

News of Douglas County

YONCALLA

YONCALLA, Dec. 30 — Junior Gross of Redding, Calif., is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Alice Gross, for a few days.

Fred Smith is transacting business in Portland for a few days this week.

Howard Cornett left Thursday for a week's visit with relatives in Portland.

Mrs. A. E. Gilmer left Thursday for Eugene where she will undergo a major operation in the Pacific Christian hospital.

Mrs. Ruby Norton and Miss Beattie Wain of Portland are visiting at the Tom Westfall home for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gogel and family of Albany are visiting at the Forbes home at Red Hill for a week.

Oscar Thiel is visiting his wife and daughter in Eugene for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sefton and family are visiting relatives in Portland for a few days.

Mrs. Sarah Wertz of Grants Pass is visiting her sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kingley, for a few days.

Miss Dorothy Gant and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Churchill are visiting relatives in Olympia, Wash., for a week.

Mr. Sargent of Riddle is visiting his daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turpin, for a week.

Mrs. Martha Sutherland left Monday for Tacoma, Wash., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Nora Boyd, for a month.

The annual Christmas party of the Scotts Valley school was held in the school rooms Monday evening. After enjoying a very fine program, presents and treats were distributed from a beautiful tree.

School closed Tuesday night for a two weeks vacation. Miss Byron left for her home in Ocala and Miss Rice for Drain.

Ed. Newby and Harold Edes motored to Cottage Grove Friday.

Mrs. Luther Daugherty, Claude Daugherty and Jack Bishop transacted business in Eugene Friday.

Mrs. Zedie Bishop and Jack Bishop left Saturday for a few days visit with relatives in Portland.

Robert Johnson and Raphael Toner left Saturday for La Grande, Ore., where they will try out for the La Grande normal school basketball team. If they are accepted, both boys will enter the La Grande normal school in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Howard and two children, Earline and Earl, of Chilwood, Ore., spent the weekend visiting Mrs. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Winkshaw spent Sunday visiting friends in Treweek.

Mrs. C. Cornett and son Claire transacted business in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Marsh and daughter Venola are visiting relatives in Salem over the holidays.

Mrs. Rachel Williams and Mrs. Hazel Hannon motored to Salem Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bear of Clatskanie spent several days last week visiting at the Alice Gross home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Patrick of Sweet Home are visiting at the A. H. Patrick home.

Merle Jo Riddle and Richard Riddle of Riddle visited at the Elmer Daugherty home last week.

Mrs. Luther Daugherty and son Claude spent the weekend visiting relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Oscar Thiel of Eugene spent several days last week here with her husband.

Will Lorey of Lorane visited his mother, Mrs. Mary Lorey, at the Charlie Howes home, Christmas day.

Miss Alice Woolley of Portland and Mrs. Arthur Woolley and son Carwin of Leona, visited at the John Brown home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Huntington of Marshfield visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Burt of Oakridge visited at the Samler and Peret home last week.

ELKTON

ELKTON, Dec. 28 — Charles Lapp has returned home from Roseburg where he has been ill for the past several months.

Mrs. Charles Solomon and daughter Joy, of Unquapa, have returned home after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Haines.

Lucille Johnson, of Scottsburg, is visiting at the H. L. Bessen home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson and son, of Kellogg, motored to Eugene Thursday to see Virginia Anderson, who is in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Pontius and family of Creswell are spending a few days at the Charles Binder home.

R. Glass, of Cottage Grove, was attending to business matters in Elkton Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Thomas and family spent Wednesday at Forest Grove.

Mrs. Hattie Atkinson, of Grangeville, Idaho, is visiting her brother, Sam Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steel, of Booth, spent Christmas at the home of Mrs. Ella Penley.

Horn-To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Madison, of Kellogg, a daughter, Dec. 29.

The high school closed Tuesday till after the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bloodgood, of Reedsport, spent Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Haines.

