FIREMEN'S ANNUAL CHRISTMAS BALL WILL BE HELD DECEMBER 25

The evening of Christmas, December 25, is the date of the annual Christmas ball sponsored by the firemen at the armory at nine o'clock. This will be one of the most brilliant benefit balls of the year and the general public has been most cordially invited to enjoy the occasion.

Committees making arrangements for the affair include Phil Harth, Harry Burr, Larry Kendall, J. S. McDonald, M. E. Ritter, Jr., Fred Boyce, Iolo Stephens, Glenn Taylor, Harrie W. Booth, Walter Fredrickson, A. J. Ellison, Wallace Rapp, Will H. Gerretsen, Jr., and Hugh Whipple.

ELKS BENEFIT BALL WILL BE DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR NEXT THURSDAY

One of the most worthy benefits of the year is the Elks annual Christmas ball to raise money to bring Christmas cheer to the children of this community and the ball announced for next Thursday evening, December 19, to be held at the Elks ball room at the temple, will no doubt be one of the largest and most colorful ever sponsored by the organization.

Plans are being made by the committees for the affair for a most entertaining and enjoyable evening for the guests attending. The Elks bring cheer every Christmas to about five hundred Roseburg children. Tickets are on sale this week. Ford Singleton is acting as general chairman of the ball.

MAKING A "SELF HELP" FROCK HELPS MOTHER, TOO! PATTERN 2538

by Anne Adams

Modern mothers are sure to welcome the little's frock that's so simply styled a child can dress herself. This adorable frock is of the "Self-Help" type that teaches a youngster self-dependence, while leaving mother free to do other things. Chubby fingers will find those six shiny buttons great sport to do and undo, provided, of course, they're the brightest and shiniest mother could find. And not the least of this frock's charm is the accompanying pair of bloomers—elastic topped, which baby sister can pull up over her own sturdy little legs. A two-to-ten year old will go for printed challis in a big way, for she'll soon claim it her warmest friend.

Pattern 2538 is available in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 8 takes 2 7/8 yards 36 inch fabric and 1 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

DON'T WAIT! SEND NOW FOR THE WINTER PATTERN BOOK! You need all the advice Anne Adams gives you on keeping the family thrifty and attractively dressed. You need to know more about clothes etiquette, more about fabrics and fashions, more about glorifying your type! You'll welcome the timely tips on Christmas Gift problems too. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. Address orders to News-Review Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Oregon.

CHRISTMAS DINNER AND PARTY ENJOYED AT OSPALD HOME FRIDAY

One of the interesting affairs of the week was the Christmas dinner party held last evening at the J. F. Osipal home by the Friendly Club. The room was beautifully decorated with the Christmas motif and a lighted tree.

A delicious turkey dinner was served at seven o'clock, after which games were enjoyed. Beautiful gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Patterson honoring their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, and to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blevins honoring their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary.

A mock wedding was given in honor of the three couples. A large wedding cake, topped by three miniature brides and bridegrooms, was cut and served later in the evening and a Christmas reading was presented by Barbara Zimmerman. Those enjoying the party included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blevins, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stilewicz and son, Nathan, Mrs. J. A. Lewin, Mrs. Ruth Reese, Miss Elsie Reese, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Osipal, Oran Lewin, Albert Stone, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rutter and sons, Leland and Darrell and Barbara, Janice and Vernon Zimmerman.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY WILL HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY TUESDAY

Following a short business meeting the American Legion auxiliary and the Legion will enjoy a delightful overall and apron "kilt" party Tuesday evening, December 17, at the armory.

An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion in the form of a school days entertainment. The regular master will preside and songs, recitations and stunts will be presented. The program will be closed by a spilling match between the auxiliary and post members.

The women attending have been asked to bring box suppers, which will be sold for a nominal price to the post members. The men have been asked to attend the party dressed in overalls and the ladies are to wear aprons.

As this will be one of the most entertaining meetings of the auxiliary and post, it is expected a large number will be present for the affair.

KEYSTONE CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL CHRISTMAS POTLUCK SUPPER FRIDAY

The members of the Keystone club entertained their husbands at a very delightful six-thirty o'clock potluck Christmas supper and party last evening in the Methodist Episcopal church parlors.

The New Idea club will hold its annual Christmas luncheon and party at one o'clock next Wednesday, December 18, at the home of Mrs. V. R. Buckingham on South Stephens street. Gifts will be exchanged.

