GAY PRINT FROCK ADDS A PEPLUM FOR DOUBLE-DUTY CHIC PATTERN 2526

by Anne Adams

This gay young frock's a wizard at mathematics—and Chic! One day it adds its jaunty peplum and looks for all the world like a "two-piece." The next—the peplum's subtracted—for an entirely new and novel effect, which adds considerably to the versatility of any wardrobe by giving it two smart frocks in one. It's a pattern, too, that every style-wise girl from sixteen on will want, find easy to make, for sleeves and yoke are cut together in one simple operation. No need of expensive trim with rich shirring atop the bodice. Make it up now in a colorful print, and we'll wager you'll be the first with this vogue.

Pattern 2526 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 4 yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE. Send for OUR SPRING PATTERN BOOK! It's a thrifty guide to clothes with the new 1936 look. Easy-to-make designs for matrons, misses and children, for daytime and evening, work and play. Special patterns for slimming, stout figures. Flattering collars for working magic changes on all occasions frocks. The latest fabric and accessory news. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY FIVE CENTS. ROSEBURG COUPLE WEDDED 60 YEARS

Felicitations Received by Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Black of Pitzer Street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Black, of 428 Pitzer St., are receiving felicitations of friends today on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary. Due to poor health they are holding no formal celebration of the event, but received scores of their relatives and friends at their home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Black, both natives of Georgia and members of old families of that state, were married in Georgia January 6, 1876.

Shortly after their marriage they moved to Texas, where for many years Mr. Black operated one of the largest cotton gins in the south. When the plant was destroyed by fire in 1900, the family moved to Oregon, and he became employed with the Douglas Light and Water company, serving with that concern until ill health forced his retirement about 10 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Black are the parents of ten children, all of whom are living. They are Mrs. E. C. (Minnie) Bell, Gladewater, Tex.; Mrs. J. G. (Belle) Stephenson, Roseburg; Sam Black, Albany; Mrs. W. D. (Ella) Harris, Roseburg; Mrs. W. H. (Archie) Graham, Farwell, N. M.; P. H. (Clack) Darlington, Calif.; Mrs. T. Floyd (Ellie) Bell, Oakland, Calif.; Cecil and Carl Black, and Mrs. Grant (Claylie) Osborne, Roseburg.

They also have 22 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Four generations were present at a family dinner Christmas day when 19 members of the family were gathered at home. The whole family was in attendance for the wedding celebration ten years ago.