Jim Traylor, of Drain, was attending to business matters in Elkton Thursday.

TENMILE

TENMILE, Dec. 28 — A large crowd gathered at the Tenmile church Friday night to enjoy the school and community Christmas programs. A fine program was given and gifts for the children were brought by a thoughtful Santa Claus.

Mrs. Dick Singleton and daughter, Betty, Lou, of Klamath Falls are spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Britten-bucher motored to San Francisco to spend Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Simpson of Coquille visited friends here over the weekend.

Miss Vera Sibold visited Sunday evening with Mrs. Henry Rowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Bushnell and family of Sweet Home, Oregon, are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Minnie Bushnell.

Mrs. Rilla Hain, who has spent the past two months visiting a daughter at Grants Pass, returned to her home Saturday.

The basketball benefit dance Saturday night was attended by a large crowd.

Miss Isabella Walders, primary teacher, has gone to San Francisco to spend the Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Henry Rowell spent several days in Roseburg visiting her sister, Mrs. Conrad Arnold.

DAYS CREEK

DAYS CREEK, Dec. 30 — John Hutchinson, who is stationed at the Nyasa CCC camp, near Ontario, spent the Christmas holidays here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hutchinson.

Roy Patton and his father arrived here Thursday evening from their home at Eagle Creek, south-east of Portland, to visit two or three days with relatives.

Mrs. J. W. Adamson, her daughter, Miss Grace Adamson, Eugene school teacher, who visited here since Friday evening, and Da-vide Adamson, local seventh and eighth grade teacher, left Tuesday afternoon for their home at Myrtle Creek.

Miss Adamson planned to go on to Portland Thursday to attend the Oregon State Teachers' association meeting.

Ben Buzzard left last weekend for Payette, Idaho, to visit over the Christmas holidays with his mother and his brothers and sisters.

Mr. Buzzard is manager of the Clark sawmill here.

Mrs. John Gram returned to her home at Lebanon last week after spending several days here during the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Chancy.

Frank Ruh of Burns is making an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rhoads.

Recently he and Mr. Rhoads spent a week visiting relatives and friends at Burns.

Robert V. Hill, student at University of Oregon medical school, Portland, arrived Saturday to spend a two weeks' vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hill.

Jack Smith, student at O. S. C., is spending the holidays at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. S. Smith, at Milo; Lawrence Michaels, O. S. C. freshman, is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Michaels, and Jesse Loffer, also a student at Oregon State, is spending the holidays at the home of his father, J. D. Loffer, at Tiller.

Miss Gem Hutchinson, second year student at Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland, is spending her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hutchinson.

Miss Gladys Ulan, primary teacher in the Myrtle Creek school, is visiting during her week's holiday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Ulan, near Milo.

Howard Ward visited three days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Benson at Tiller.

Miss Frances Michaels of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Homer Gray of Corvallis arrived during the weekend to remain until after Christmas visiting at the home of their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Michaels.

Miss Reba Ellison, who is employed at Unquapa and Miss Maxine Bartley of Roseburg came out from Roseburg Monday evening with the latter's uncle, Fritz Snyder, for a visit with their respective relatives.

Miss Ellison is spending the week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ellison, near Canyonville.

Norman K. Raymond returned to his home at Portland Thursday afternoon after spending Christmas here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Raymond.

J. L. Willard is spending several days visiting relatives at Seattle and North Bend, Washington.

Roseburg visitors last Saturday included Mr. and Mrs. Clay Ulan and daughter, Miss Gladys and son, Jack, Mrs. J. S. Smith and sons, Jake and Jack, all of Milo, and C. C. Hill.

RIDDLE

RIDDLE, Dec. 28 — Mrs. Ralph Lawrence, Sheridan, is spending the week here at the home of her mother, Mrs. Viola Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern MacGill and children arrived here Tuesday from their home at Goose River to spend the Christmas holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Platt.

