mrs. C. S. Heinline arranged the program, wrote the songs and acted as song-leader.

This annual activity of the club is to promote a fine feeling between the Roseburg business women and their business associates.

Catholic Ladies Plan Rummage Sale and Card Party

The Catholic Ladies' Sewing society met on Thursday afternoon of this week in the parish hall, at which time a report on the St. Patrick's day luncheon was given and Mrs. T. H. Ness, in charge of the affair, was complimented by the society members on her fine management of the luncheon.

The St. Patrick's day luncheon was well attended by the Roseburg people. The parish hall, recently redecorated, was unusually attractive for the occasion. Those in charge of the dining room were Mrs. Cyril Nichols, Mrs. Loren Miller, Mrs. L. Rodley and Mrs. R. Jones. The kitchen committee was composed of Mrs. I. B. Nichols, chairman, Mrs. A. P. Rapin, Mrs. R. Willett and Mrs. Charles Kroger. Mrs. J. A. Harding acted as cashier for the occasion and other ladies of the society assisted throughout the luncheon hour.

At the Thursday meeting it was decided to hold a rummage sale next Friday and Saturday, March 27th and 28th. A card party was also planned for the week following Easter Sunday.

Tenth Anniversary of Club Is Celebrated by Members Thursday

The members of the Belle View club met on Thursday afternoon as the guests of Mrs. William Smith on South Deer creek. The occasion marked the tenth birthday anniversary of the club and a large, beautifully decorated cake was served. The Mexican colors, red, white and green, were used in the decorative scheme.

Games and music were enjoyed during the afternoon hours, after which Mrs. Smith, assisted by Mrs. Gardener, served dainty refreshments to the following guests, Mrs. Berger, Mrs. Gurnee, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Green and club members, Mrs. William Pearce, Mrs. P. W. Beckley, Mrs. VanVoorst, Mrs. C. Harding, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. G. W. Kincaid, Mrs. Howard Kincaid and Mrs. J. J. Kester.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Harding with Mrs. A. V. Pavlovic as joint hostess.

Golden Hour Class Enjoy Social at Christian Church

The Golden Hour club, composed of young married people of the First Christian church of Roseburg, enjoyed a social at the church on Friday evening of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith were general chairmen of the affair. Games and visiting were enjoyed for several hours.

Later in the evening, the group went to Stapp's restaurant on Cass street for refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stapp recently joined the Golden Hour class.

Bride Elect Honored With Lovely Shower on Wednesday Evening

Miss Wanda Wood, bride-elect, was complimented with a delightful shower on Wednesday evening, when Miss Shirley Ware entertained in her honor. Miss Wood will come the bride of Darley Ware, of this city, early this summer.

Spraying flowers and St. Patrick day motif was carried out in the rooms. Games, stunts and dancing tea towels was the diversion of the evening. Each guest sewed her name and the date on the towels.

Later in the evening refreshments were served at a beautiful table, appropriately arranged for the occasion. A large doll, dressed in bridal robes, graced the center of the table. Streamers from the doll, led to each table corner. Each guest was required to do a stunt at the table.

Covers were placed for Miss Wanda Wood, honor guest, Miss Esther Meyer, Miss Ruth Houlick, Miss Jean Scott, Miss Lydia Wilson, Miss Lois Irving, Miss Abbie Claire Herzhinger, Miss Estelle Fisher, Mrs. LeNoir Shrum, Miss Mary Wood, Miss Betty Faulkner, Mrs. Romano Wood, Miss Virginia French, Miss Rachel Smith, Miss Alma Stephens, Mrs. Ware, Mrs. E. G. Bendolph and the hostess, Miss Shirley Ware.

Later Miss Wood was asked to look in a designated place, where she found a St. Patrick's day hat filled with beautiful gifts.

Northside Sunshine Club Members Enjoy Meeting Thursday

Miss L. W. Ingalls entertained the members of the Northside Sunshine club at her home on Winchester street Thursday afternoon of this week. The occasion also marked the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Lee Goodman and Mrs. Inesles. The rooms and luncheon table were lovely with bouquets of spring flowers. The placecards, designed with daffodils and bearing a fortune for each guest's birthday anniversary, were placed at the covers. Mrs. Fred Bowen won the table prize, which proved to be a lovely birthday cake.

The regular business session was held, after which the quilt drawing was held with Mrs. C. E. Miller receiving the lucky number. Those enjoying the day included Mrs. Virgil Bush, of Forndale, and Mrs. D. E. McGeheey, of Carnes, guests of the afternoon, and the following members: Mrs. E. Marsters, Mrs. E. P. Ballou, Mrs. S. Durland, Mrs. R. Marsters, Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. George Marsters, Mrs. C. E. Miller, Mrs. S. Huber, Mrs. R. Chilson, Mrs. Fred Bowen, Mrs. Lee Goodman, Mrs. N. Fisher, Mrs. L. L. Marsters, Mrs. M. Weber and Mrs. E. McComas.

