'Never So Happy,' Says Hammer Killer

Calmly telling Los Angeles police that she ended an eight-year love life with Dr. Walter Forrest Hammond, 62-year-old dentist, by beating him to death with a hammer, Frances Mabel Willys is pictured demonstrating how she claims she swung the hammer over her head and crashed it down on Dr. Hammond's skull during a drinking quarrel. "I was never so happy as when I put an end to that. I'm not a bit sorry," she is reported to have told the authorities in the confession the police claim she made to them.