Mrs. Sarah Ball left this week for Redding, Calif., where she will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Ethel Ball, registered nurse at that city.

Richard Riddle, who is employed at Klamath Falls, is visiting relatives here this week.

Miss Frances Frater, instructor in the Sacramento high school, is spending the holidays here visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frater.

Miss Ruth Mosthat is visiting and shopping in Portland this week.

Mrs. Constance Wesland and children of Medford are guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. B. L. Hicks.

Mrs. V. E. Leighton and daughter, Williametta, accompanied by Lester Moore of Malia, motored to Jasper Tuesday where they visited over the Christmas holiday with relatives.

Miss Bernice Bargoyne of Seattle is visiting here at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ida Bargoyne.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Johnson and son, Jimmie Lee of Reedsport, are guests of relatives here this week.

Mr. Johnson returned to Reedsport Thursday but Mrs. Johnson will remain for a longer visit.

Mrs. Cora Cloud left recently for Seattle where she is spending the holidays at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Don Wyllie, and other relatives.

The Old Time Dancing club sponsored another of their enjoyable dances at the gym Wednesday evening. A large crowd attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Nichols and two children of Tule Lake visited here several days last week with relatives and old friends. They were on their way to Bend to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mrs. Ab Matthews and children, Maude Jane and Bobby, are visiting in Salem this week.

The Riddle school gave a Christmas program at the school gym last Friday afternoon, which was well attended by interested parents and friends. Treats were given to the pupils by the teachers and presents exchanged.

The school is enjoying a holiday this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Julia Gilbreath and son Carl, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bowden of Roseburg, motored to Portland the first of the week where they spent Christmas with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross King and son of Roseburg were guests here Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gary.

Mrs. Johnnie Lloyd and daughter Shirley of Eugene arrived here Monday for a few days visit with Mrs. Lloyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Acker.

Among local girls who are home for the holidays are Miss Kathryn Diddot, teacher at Milton, Oregon; Miss Florence Moshat, teacher at Medford, Oregon; Miss Marie Wil-lis, student at Ashland normal; and Miss Margarette Hall, student at Eugene business college.

Mrs. Wanda Cosgrove, who recently lost her husband, F. J. Cosgrove, by death, left last week for points in California to spend the holidays with relatives. She expects to return by the first of the year and resume her duties as teacher in district 29, making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Henslee.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cornett entertained a family party at their home Christmas day, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Towne of Eugene, J. M. Cornett, Marvin, Donald, Jack and Betty Cornett of Riddle.

Work has not yet commenced on the new school house at Riddle, the delay being caused by the recent fire incident to getting the approval of the government on the accepted contract. Stanley Jones, attorney for the school district, states that the matter is about cleared up and work will begin in the near future.

CAMAS VALLEY

CAMAS VALLEY, Dec. 28 — Mrs. Nora Thrush and daughter Sylvia arrived from California the last of the week to visit with the former's mother, Mrs. G. W. S. Wade, during the Christmas holidays.

They all went to Coquille Tuesday afternoon to spend Christmas day with relatives.

Miss Wilma Martindale has been working at Coos Junction since her return from Chiloquin. She had Tuesday and Wednesday off, so she could spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Story Martindale.

Stony Cawfield went to Roseburg to spend Christmas at his home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blackett were up from Marshfield last week to visit with the latter's father, Elmer Croy. Jake Croy returned to Marshfield with them the last of the week.

Mr. Van Gundy of Upper Olla spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer.

The Tenmile CCC camp has been torn down and moved away. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer, who have lived there as caretakers since the camp was vacated, have moved back to their place at Criss McCann's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Coates and daughter Helen of Powers came up Tuesday to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dick.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dick and small son Douglas of Ophir arrived Wednesday morning and Warren Dick came Tuesday night. All the family were home for Christmas dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Coen and two children, Don and Virginia, went to Klamath Falls Tuesday morning to spend Christmas with relatives.

