MYRTLE CREEK

MYRTLE CREEK, Dec. 26.—Mrs. E. C. Bryant of North Myrtle entertained several ladies from Umpqua at a dinner Saturday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Minnie Pendleton, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

L. A. Dailey and sons of Glide were visitors in Myrtle Creek Thursday. They transacted business and visited with old friends. They formerly operated a sawmill in this district.

The patrons of North Myrtle school district held their usual potluck supper at the Cedar Grove schoolhouse on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were in charge of the program, which was enjoyed by a good sized crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shirliff and his mother, Mrs. Edward Shirliff, who left recently for an auto trip to Denver, Colorado, expected to reach their destination on Sunday evening. Cards received from them along the way indicate that some snow and cold weather were encountered on the trip.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church, led by the pastor, the Rev. Frank W. Zook, and the officers of the society, went caroling on Christmas eve. There were 23 in the party composed of the following: The Misses Alberta, Ada and Louise Yocum, Frankie Yocum, Miss Grace Adamson, Wanda and Gaylord Skinn, Harley and Cecil Naas, Stanley Whitney, Glenn and Harold Gilmore, Goldie and Robert Keaton, Bradford and Hope Wynters, Helen and Dale Brown, Lila Connelly, Margaret Marcum, Naomi and Paul Zook and Rev. Frank W. Zook. A number of homes were visited where the Christmas carols were sung to the sick, afflicted and aged.

Prof. and Mrs. Daniel Poling and little son are spending their Christmas vacation with her parents in Maupin, Ore., and later with his parents in Albany. They will return home about Saturday, December 28.

The citizens of Myrtle Creek, and the surrounding districts, are enjoying the good cheer that comes from the many colored lights of the municipal Christmas tree, at the end of Second street. For a number of years this tree has been erected and illuminated at the expense of the town.

Rev. Frank W. Zook, of the local Christian church, filled his regular preaching appointment at Nugget schoolhouse, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The preaching service was preceded by special Christmas program, consisting of readings, songs and recitations, given by the South Myrtle Sunday school. There was a splendid audience in attendance.

Mrs. Chas. Rice, wife of the local editor, went to Eugene Monday to be with her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Gould, who is a patient in the Pacific Christian hospital, as a result of a very serious automobile accident experienced a short time ago.

Otis Clayton, Glenn Gilmore and Herbert Yocum are home from Oregon State college at Corvallis, for the Christmas holidays. They will return to their school duties next week.

J. D. Owen, father of Mrs. N. A. Lacy of Myrtle Creek, who has been critically ill for a number of weeks with heart trouble, was reported some better this week.

Mrs. H. F. English, wife of the principal of the Oakland public schools was a visitor here Tuesday with her daughter, Alice. Mr. English was formerly principal of the Myrtle Creek schools.

Mrs. Clara Strong, who operates the Myrtle Creek hotel, has returned from a trip to Camp Lewis, where she visited with her son, and with relatives and friends at other points along the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Stelzler of the Stetler Mill and Lumber company, were visitors in Glendale Sunday afternoon. They report considerable frost in the mountains with cold winds.

Paul and Hubert Frederick, also Miss Margery Bates are home from the University of Oregon, at Eugene, for the Christmas holidays to be spent with their parents here.

Mrs. Mack, a former resident of Myrtle Creek, has returned from California and has rented the P. W. Weaver property on Third street, formerly occupied by Prof. H. W. English and family.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Crawford of South Myrtle, gave a birthday party recently in honor of the 12th birthday anniversary of their daughter, Daisy. A number of young friends were present, among them being, Nida Dyer and sister, Russell and Robert Sabin.

May, Lucille and Alice Hollinger. At the close refreshments were served to the happy company.