PRO-AMERICA CHAPTER IS ORGANIZED HERE FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The Douglas County Republican Women's club met yesterday afternoon in the studio of Mrs. C. S. Heinline and organized the Pro-America chapter for this county. Election of officers was held at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Douglas county chairman for republican women, who has been serving as chairman of the D. C. R. W. C. for three years, presided over the business meeting and gave a resume of the Pro-America chapter work being accomplished in Portland. Mrs. Heinline attended the luncheon meeting of the chapter in Portland at the Heathman hotel last Monday.

As the Pro-America organization is a national federated union, the women of the Douglas County Republican Women's club felt that more could be accomplished by working under a complete program and outline furnished by the national organization.

A luncheon meeting has been arranged by the chapter to be held at the Umpqua hotel, Wednesday, January 8, at 12 o'clock, to which republican men and women of Douglas county and anyone interested have been invited to make reservations for the affair and attend. Some of the state officers are expected to be present as speakers and a very interesting and beneficial meeting is anticipated. For reservations for this luncheon call Mrs. J. H. Booth, Mrs. L. A. Wells or Mrs. I. B. Riddick.

The next regular meeting of the chapter will be held December 27, at 2 o'clock in the studio of Mrs. Heinline.

THIMBLE CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING AT J. H. MILLER HOME

The Woodcraft Thimble club met Monday afternoon at the J. H. Miller home on South Stephens street with Mrs. Malinda Miller and Mrs. Prudie Hildinger as joint hostesses.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Elsie McComas and Mrs. Hildinger. Following a business session a most enjoyable auction sale was held, after which a lovely potluck luncheon was served to Mrs. May Van Zile and Mrs. Gile, guests, and Mrs. Anna Dowell, Mrs. Lilly Farmar, Mrs. Myrtle Norwood, Mrs. Katie Slinger, Mrs. Dorothy Williams, Mrs. Elsie McComas, Mrs. Hildinger, Mrs. L. The next meeting will be held December 23 at the home of Mrs. Slinger and will take place in the evening.

NORTHSIDE SUNSHINE CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON THURSDAY

Mrs. Roscoe Marsters and Mrs. William Carstensen were joint hostesses Thursday at the former's home at a lovely Christmas luncheon for the Northside Sunshine club members. A miniature Christmas tree graced the table. Gifts were exchanged following the luncheon and games were played until late in the afternoon when the regular business session was held.

Those enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Marsters and Mrs. Carstensen included Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. Henry Worthington, Mrs. E. P. Ballou, Mrs. Mable Harness, Mrs. B. C. Chilson, Mrs. Elsie McComas, Mrs. L. W. Zeller, Mrs. J. C. Fisher, Mrs. Glenn Cox and Mrs. Lilly Goodman.

The next meeting will be January 9 at the home of Mrs. Ingels.

MISS GURNEE ELECTED TO OFFICE IN E. L. CONFERENCE COUNCIL

Miss Marjorie B. Gurnee, prominent for her work in the Epworth League chapter, has been elected to the office of third vice president of the Oregon conference Epworth League council, according to word received here from Miss Edna Larson, state secretary.

Miss Gurnee is now holding office in the local, sub-district, district and state Epworth League councils.

The new president, Rev. M. A. Groves, recent pastor of the Methodist church in Cottage Grove, has announced the first meeting of the new council to be held Friday, December 27, at 6:30 p. m., at the Argo hotel, Salem.

LOVELY SUNDAY SUPPER ENJOYED AT GERRETSENS

Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen entertained at a lovely informal seven o'clock supper at their home Sunday evening, asking as their guests, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Archibald and Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Pargeter.

The table was beautifully appointed with tall yellow tapers and matching centerpiece and favors. A pleasant social evening followed the supper.

P. T. A. ACTIVITIES

Glide The Glide P. T. A. has announced an interesting meeting for Monday evening, December 16, at 7:30 o'clock at the schoolhouse, at which time Senator Walter Fisher will be the speaker. An interesting program has been arranged and all members and friends have been invited.

Junior-Senior The Junior-Senior High P. T. A. held the second of its panel discussion meetings Tuesday evening at the junior high school with LeRoy Hatt presiding. Clyde Beard and R. H. Brand presented very interesting talks on the activities of the schools. Miss Geraldine Hixson gave a splendid talk on the student home room maintained at the junior high school for the purpose of the students being able to have a definite place to talk over their problems with their instructors. Talks were interestingly presented by Miss Thelma Smith and Charles Doerner.

These panel discussions are conducted most informally and are