The next meeting of the club will be held April 2nd at the home of Mrs. B. F. Chilson on Winchester street.

Informal Afternoon Party Enjoyed at Wharton Home Friday

One of the many delightful informal affairs of the week was enjoyed Friday afternoon at the lovely home of Mrs. George Wharton, when she entertained a few of her friends. The rooms were colorful with their many bouquets of attractively arranged spring flowers.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent visiting. Those enjoying the affair were Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mrs. Edward Skinner, Mrs. George Johnson and daughter Miss Georgine, Mrs. W. C. Winston and Mrs. Harry Winston, all of Winston, Mrs. I. B. Nichols and Mrs. J. Harold Nichols, of Brockway, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and Mrs. Carl Wimberly.

Later in the afternoon, Mrs. Wharton served dainty refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Nickens Entertain Friends on Monday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nickens entertained a few of their friends at their home on Cobb street on Monday evening of this week. The rooms were lovely with bouquets of flowers in green and white. The St. Patrick motif was carried out in the entire decorative scheme.

Those enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Nickens were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scofield, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grimm, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Diddel Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dunham.

Five hundred was the diversion of the evening with Mrs. Dunham holding high score for the ladies and L. W. Metzger holding high score for the men. Low score was held by Mrs. P. W. Diddel Jr.

Later in the evening, Mrs. Nickens served dainty refreshments.

Kiwanis Party Is Enjoyed by Large Number Tuesday

The annual Kiwanis social affair was greatly enjoyed by a large crowd at the Country club on Tuesday evening of this week. The affair, which also marked the celebration day of Roseburg regarding the veterans' home, proved to be one of the most delightful of its type for several weeks.

A box supper was enjoyed early in the evening. Each lady guest was given a number and the men guests drew their supper partner in this way. Old-fashioned games were played following the supper hour, after which the Royal Gypsy Musicians furnished old-fashioned dance music and dancing was enjoyed for several hours.

E. A. Britton was general chairman of the affair with Charles Stanton in charge of the program. Mrs. J. C. Leedy, Mrs. H. Berg, and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly were in charge of the games.

Teachers Are Guests of Rotary Club at Banquet Thursday

The Rotary banquet Thursday evening in the main dining room of the Umpqua hotel, was one of the most brilliant affairs of the entire week. The tables were lovely with yellow tapers, daffodils, Oregon grape and yellow favors. Individual corsages were placed beside each lady guest's place and the men were each presented with boutonnières. The teachers and their wives were honor guests of the Rotary and Rotarian members.

Covers were placed for 135. The speaker of the evening was Professor Beattie, of the extension department of University of Oregon, who is a prominent lecturer for the university. His talk was both interesting and enjoyable. J. Henry Douth acted as toastmaster. Foster Butner gave the welcoming address with Harvey Roser giving the response.

The songs for the evening were led by Charles V. Stanton. A saxophone solo was played by L. Langenberg, accompanied by Miss Marie Langenberg at the piano. Ott's orchestra furnished music during the dinner.

Informal Dinner Enjoyed at Weber Home on Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Weber Sr., entertained Sunday with a one o'clock dinner at their home on North Jackson street. Covers were placed at an attractively arranged table for Miss Bertie Lou Hamlin, Carl Schrader, Maurice Weber Jr., and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Weber Sr.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent visiting.

State President Pays Official Visit to Local Order Friday

Florence Nightingale Tent No. 15, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War met on Friday evening, at which time they were honored by the presence of the state department president, Madeline R. Nash, of Salem. This was the president's annual visit. Mrs. Virginia Campbell, local Tent president, had charge of the business session.

Mrs. Nash gave an instructive and most interesting talk on "Progress." She encouraged the Tent to secure new members prior to the convention which will be held in Portland this June.

Mrs. Lucille McIntosh gave an appropriate reading honoring Andrew Jackson's birthday this month. Later in the evening, light refreshments were served by the committee in charge, at a table made gay with spring flowers.

Poets' Corner

THE LIE
Up the street a liar went
With nimble feet and bad intent
She had framed a yarn she wanted to spread
It had grown and thrived in side her head.
She couldn't resist for it pressed her sore
Till she spread the slander from door to door.
She was out to pervert and twist
and strew
Some path with thorns before she was through.
Like the thistle-down it spread on the air
And where it lighted she didn't care.
Then the gossip rolled it beneath the tongue
And sent it along as the liar had done.
The bigger the lie, the better it sulted
They were going to have someone's character jostled.
They forgot one thing as they sped along
That their hearts were far worse than their song.
And when they come to the judgment day
What will they do and what will they say?