Rud Coen is taking care of their place during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Lawson of Powers called a few minutes at the T. G. Lawson home Christmas eve on their way to Roseburg to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Combs went to North Bend Tuesday to spend the holidays with Mr. Combs' parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bangs returned to their home at Arizona Wednesday evening as Mr. Bangs expected to go to work Thursday morning.

SAYS G. O. P. MIGHT AS WELL STAY HOME

CHICAGO, Dec. 30 — (AP) — Senator William Gibbs McAdoo (D., Calif.), said today the republicans might just as well forget about a national convention and plan to stay at home.

With this ad' poke at the G. O. P., McAdoo and his three-months bride, the former Porto Rican, continued on their way to Washington for the opening of congress.

"I think conditions are improving, especially on the coast, and I can see no reason for the republicans to hold a convention at all," he said.

The "new deal" still commands his vote, Senator McAdoo said.

GRANGES INSTALL AT YONCALLA MEET

Officers were installed for the Elk Creek subordinate and juvenile granges at a ceremony conducted Saturday at Yoncalla. Mrs. Alice Goff, state lecturer, served as installation officer, assisted by Ethel Basenbark, marshal; Lucille Conn, emblem bearer; Amy Kruse, regalia bearer; Katie Conn, chaplain; Fred A. Goff, presiding officer.

The new officers of the subordinate grange are: Amy Kruse, master; J. B. Wilson, overseer; Kate Wertz, lecturer; John Wilson, steward; Arne Bjork, assistant steward; Zedie Bishop, chaplain; Addie Caator, treasurer; Jacob Wilson, secretary; George Wilson, gatekeeper; Fannie Wilson, Ceres; Esther Turpin, Pomona; Maud Turpin, Flora; George Wilson, James Robinson, H. L. Cowles, executive committee.

The juvenile grange officers are: John Palmer, master; Fanny Palmer, overseer; Betty Ruth Jones, lecturer; Albert Palmer, steward; Howard Applegate, assistant steward; Priscilla Turpin, secretary; Richard Palmer, gatekeeper; Esther Lee, Ceres; Patricia Turpin, Pomona; Oranay Gore, Flora; Norma Hitchcock, lady assistant steward.

The meeting was featured by a turkey dinner served at noon.

The Elk Creek grange meets at the L. O. O. F. hall at Yoncalla on the second Sunday of each month.

With new officers installed, the members are looking forward to a very successful year. Two new members were received at Saturday's meeting.

CANYONVILLE

CANYONVILLE, Dec. 30 — Mrs. Ethel Harts, who has been employed at the Bridge tavern, is visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Willis, of Raymond, Washington, visited here over Christmas with Mrs. Willis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whitney and Mr. Willis' brother, W. H. Willis.

William Hyatt and family of Roseburg spent Christmas at the home of his brother, Ed Hyatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ramberg and children are visiting with relatives at Mount Vernon, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Willis spent the week-end visiting friends in Eugene.

Mrs. May Kruse and Forest Reen of Portland were guests at the Fred Elliott home over Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rauber are visiting in Palo Alto, California.

Dick Bacon of Portland is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Rauber, at White House camp.

Mrs. A. M. Shaffer and son, Robert, are visiting friends in San Francisco, California.

The Rebekahs will hold a watch party New Year's eve. Cards and other sources of amusement will be enjoyed during the evening. January 2 the Rebekah lodge will meet for installation of officers.

Joseph Casti has been ill, but it is reported his condition is greatly improved.

Mrs. Frank Miller of Portland has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Norman Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bonds and family enjoyed Christmas at the Stanley Jones home in Riddle.

An eight-pound baby girl, Barbara Diane, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Paulson, December 23.

Mr. and Mrs. James V. Blake are spending the Christmas holidays in Oregon City and Portland, visiting relatives.

Mrs. E. G. Ramey left Friday to visit her sons in southern California.

