HUNT'S INDIAN — Today last time, Clara Bow in "No Limit," Friday and Saturday. Harold Bell Wright's "The Eyes of the World."

The hit of the show is the "It" of Miss Bow at the Indian theatre, where the Brooklyn Boulevard's latest picture, "No Limit," opened yesterday before audiences that wished for a good, fast-moving cinema yarn and got their wish.

"No Limit" is delicious pretending, and the kind of a story that shows off the personality-wares of the new and slimmer Clara to the best advantage.

EXECUTION SALE

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution writ issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Douglas County, in a cause wherein James J. Morton, plaintiff, and O. A. Olsen and Mrs. O. A. Olsen are defendants, to me directed, and by me received on the 21st day of March, 1931, upon a judgment rendered, entered, transcribed, enrolled and docketed in said court on the 21st day of November, 1929, in favor of said plaintiff and against said defendants, Mrs. O. A. Olsen, for the sum of $118.25 and the further sum of $67.40 costs and disbursements, I did, on the 21st day of March, 1931, at the instance of the plaintiff, levy upon the following described real property belonging to the said defendant, Mrs. O. A. Olsen, and upon all the right, title and interest of the said defendant, Mrs. O. A. Olsen, therein which she had at the time of said judgment or at any time thereafter, said real property being situated in Douglas County, State of Oregon, and described as follows, to-wit:

Lot One (1), the Southwest quarter of the Northeast quarter (SW1/4NE1/4), and the Northwest quarter of the Southeast quarter (NW1/4SE1/4) of Section Twenty-nine (29), Township Twenty-nine (29) South, of Range Seven (7) West of the Willamette Meridian, and containing 119.42 acres more or less.

and I will, on the 2nd day of May, 1931, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House front door in Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, sell the said interests in said real property so levied upon, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment and interest thereon at the legal rate from the date thereof and the costs of said writ, to the highest bidder at public auction as by law provided.

V. P. JACKSON, Sheriff of Douglas County, State of Oregon.