FORD MAY CREATE NEW BASE PRICE

Auto Maker Reported as Planning Change, But Company Denies.

(Associated Press Special Wire)
NEW YORK, March 20.—The publication "Steel," says it is reported on apparently authoritative basis that the Ford Motor company is planning to abandon f. o. b. Detroit as its method of quoting and intends replacing this method with a base price at all important distributing centers.

Under the proposed plan, the base price of model A would be identical at all important distributing points. This new base—quoting Ford f. o. b. Detroit—would virtually eliminate all of the freight now added to the present Detroit base. The effect on the buyer, "Steel" says, would be a substantial reduction in the actual purchasing price.

DETROIT, March 20.—An official of the Ford Motor company today said "there is nothing to the rumor" that the company is planning the abandonment of the f. o. b. Detroit method of quoting prices. The plan, it was stated has never gone beyond the stage of rumor, which "is more prevalent outside the company's office than it is inside."

'PEG O' MY HEART' PLEASES AUDIENCE

A large audience received "Peg O' My Heart," senior class play, presented at the Roseburg high school last night, with much applause. The three-act play, popular ever since its origin many years ago, was directed by Miss Kate Buchanan of the high school faculty, who was assisted by Kenneth Beach, staging; James Judd, stage manager; Elmer Dent, business manager, and Leroy Hiatt, senior class adviser. The high school orchestra, directed by Leonard Riley, played during the intermissions.

STANDARD CUTS GAS PRICE ANOTHER CENT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—The Standard Oil company of California today ordered another reduction of one cent in the wholesale price of gasoline, bringing the wholesale price down to 9 cents including the state tax. This reduction met the price established by most of the companies two days ago but did not affect the price at Standard Stations, Inc., which continued to retail gasoline at 12 cents a gallon.

Today's reduction is effective in San Francisco, Oakland, San Jose, Tacoma, Seattle and Portland.

COME ON BUSINESS
MRS. LYMON SPENCER
Come on business—Let's get going.
You've marked time long enough.
We've got the Home—Things have to burn,
We've had enough of bluff.

We've got a thousand things to do,
With details to complete—
And progress will be faster,
If you'll just not drag your feet.

Just throw your shoulder to the wheel,
There's the airport and the road,
We can't leave things half finished,
Even tho' it is some load.

So far they've not been able,
To throw a wrench in the wheel,
So lift your feet—got in and work,
And see how good you'll feel.

Buddy in Picture

Charles (Buddy) Rogers, starring in "Along Came Youth," Sunday at attraction at Hunt's Indian theater.

HERE'S relief from kitchen problems and from worries about servants!
Not a trick egg-beater, not a book on "How to Make Mince-meat Out of Old Tin Cans," nor a recipe for whipped mush rooms on asparagus toast, not a combination soap-suds skimmer, string put-away, and pigs knuckle pulverizer.

None of those, but a moving picture!
Yes, ma'am, a brand-new, refreshingly amusing talkie starring Charles Rogers in "Along Came Youth." It was made expressly to help you forget your troubles. It comes to Hunt's Indian Sunday matinee and night only.

GUARD INSPECTION SET FOR MONDAY

Major A. M. Jones, executive officer of Vancouver, Wash., barracks, is to conduct the annual inspection of the Roseburg national guard unit next Monday. The guardsmen have been making extensive preparations for this inspection, and have all of their equipment and supplies in first class order. During his visit in Roseburg, Major Jones will give any desired information regarding the citizens' military training camp to be held at Vancouver during the summer.

basements and the city undertook a survey of damage caused yesterday when an irrigation ditch broke five miles from the city and sent a flood of water into the low part of town.

The Pilot Butte canal overflowed when a culvert became clogged after 300 second feet of water from the irrigation ditch swept into the canal. About 20 feet of the ditch bank was washed out.

RELIGIOUS DRAMA TO BE STAGED HERE

A three-act play, "The Feast of Belshazzar," presented by the famous Wright California players, will be staged at the Christian church Monday, March 23, at 8 p. m., under the auspices of the Golden Hour Young Peoples' club of that church. Proceeds of the play will be used for general church work.

This is the tenth season of the Wright company in its presentation of Biblical dramas, and the present play is said to be the greatest success of its entire career. The production is enhanced by gorgeous costumes, beautiful stage settings and intense action. Among the big moment in the play are the burning fiery furnace, the feast of Belshazzar and the hard-writhing on the wall, and Daniel in the lion's den.