Mrs. Jennie Hopkins, who has been living in California, is visiting here with her son, Kenneth, and family.

WILBUR

WILBUR, Dec. 30 — Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Adair and baby son of Fort Peck, Montana, are house guests of Mrs. Adair's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baird.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Reed of Cottage Grove were dinner guests on Christmas of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sande.

Misses Irene and Olive Walker of Seattle are spending the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Russell and children of Portland arrived last Sunday to spend the Christmas holidays at the home of Mr. Russell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Palmer and little son Bobby were dinner guests Christmas day of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wells at Elkton.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith and daughter, Miss Virginia, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith of Oakland, motored to Medford Christmas to enjoy Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith.

Mrs. D. E. Moon spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Howell of Dixonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Russell and daughter Louise and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Russell were dinner guests Christmas day of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Russell.

GLENDALE

GLENDALE, Dec. 28 — Doreen Boice of Grants Pass arrived Tuesday evening to make a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boice.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stewart are visiting in Medford, Oregon.

Helen Taylor of Ashland made a brief visit here Monday.

Mrs. Isabel Older and brother, Sam Taylor, are now visiting in Los Angeles.

Miss Sabina Nerbas and Francis Nelson left Wednesday to visit in Ukiah, California, with Miss Nerbas' brother, Dick Nerbas.

Frank Corwin of Mule creek visited here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerby Thomas and family left Saturday to visit with Charles Birchfield of Dada creek.

Adam Flurry of Roseburg attended to business here Monday.

Bob Windes left Tuesday to visit his brother, Lester, Windes, at Selkirk, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morey and daughter Diane of Rand visited relatives here during Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Normoyle and family left Tuesday to visit relatives in Woodburn.

Kenneth Henninger arrived Friday from Corvallis to make an extended visit here with his brother, Al Henninger.

Mrs. Rex Adams left Sunday evening to make a visit with her family and friends in Riddle.

Lola Straube left Saturday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Straube, of Applegate.

Mrs. E. Grubbs returned to her home in Portland after several weeks' visit here with her daughter, Mrs. Homer Shelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Huntington are visiting in Newberg.

Grace D. Woodruff left Monday to attend to business affairs in California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore and family of Riddle visited friends and relatives here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stevenson are being visited by their daughters, Mary and Margaret Stevenson, of Corvallis, and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ren Stevenson.

G. I. Wardrip arrived Sunday from Salem to visit indefinitely with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watt and daughter Shirley Louise of Eugene arrived Tuesday to visit with Mrs. Watt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nellson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Coolidge and family of Hagaiiman, Idaho, are visiting Mrs. Coolidge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Jones. Mrs. Coolidge is the former Ollie Jones of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Trout of Woodburn visited at the Carl Harper home Sunday.

Albert Jones of Saginaw and son Russell, student at the medical school in Portland, visited briefly at the Josiah Jones home Christmas.

Mrs. Bernice Martin, student at Ashland normal school, is visiting friends and relatives here.

OAKLAND

OAKLAND, Dec. 28 — Mrs. Belle Bridges left Tuesday afternoon for Eugene to visit over Christmas with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. Endicott and Mrs. Endicott.

Mrs. Joe Smith, accompanied by her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith and their daughter, Miss Virginia, of Wilbur, went to Medford Tuesday where they will spend the holidays with the former's granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith and son Donald.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Truitt have as their house guests this week Mrs. Truitt's sister, Mrs. Clifford Feiler and son Dan of Salem.

Some business visitors in Oakland Tuesday included: St. Henry Calapoolia, and Roy Fisher, Wal Goodman and Cleve Sparks of Kellogg.

Miss Martha Young, an instructor in the Walla Walla high school, is spending her Christmas vacation here visiting her mother, Mrs. Emily Young, and other relatives and friends.

Kenneth Henninger, a senior at the University of Oregon, arrived in Oakland Friday to visit over the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.