M. E. LADIES AID HAS CHARMING CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON ON THURSDAY

A large decorated Christmas tree, encircled by long tables placed as star points and beautifully appointed with clever Santa Claus, holiday napkins and tall red lighted tapers, carried out a very effective setting for the annual Christmas 1 o'clock luncheon of the Methodist Episcopal Ladies Aid members and guests Thursday in the church parlors.

The tables were decorated by Mrs. Earl Wiley and Mrs. H. A. Canaday and were unusually clever and original in design. The room's walls were banked by tall evergreens and huge baskets of firehorns, holly and mistletoe. Covers were arranged for one hundred.

Mrs. Wiley, hostess for the luncheon, was assisted by Mrs. Roy Bellows, Mrs. H. A. Canaday, Mrs. R. H. Wilson, Mrs. Laura Smith, Mrs. Mary Dillard, Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mrs. O. D. Newhard, Mrs. John Weatherford, Mrs. Lawrence Goodbourn and Mrs. Mary F. Harding.

Gifts were exchanged at the luncheon tables. Mrs. A. B. Taylor very graciously sang, "Little Town of Bethlehem," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Harrie W. Booth.

Mrs. J. D. Osborn, president, conducted the business session and Mrs. A. J. Geddes had charge of the devotions and told "The Christmas Story," in a most charming and inspirational talk. Carols were sung with Mrs. O. M. Nichols as pianist.

The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Earl Wiley and the treasurer's report was presented by Mrs. A. J. Britton. Mrs. F. H. Churchill gave a report on the recent apron and food sale, stating that $109.95 was taken in. This brings the total amount made since September by the Aid to $714.38.

The next meeting of the Aid will be held January 9 with Mrs. Paul Buhar as hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. E. Applewhite, Mrs. A. E. Morgan, Mrs. C. M. Page, Mrs. Milo Taylor, Mrs. J. B. Bailey and Miss Alice Bostick.

POTLUCK DINNER IS ENJOYED AT HOME OF CHAMBERLIN TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin entertained a group of young people of the Methodist Episcopal church at a 2:30 o'clock potluck dinner Tuesday evening. The dinner was spent in making scrapbooks for sick children, games, group singing and visiting. Mrs. Chamberlin read a Christmas play which the members of the Epworth League plan to give in the near future.

Those enjoying the delightful affair were Miss Virginia Rude, the Misses Virginia and Marjorie Gurnee, Misses Margaret and Mary French, Miss Betty Stark, Miss Janet Fickenscher, Miss Karen Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith, Norman Crites, William Neff, Messrs. Clifford and Clayton Ruby of Iowa visiting Messrs. Russell and Lavern Harris, James Redburn, little Miss Ida Chamberlin and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin.

BADOURA CLUB HAS ELECTION OF OFFICERS AT SUPPER MEETING

The Badoura club, daughters of the Nile, held a delightful thirty o'clock potluck supper Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lila Stephens in Laurelwood.

Covers were placed at an attractively appointed table for Mrs. Bert Wells, Mrs. L. W. Jordan, Mrs. Roy Butler, Mrs. Will H. Gorstensen, Jr., Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. M. B. Green and Mrs. Stephens.

Mrs. Wells, president, conducted the business meeting and new officers elected include: Mrs. Gerstensen, president; Mrs. Stephens, vice-president; Mrs. Virden, secretary; and Mrs. Jordan, treasurer.

The club will hold a six-thirty o'clock potluck supper meeting January 14 at the home of Mrs. Roy Butler in Laurelwood.

B. P. W. C. ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY TO BE HELD NEXT MONDAY

One of the most charming affairs of the business and Professional club year is the annual Christmas party held every year at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skinner at Winston and this year's party promises to be as enjoyable as those in previous years.

The party will be held Monday evening, December 16, at the Skinner home. A festive luncheon transportation will be at the drug store at 7:15 o'clock sharp. A seven-thirty o'clock dessert supper will be served at the Skinner home and members have been asked to bring their dishes and silver and a gift for exchange at the party.

The committee in charge includes Lucille Lenox, Philena Skinner, Lois Irving, Ruth Hoover, Ina Farnsworth and Maud McGaughey.

MRS. H. A. SIMMONS ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB ON FRIDAY

Mrs. H. A. Simmons very graciously entertained her bridge club at a lovely one-thirty o'clock luncheon at her home yesterday. A silver Christmas tree graced the table and covers were arranged for Mrs. Fred Lockwood, a guest, and Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. H. A. Davis, Mrs. L. W. Metzger, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. E. A. Post and the hostess, Mrs. Simmons.

High scores for the afternoon's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Metzger with Mrs. Dillard winning second high score.

DINNER-DANCE TO BE HELD BY 20:30 CLUB NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

A Christmas dinner dance has been arranged by the 20:30 club members and their ladies to be held next Wednesday evening, December 18, at eight o'clock in the Indian room of the Umpqua hotel. Joe Shirley's orchestra will furnish the music for the evening. A Christmas tree will be enjoyed and Santa Claus will distribute surprise gifts. All members and their ladies have been invited to enjoy the delightful affair.

Wealthy Sugar Widow Married

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wrigley
Beatrice Campbell Beckley, widow of the late "sugar king" of Hawaii, and Francis Wrigley, son of the noted Detroit organist, halted their honeymoon flight long enough to pose for photographers after their marriage in Hollywood.

W. C. T. U. HOLDS GUEST DAY MEETING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Roseburg W. C. T. U. held a guest day meeting in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at two-thirty with each member bringing a guest.

Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin, president, had charge of the business session with Mrs. Ira Rankin in charge of devotions. Hymns were sung and Mrs. Rankin introduced the guest speaker, Dr. J. E. Conant, who presented a very inspirational talk, taking as his text the first seven verses of the 13th chapter of Romans.

Mrs. A. C. Marsters and Mrs. G. W. Young had charge of the program, using the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis as the theme. Mrs. Marsters presented a very interesting talk and showed pictures of the home, the children and of the work being done there. She stated that there are now 180 children at the home.

At the tea hour the officers of the Union acted as hostesses and served delicious refreshments. The tea table, prettily appointed, was presided over by Mrs. Marsters and Mrs. Young. Two new members were admitted to the Union at this meeting.

LADY LIONS ARE ENTERTAINED AT JOHNSON HOME

Mrs. Willard Johnson and Mrs. Lila Stephens were joint hostesses Monday evening when they entertained the Lady Lions at a delightful seven-thirty o'clock dessert supper at the former's home in Laurelwood.

Covers were placed for Mrs. H. Zacharisen, Mrs. Glenn Owen, Mrs. J. E. Campbell, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. B. G. Elliott, Mrs. David Hess, Mrs. J. A. Hart, Mrs. Leonard Riley, Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher and Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Stephens, hostesses.

The members spent the social hour sewing for needy children for Christmas. The gifts made by the members will be turned over to Miss Anne Pitchford, county juvenile officer, for distribution.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY WILL MEET NEXT THURSDAY

All members of the Baptist Missionary society have been asked to attend the meeting announced for next Thursday afternoon, December 19, at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors.
