NEBASKA EGGS TO EUROPE

FREMONT, Neb.—Europeans are going to consume at least five carloads of Nebraska eggs each week, under a contract recently made.

A Fremont produce concern has contracted with a New York producer house to furnish this many eggs each week for export purposes.

Nebraska hens have the laying habit. Ordinarily the state usually produces about 67,000,000 dozen eggs per year. Under the usual price conditions, the crop brings in about $15,000,000.

ROBBERS SLAIN BY GERMAN VETERAN

War Experience With Gun Enables Waiter to Foil Holdup in Chicago.

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

CHICAGO, April 13.—Three robbers made the mistake yesterday of trying to hold up the L'Aiglon cafe, a Gold Coast establishment where Frank Abler, who had three years service with the German army on the western front, is the head waiter. As a result two of the men are dead—victims of the marksmanship of Abler, who specialized in sharpshooting while serving with the German army.

More than two hundred persons were in the cafe at the time and dozens of men stood helpless while Abler proceeded to give a demonstration of his experience with an automatic shotgun. The slain men were identified as James Hirsch, 34, brother of a Chicago physician, and Charles E. Nelson, 26.

Abler killed one of the two in an exchange of shots with the robber as he stood leaning over a money counter with a pistol which he was pointing at the cashier, Mme. Augustine Andree. Abler exhausted his ammunition in this fight but returned to engage the other two robbers who had lined up the guests. He fired more quickly than one of them and the second victim of his marksmanship fell dead. The other died, possibly wounded, and escaped with a fourth man who remained outside in an automobile.

"Pauff," said Abler when newspapermen talked about heroism to him. "It was nothing. I just don't like the robbery business."

Police said the four men had robbed two hotels before attempting the cafe holdup.

COUNTRY CLUB GOLF SEASON STARTED

The Roseburg Country club started the season play Sunday with a blind handicap tournament which is a preliminary event to be followed by the regular handicap tournaments. There was a large number of players on the links all day and awards were as follows: 1st prize, George Hunt, 2nd prize, a tie between Fred Luckwood and Ed Dyer—3rd prize, Dick Coon, 4th prize, H. C. Berg. Next Sunday will be another blind handicap play which will determine the position of the various players on the team for the first game of the season with Eugene Country club on the home links. This game is looked upon as one of the most pleasant of the season, as the two clubs are closely connected. Eugene having several former Roseburg members in the club, Peter Stontenburg, greens keeper, has the links in fine shape and the members are looking forward to one of the best golfing seasons the club has ever had. More new members are coming in this spring than at any time in the history of the club. The tournament committee is working hard to make the various events of the season long to be remembered by the players. Visiting golfers are coming to realize that Roseburg has a real golf course and are coming in larger numbers every year. There were twelve visiting golfers on the links Sunday from various cities of the coast; J. Barnes, Portland; H. J. Jackson, Seattle, Wash.; Dr. Lath-

WOMEN DEMAND OUSTER OF RASKOB

Democratic Group Insists on Dry Leader; Hoover Receives Visit.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—A demand for the resignation of Chairman Raskob of the democratic national committee was made today by Mrs. Jesse W. Nicholson, chairman of the national women's democratic law enforcement league.

In her keynote address before the biennial convention of the league, Mrs. Nicholson asserted a drive would be made to have organized democratic women desert the party unless a new leader were chosen.

More than 100 of the democratic women went to the White House later to pay their respects to President Hoover.

"We are constitutional democrats going to pay our respects to a constitutional president," Mrs. Nicholson said as she mustered the women into line at the executive office.

Mrs. Nicholson added the women's purpose was "to endorse his stand in the past on prohibition."

In the keynote before the convention Mrs. Nicholson described, without naming them, four "disqualified wet candidates" for the democratic nomination. She later told reporters they were Governor Ritchie of Maryland, Governor Roosevelt of New York, Alfred E. Smith and former Senator Reed of Missouri.

To President Hoover, Mrs. Nicholson said: "I want to introduce you to these good democrats who have come a long way to see you."

"Very pleased to see you," President Hoover said as he shook hands with the 200 young democratic women who said their organization had 200,000 active members.

SMART in more ways than one

Estate GAS RANGES

The new Estate Gas Ranges which we now have on display are smart looking, of course. But they're even smarter when it comes to helping you in the kitchen—giving you better cooking and baking, with little work and less worry.

Smart color combinations and Jade Green, Ivory and Ebony, also French Gray and White.

In the Estate Oven you can put four layers of cake on one rack, confident that they will come out even in shape and size and texture. No pan shifting, or peeping in, either.

As a competent judge of gas ranges, consider these Estate features. An oven that's built like a double-boiler, which means uniform distribution of the heat and uniform baking results, every time. Therm-Estate Oven Heat Control that enables you to bake by time and temperature. Oven racks that slide in and out as easily as a cabinet drawer. Rigid-draw smokeless broiler pan. Stay-cool door handles. Easy-to-clean, one-piece cooking top. Solid enamel panel behind gas cocks. Convenient utensil drawer. Vitreous enamel finish, inside and out. Rounded corners, with not a nut, bolt or hinge in sight. And, if you like, you can get any of the new enameled models of the Estate with the Heat-Retaining (Insulated) Oven, that keeps the heat in—saving gas and leaving the kitchen cool.

Make it a point to come in and see these new Estates—soon. Our terms make it an easy range to own.
