

GEN. HUGH JOHNSON CRITICIZES F. D. R.

Night Message Described as "Rabble Rousing" and Civil War Threat.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Gen. Hugh Johnson, former NRA chief, sharply criticized President Roosevelt's night message to congress today and warned against a "rabble rousing" which he said threatens to plunge the country into a grave crisis in the coming campaign.

Class conflict, he predicted, will result from the opposing alignments of big business and administration leaders unless an understanding is reached.

Johnson, who has criticized various phases of the New Deal administration since his retirement as head of the NRA, said:

Hoffman Critic

Crawford Jamieson

Crawford Jamieson, Mercer County member of New Jersey legislature, is demanding investigation of Governor Harold Hoffman's action in reopening Hauptmann case, alleging the governor is seeking to make political capital out of the Lindbergh kidnaping.

Tuesday, Andrew Flurry is Mrs. Dobyn's brother.

Mrs. G. I. Wardrip returned Tuesday after a brief visit with her husband in Corvallis.

Miss Verna Kafer returned to Portland Sunday night after several days visit here with her family and friends. Miss Kafer is employed as a stenographer in Portland.

AAA KNOCKOUT MAY BRING NEW TAXES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP)—New dealers at the bar of AAA today pondered the fate of other recent legislation.

The supreme court's decision holding the farm program an unconstitutional invasion of state's rights continued to dismay the sponsors of the agricultural adjustment administration, which came to an abrupt stop.

Opinion was expressed by some that the social security act, the Tugwell coal control act and the Wagner labor relations law, may be doomed.

Direct results of the decision included:

1.—The possibility that new taxes may be recommended, as legislators recalled President Roosevelt's warning that if the attacks on AAA were sustained, "we will have to face the problem of financing existing contracts."

2.—Plans for a major farm meeting in the capital to discuss possible future legislation.

3.—Talk of the creation of 48 "little AAAs," or federal grants to farmers for "proper land use," or a quota system for crops to be sold domestically at prices guaranteed by the government.

Officials of the A. F. of L. said many farmers would support an amendment to validate "social justice" legislation but several republicans called the AAA decision wholesome and attacked the new deal for passing legislation declared invalid.

Altogether, eight judges who considered the House Mills case, testing AAA, found the law unconstitutional; five found it valid.

The supreme court division was 6 to 3 against. The circuit court was 2 to 1 against. (Originally the district judge found the law constitutional.)

ROME PRESS FLAYS U. S. NEUTRALITY

(By the Associated Press.)

Attacks on the United States' neutrality program, proposed by President Roosevelt, occurred in Italy's fascist press today, apparently with the full prior knowledge of Premier Mussolini's regime.

As the American congress studied the president's and cabinet proposals to keep this nation's skirts clear of war, two more major newspapers of Italy's government-supervised press, Mussolini's own Popolo d'Italia of Milan and Il Popolo di Roma, criticized Rooseveltian policies.

To other organs have launched similar campaigns. The Giornale d'Italia and La Tribuna, Il Popolo di Roma said the president's stand was due to "necessarily imperfect and not profound knowledge" of European problems.

Unofficial reports in Paris said the British general staff is opposed to an application of an oil embargo against Italy, and the probability of the outbreak before February 1 was deemed an "improbable vision."

At the war front Ethiopians celebrated their Christmas, buoyed by fresh hopes for victory over the Italian invaders of their country. Adding to their joyousness was the fact that they had not been hit by a single shell during the northern front.

A young specialist in international law from Brussels, Belgium, joined the Ethiopian emperor's "house of trust." The newcomer, John H. Spencer, 26, will be an assistant political adviser to the Ethiopian government.

END. Ore., Jan. 4.—(AP)—Bond city commissioners selected Mayor Fred S. Simpson to succeed term. Bond operates under the city manager plan.

DOUGLAS SHORT OF YULE SEAL GOAL

Those Christmas Seals that were panted into the coffin corner of forgetfulness can be put right back into the game and carried to a touchdown against tuberculosis —the big, burly team of the dis- ease league. Let those fighting dol- lars break out of the huddle and march right up to the line of certainty.

With Douglas county still many dollars short of the goal, it is hoped that this appeal will meet with needed response.

In a brochure published by the National Tuberculosis association, Dr. Kendall Emerson, its managing director, sums up briefly the benefits to be derived from preventive measures, such as those to be carried on in Douglas county in 1936.

"Searching among apparently healthy children is valuable from two standpoints: the individual welfare of the child; and the protection of public health.

"Obviously, when a child is found to be infected a careful investigation of his environment is indicated to discover if he is living in contact with an open or a suspicious case. By breaking that contact a great service is rendered the child. Furthermore, much can be done to build up his resistance and to train him in proper health habits.

"Quite as important is the utilization of a case of first infection or of childhood type tuberculosis as a clue by means of which we may trace the whereabouts of active cases of adult type or reinfection tuberculosis. In the control of tuberculosis the household and not the individual patient is the unit. Having knowledge of a case of infection of tuberculosis, it becomes our obligation to search the immediate surroundings of the child for the source of infection. The search often leads to an obvious open case which menaces the entire community."

And thoughtful citizens, pondering this impressive brief for tuberculosis testing and X-raying, will implement the work with their remittances without further delay.

RFC CLOSES YEAR WITH NET RECEIPTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—An estimate that the reconstruction finance corporation will chalk up net receipts of $125,000,000 during the next fiscal year is an indication that it will continue to extend a helping hand to the nation's railroads were contained in the annual budget today.

In his budget message, President

Roosevelt said that while it was originally estimated the RFC would close the last fiscal year with an excess of $556,000,000 of loans over repayments, it actually wound up with net receipts of $197,000,000.

This, he said, was due to improved business conditions and a consequent drop in demands for aid from the lending agency.

The corporation has disbursed approximately $6,000,000,000 of loans, of which $2,750,000,000 is outstanding.

A sharp reduction in loans to banks and trust companies and certain other agencies was forecast for the next fiscal year. Estimated at $280,000,000 for this year, advances to banks and trust companies were listed at $75,000,000 for 1935-37.

Loans to railroads, on the other hand, were expected to rise from $129,000,000 this year to $150,000,000. The RFC already has loaned about $500,000,000 to railroads.

The automobile is the first family of industry as shown by data of the Automobile Manufacturers association. It is the largest domestic user of the following: Steel, gasoline, oil, rubber, plate glass, mohair, nickel, lead and upholstery leather. In 1934 this industry consumed 3.1 per cent of the cotton produced, 13 per cent of the copper, 3 per cent of the lumber, and 13.3 per cent of the tin.
